Attention Class of 2000: "Mandatory Minors"

Molly Devaney

On Wednesday April 2, Professor Ketcham attended the Student Senate meeting to clear up and better explain the mandatory Liberal Arts minors. He began by answering the three questions that everyone has been wondering about: everyone needs to develop a Liberal Arts minor to satisfy your degree requirements; the credits used by the minor do not detract from your ability to minor in a functional area of Business; and finally, you do not need to declare your Liberal Arts minor at this time.

Bryant has recently been accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business. The AACSB have altered the standards of accreditation, by reducing the number of business courses that you are able to take now with no more than sixty credits, which would end up being no more than 50% of credits used toward your degree. The sixty credit hours given to students to take the business core (30 hours), develop a concentration (18 hours), and through the use of free electives, develop a business minor (12 hours) without taking any extra classes. For those students who are planning to study Accounting or Applied Actuarial Mathematics, you cannot develop a business minor without taking any other extra courses, due to the fact that the concentration requirements do not leave room for free electives.

On behalf of the Class of 2000, and the Senate, we would like to thank Professor Ketcham for his help in understanding of the New Program. If you would like to see a replay of the Senate meeting and what Professor Ketcham said, it will be replayed on Monday, April 7, at 7 pm on channel 34. There will be a mailing as well to all of the Freshman by the Curriculum Committee describing all of this. Also, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact any of your freshman Senators; please let your voices be heard. Thank you!

Revealing more on those "Lunatics"

Martha Mendoza
Associated Press Writer

An "earth ship" of old tires, a little wooden elephant and lots of mystified folks seem to be all that the Heaven’s Gate cult left in the New Mexico mountains before heading to Southern California. “These were wonderful people,” said Jim Thorsen, who bought the cult’s compound last year.

But peering at a long, maze-like wall of symmetrically stacked tires, he admitted he had other thoughts. "OK, they were screwed up. But they were wonderful," he said.

San Diego authorities found 39 members of Heaven’s Gate dead in a mansion last week, victims of a mass suicide. Ten had New Mexico driver’s licenses, but authorities have found no surviving families in the state. It now appears the group moved to Southern California after its plans fell through for a permanent monastery at Manzano, about 55 miles southeast of Albuquerque.

Heaven’s Gate members bought 40 acres and began building an environmentally sensitive, fenced and gated retreat center in the mountains in June 1995. It looked like they planned to stay. But in April 1996, all who knew them in the mountains say Heaven’s Gate suddenly decided to leave. About 25 members worked the land, while five or six commuted about 10 miles in Jeeps and Cadillacs to work in rented offices next to Gustin’s Hardware store in Mountainair.

Gustin said the Heaven’s Gate members were friendly, warm, thoughtful and neat. One member, Susan Elizabeth Nora Paup, 54—listed as among the dead—befriended Rachel Heard, 11, whose mother worked across the hall. Rachel said she would sit by the computer while "Nora" worked, and that they would chat about UFOs. When it came time to go, "Nora" gave Rachel a small, black, wooden elephant.

In their haste, the group also left behind admirers who couldn’t understand why the polite members disappeared so suddenly.

Maybe not...

Mad about the lack of plowing done by Wednesday morning? See page 2 for details...
Nobody plowed!

Okay, I've heard quite a lot of this over the past few hours. I suppose you all deserve some sort of explanation, and, thanks to an inquiring student named Kim, the reasoning behind the halting of plowing the student areas has become very clear. Due to students throwing beer bottles and snowballs at the snowplows, the Chief Groundskeeper, Bob Lawton, called his men off the job for the night. With mere canvas tops, the men were liable to be seriously injured by broken beer bottles.

Please show some courtesy to those at this college who are working to keep your safe little world happy. Vulgarity is not appreciated, nor are assault and battery. Sticks and stones do break bones, and words don't hurt much less. As Bob Lawton stated, "One of my men has only one eye; I really wouldn't want him to lose the other one!"

Despite the trouble brought on by those few problem children here on campus, Lawton was very eager to aid in the evacuation of a parking space. If you've been plowed in and would like help getting out, please call X6189, and within ten minutes someone should be there to help.

So, I hope you have all learned a valuable lesson here. Appreciate the help that is given to you; otherwise, you might find yourself wearing golf shoes to walk to class. And hey, if you have some free time, perhaps you could lend a helping hand. Thanks.

Freshmen, don't fret

Dear Students,

As we approach registration for the Fall '97 semester, there may be some confusion about "mandatory liberal arts" minors and their place in the program designed for you, the members of the Class of 2000. Much of this confusion is due to miscommunication, and the archiving of old questions in The Archway, while well-intentioned, does not completely reflect the options available to you as students. While I will provide more detail below, let me answer the three questions uppermost in everyone's mind: 1) Yes, you will need to develop a four course Liberal Arts minor to satisfy your degree requirements; 2) The credits used by the minor do not detract from your ability to minor in a functional area of Business; and 3) You do not need to declare your Liberal Arts minor at this time.

The curriculum redesign was a three-year project, worked on by dozens of faculty. The resulting program contains many exciting new features, including new liberal arts and business cores, liberal arts minors, and a reduction of trading in distribution requirements into modes of thought. Within the 60 credits allotted, most students can take the business core (36 hours), develop a concentrate (18 hours), and, through careful use of free electives, develop a business minor (12 credits) without taking additional classes. Students concentrating in Accounting or Applied Accounting may develop business minors without taking additional courses, not because of liberal arts minors, but because the concentration requirements in those programs leave no free credits.

If there were no mandatory liberal arts minors, students in those programs would be unable to minor in business because it would mean that no more than 50 credits could be taken during the semester. The important point to remember is that the liberal arts minor was carved out of the old distribution requirements and does not prevent you from developing a minor in business. If the requirement were lifted, you would simply have more liberal arts courses to take, either in modes of thought or in liberal arts electives. Eliminating the liberal arts minor would not add to your ability to take more business courses.

The faculty are quite proud of the new curriculum and believe that it offers wonderful opportunities for the Class of 2000. Much of this confusion is due to the thousands of colleges and universities that are currently recruiting candidates for the Class of 2000. As Bryant is accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), Accreditation by this organization is quite important. Of the thousands of colleges in this country, only about 300 are accredited by the AACSB. Accreditation is a stamp of approval that reflects the quality of our institution to prospective students, faculty, and corporate recruiters. Recently, AACSB modified the accrediting standards and slightly reduced the number of business courses you could take; now, no more than 60 credits (technically, no more than 50% of your credits toward degree) can be in business disciplines. The curriculum for the Class of 2000 reflects those changes.

Your vote was appreciated

Dear Students,

I hope that for those of you that are facing second rounds of mid-terms, you are going well and recovering from the blizzard going on. I want to thank those students that supported my simple philosophy of "Putting Students First" and elected me the next Senate President of Bryant College. I also would like to thank my opponents for running an excellent campaign, and encourage them to continue in other ways to work for the students.

One of my goals for the next year is to keep an open line of communication with the Bryant community. It is important if I am to represent the students, that I am accessible and willing to listen. Thus, I will over the next year write to the Archway frequently. I would also like to promote my 24 hour call center, which can be reached through a campus phone, a campus phone, or at home (John Doehner at 617-363-6542). I have also asked the Chief of Police on campus to have his officers write up the "protein" as I call it, if you get back to you within 24 hours and get the ball moving on your issue, either personally or by delegating it to another Senator.

The other issue I would like to remind you of is accountability. The Senate is here to work for you, if there are actions that the Senate, Senators, or myself, take that you disagree with, call us on it. The Senate, like Bryant College, expects perfect. We may make mistakes, but work with us to fix them and learn from them, so that our job of representing the students happens quickly and effectively.

Again, I thank you for your support during the election, but now the real fun begins, in making sure Bryant College continues to be a great place to be. I encourage students to call me at 4942 or e-mail me at doehner@acad.bryant.edu. Good luck on the rest of your exams and have a good week.

Sincerely,

Francis J. Doehner '98

"God Rocks"

In the April article by Carrie Bell, the Assistant Editor of U Magazine, she stated that holy rock and rollers keep the faith and gain fans. Performers Rebecca St. James, Larry Howard, Audio Adrenaline, D.C. Talks, Petra, and Iona would agree with the dawn of a new era in rock music. God Rocks!

William McGinniss, bassist for Audio Adrenaline, stated, "I wanted to do something for God but wanted it to be cool that you can be in a rock band and still say something meaningful and cause-oriented. The songs are tools for the younger generation to glorify God and get some energy out."

There is a large group of people of all ages who want a positive message in music. Contemporary Christian Music (C.C.M.) has grown into something of an empire, with bands in every category, from rap and pop to alternative and country, to please concerned adults and avid music fans alike, as was echoed by Bell's concerns.

Tanya Francis, a junior at Western Washington U, stated, "I like mainstream music, but it doesn't compare to really good Christian bands." She continued, "Christian music is a spiritual strengthening as well as entertainment. The Lord is worshipped in many ways, and the music is reaching out to believers on their level."

The Bryant radio station, 88.7 WJMF, airs "Powerline," a public service, with Rev. Dev. at the controls. He will offer some selections from C.C.M.'s gifted artists.

When you need a spiritual boost, listen to Rev. Dev. on 88.7 WJMF. Be safe, take care, and God bless!

ARMY ROTC CORNER

By Anthony L. Garifo

I hope everybody’s Easter was an enjoyable event this past Sunday. The weather was nice all last weekend the high was in the 60s. This is why it was such a surprise to get hit with 24 inches of snow on Monday afternoon. Bryant College looked like a white blanket was thrown over it. Housing sign up for the 6 person townhouses went all this week so I hope everybody got the house they wanted.

The military ball is next week so I hope everybody’s uniform is squared away and looking sharp. As for me my reserve unit has not given me a uniform to wear so I’ll be attending the military ball wearing flip flops and a towel with my ribbons attached to my %$#$. If you need to have your uniformed tailored you need to get it done now because it will take the cleaners at least three days to return it to you. I also have information about hotel rooms so that you do not have to worry about driving home after the ball is over. There are plenty of rooms left in the Quality Inn for $59.00 + Tax. They are located three miles up the road from Newport Officers Club. If you’re interested give me a call at 232-8076 for the number to the hotel. The military ball looks like it will be a great time. Me as usual, will be bringing my camera so that I may catch those adorable Kodak moments.

Speaking of pictures if anybody besides me has pictures of the ROTC in action bring them to me or leave them in my box. The ROTC is trying to get a separate page in the yearbook showing our numerous activities that we participate in throughout the year. The pictures will be returned to you soon after the layout of the yearbook is done. The Army Physical Fitness Test is less than two weeks away so I hope everybody is preparing for it. One last note before I close E-Board elections were held the beginning of this week for the Society of Human Resource Management and I would like to say that I was elected Vice President. Well that’s all I have so good luck in all the things you do this week.

Quote of the Week: Losers do their best, winners go home and %$# the prom queen.

Women’s History Month Closing Ceremony

On Friday, April 4 at 7:00 pm in the Rotunda the Bryant Community will come together to celebrate the second annual Women’s History Celebration.

A feature of the evening will be a concert-lecture by Robin Greenstein entitled “Image of Women.”

Robin will take a look at society’s attitudes towards women as well as women’s feeling about their lives as expressed in Anglo-American and Afro-American folklore. Robin examines basic issues of love and fidelity, loyalty and desertion, subservience and independence in a wide variety of traditional music sung and played on guitar and banjo.

Tickets for this event are priced at $5.00 for students, and $10.00 for all others. This price includes an elegant dinner buffet. Tickets can be purchased at the Bryant Center Information Desk.

Moving to Swansea during Summer '97.
Hello, my name is Matt Davies. I am currently a junior running for Senior Senate as a representative of the Class of 1998. I have held many leadership positions on campus from Resident Assistant to Orientation Leader, and feel these experiences have prepared me to serve the Senior Class.

If elected into office, I plan to accomplish what I set forth in my Presidential run:

*Work with administration to cut wasteful spending and increase student budgets.
*Work with administration to get students 5 bonus meals instead of 1.
*We will have more than one guest a semester, let's try to feed them.
*Increase student organization budgets so NO ONE can call our BRYANT events "PIDDLEY"!
*I will make computers available in the library—for students that need to type up something short from books on reserve.
*I will establish and e-mail and web access only during finals to allow students to use Koffler computers for typing papers.
*A new e-mail address for Senate (solutions@acad.bryant.edu) for students to voice their concerns if they cannot make the Senate meeting.
*Use my programming skills to ensure the best Senate Events ever!!

This is my contract to the Senior Class and Bryant College as a whole. I will work for YOU to make this school a better place. If you have any comments or concerns, please contact me at X4036 or write me at mdavies@acad.bryant.edu.

Class of '98, remember to vote Matt Davies for Senior Senator on April 7th and 8th. The leadership of a President, The commitment to change.

Hello, my name is Harold Peacock. I am running for re-election to the Class of 1998's Senate position. I have represented our class for the past three years here at Bryant. I have served on a variety of committees such as; Public Safety, Event Coordinator for Friday night of Parent and Family Weekend, Ways and Means, Chair of Special Olympics, Chair of the Senior Service Award and Speaker of the Council. If re-elected my goals will focus on the senior class. This would include having a premier class gift that will astonish future classes, and also working closely with the Senior chair in planning memorable senior events.

Furthermore, as we approach our senior year, we face many obstacles that we need to overcome in order to graduate from Bryant. These may encompass having a respectable GPA in your major, fulfilling all your requirements for the program, and also being accepted into a graduate school or obtaining a job. Your accomplishments have been built on your own decisions and the pathways you selected. Your experiences at Bryant will always affect your future. For instance, distasteful in CIS prepare you better for your career in Finance? I believe we should develop our own career paths instead of Bryant requiring us to take a Liberal Art minor. Is Bryant College following its mission statement and President Machleth's goal of being student oriented college? I will pursue these issues to ensure that students are not overlooked and controlled by administrators. Issues like these may not affect us now, but will future classes be smaller at Bryant because of this prerequisite? My goal as a Senior Senator is to assure that prospective students choose Bryant for its academic excellence and to continue to keep Bryant a highly accredited college. When we become alumni we should all look in retrospect and be proud of being a Student Senator. This positive attitude will attract more scholarship students to follow in our experiences here. Re-elect Scott Taylor.

Hello, my name is Steve Tully. I am running as a candidate for Senior Senator. I run with a great deal of experience in many leadership positions. As a Sophomore Senator, I put forth many important initiatives.

I am an abundant amount of experience and leadership in many aspects of student life. I was elected into office as a Democrat. I plan to continue to serve the students and represent the interests of the Senior Class.

I believe that I am the best person to fill this position. I have experience in many leadership positions and have a strong desire to serve the students.

I am running for Senior Senator. I am a Junior Computer Information Systems major from Brooklyn, New York and strongly believe that I have a lot to offer the Bryant community as a whole. I can only do this with your support.

Upon arriving at Bryant College in the fall of 1994, I totally fell in love with the campus. The fact that the classes are relatively small, the friendly atmosphere, and the fact that it’s very easy to get involved here. Bryant College has made an impact on me and I feel that I have made an impact at Bryant. In my freshman year, I joined the Multicultural Student Union in which I was elected Historian. That same year, I co-founded MSU’s monthly newsletter - Cultural Flavor. In my sophomore year, I began to take full advantage of the leadership opportunities that Bryant had to offer. I was selected as a Resident Assistant in Hall 14 and I was offered an internship position at the NTTNEX-Bryant College Telecommunications Center where I teach a bi-weekly Desktop Publishing seminar to students and business professionals. As my leadership skills matured, I began to take on more responsibilities. This year, I have served as MSU President and as a Resident Assistant in Hall 14. With my experience as a Resident Assistant, I have had the opportunity to interact with many students. I’ve heard their questions, their concerns, and their arguments. It’s because of this interaction that I also plan to be a strong liaison between the Class of 1998 and the Student Senate. In the past, I’ve noticed that there is a barrier between the student body and the Student Senate. Though if we, the student body, do not know whom to depend on if we have a question regarding issues that not only affects our class but the entire Bryant community as a whole. As Senior Senator, I plan to tear down that barrier in several ways. One way is by generating a Student Senate E-mail address for those who have questions about such things as issues that were raised at recent Senate meetings. Any questions e-mailed to the Senate will have an immediate response since it takes less than 72 hours with a concrete answer. Such topics will possibly be raised at the next Senate meeting. I strongly believe that a vote for Harold Peacock can make a difference for the Bryant community. So make sure you vote "Harold Peacock for Senior Senator" on April 7th and 8th.

My name is Scott Taylor and I am running for re-election to the Class of 1998’s Senate position. I have represented our class for the past three years here at Bryant. I will pursue these issues to ensure that students are not overlooked and controlled by administrators. Issues like these may not affect us now, but will future classes be smaller at Bryant because of this prerequisite? My goal as a Senior Senator is to assure that prospective students choose Bryant for its academic excellence and to continue to keep Bryant a highly accredited college. When we become alumni we should all look in retrospect and be proud of being a Student Senator. This positive attitude will attract more scholarship students to follow in our experiences here. Re-elect Scott Taylor.

Scott Taylor

Hello, my name is Steve Tully. I am running as a candidate for Senior Senator. I run with a great deal of experience in many leadership positions. As a Sophomore Senator, I put forth many important initiatives.

The most important project I initiated was the Jarvis Action Committee. As chair of this committee, I made sure that the administration and athletic department would listen to issues concerning the Jarvis Center. More specifically I challenged the membership fee. I made it a priority to eliminate this excessive fee, and through a litany of meetings and rejections, we succeeded. As a result, students do not have to pay the membership fee as a thing of the past. Over the last year I have been President of the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, and Captain of the Lacrosse team. Both positions required leadership of action. This is what I promise to every student at Bryant College.

One thing I would change is time to be positive, visionary, and active. Lastly, I'd like you to speak with me concerning any issue. I can be reached at x4031, and would be pleased to speak with all of you. When voting try to think of what you want your senior year to be like. If you want it to be a year of action, and not of long winded words, then vote for me Stephen L. Tully, Jr. (Steve-O)
Mike Dow

Hello, Sophomore class. My name is Mike Dow, a management major. I am seeking the position of Junior Senator because as a class, we together can make a difference. I am for positive change at Bryant College. Being a Resident Assistant (RA) gives me ample experience and the resources needed to hold this position. Also I am an Orientation Leader for the Incoming freshmen which provides me with pertinent information about the college as a whole.

Student involvement is a must in my beliefs to make this college surpass Bentley and Babson. I plan to propose through the proper channels that more student opinions be considered before making college based decisions. These decisions affect the students directly, so the students should have greater influence in this subject matter. Also I would like to see an increase in communication between faculty and students through discussion groups.

As a Senator a primary duty is to voice the students concerns, these past two years here at Bryant many students have brought various issues to my attention. I have taken these issues and acted on them immediately. All concerns from students that have been received, I am proud to say, have been justified. Some departments that I have worked closely with in these matters have been Aramark, Department of Public Safety, Physical Plant, Grounds Service, Career Services, Purchasing Dept., Counseling Services, Res Life, and the Office of Student Activities.

Another aspect of a leader is also shown by their involvement in and concern for the members of the community. I have participated and raised money for The Jingle Bell Run for Arthritis, The National Kidney Foundation, and served Christmas dinners for the needy at the Salvation Army.

I am a verygregarious, motivated, and dedicated person who is not afraid to take a stand for the student body. If at anytime you have questions, please call me at x4081 or e-mail me at jmdow@acad.bryant.edu. Please make you voice known on April 7th and 8th. Vote Mike Dow for Junior Senator.

Scott Lushing

My name is Scott Lushing. I will be running for a position as a Junior Senator on April 7th and 8th. I was born and raised in Westport, Connecticut. I first discovered my interest for politics in my senior year of high school while enrolled in an American Government class. I enjoyed debating, getting my point across, being heard, and realizing I can make things happen.

Since the start of my college career at Bryant, I have noticed some things that I have not liked. I have heard students like you discuss things you don’t like. I now realize that instead of complaining I can take action. I can and will run for Junior Senator. Some of the issues I will address will concern all of you. I get upset when I see the parking lots half full on the weekends. I want more people to stay here on the weekends, and in order to do that we need incentives to stay. I know Bryant is currently trying to make things happen on weekends, but from what I hear it is not working. If elected I will push for more entertainment and social functions on campus. I will push for bands to come to campus, more events similar to the first light which received a huge turnout, all consisting of what you want, BEER GARDENS! I understand some people on this campus consume alcohol. I know having Beer Gardens will attract more people. This leads me into another issue, the opening of the "Pub" on campus. This will open in mid-May and will be an on campus bar, similar to the previous Country Comfort which closed last year. Many people were upset by it’s closing, so I will do everything in my power to keep this pub on campus. I hope the school agrees with me when I say that I would rather have students drink on campus than take a chance at someone driving back to campus drunk. I am not advocating the consumption of alcohol in any way, nor am I condoning underage drinking. What I am doing is being aware. I want this campus to unite and stay here on weekends. Instead of complaining about how boring this school can be, I am going to make it fun, but don’t tell me I voted for you. I want you to consider me for the concern, mine made for the social life on campus. I am interested in making sure all sports teams, club, and other organizations get the money they need. I will do all I can to fit everyone into the budgets. So remember on April 7th and 8th, vote Lushing for Junior Senator.

Fellow Students of Bryant, I would like to introduce myself. My name is Matt Montour and I am a Marketing major from Holderness, NH. I am running for the position of Junior senator because I feel that our class needs a new and independent voice to represent it. With half of our college community already over 30, now more than ever I would like to begin making our mark on Bryant College. First let me tell you a little bit about myself and what I have been active in while at Bryant.

I have been involved with several organizations here on campus that I feel have prepared me to take on the additional responsibility of representing our class. First I was an Avenues to Success instructor. This experience taught me responsibility and how to effectively communicate and listen to students questions and concerns. Next, ever since my Freshman year, I have also been known as "Kid Swartz" on 88.7 WMPR. While hosting my own radio show, I also served as a Training Director to orient new DJ’s on the inner workings of the radio. This experience is rewarding to me because it gives me the opportunity to share my knowledge and work with others. Finally, by being a voting member of SFB and on the Concerns and Mixers committee, I have been able to learn the processes that make events happen at Bryant College. This is the most fulfilling club that I am involved in because it allows me to represent the students needs and wishes.

Basically, I know that I have what it takes to represent the students and all of their concerns. I want to everyone to know that I will always be approachable and will always have time to listen. My main purpose is to serve my Junior class and represent us as an exciting upcoming year in the Senate. So, if you want your voice heard in Senate, vote Matt “The Real Deal” Montour for Junior Senator.

Alicia Manders

Hello Class of 1999!!! For those of you that don’t know me. I’m Khourree Gale, from Salem, New Hampshire and I’ve been on Student Senate for the past two years. During my freshman year on Senate I worked on fund-raisers for the freshman class, public relations, Comfort Task Force Committee, Special Olympics, and Senior Citizens Prom. This year I’m diligently working on a survey concerning the upcoming calendar or any other events. This year I’m diligently working on a survey concerning the upcoming calendar or any other events.

One of the activities that I have engaged in that has the greatest impact to my qualifications is debating at a National Collegiate level. Since my enrollment at Bryant, I have been able to act as the sole member of a new debate team (with hopes of reinstating the currently inactive club on a full-time basis) during my Junior year. This experience taught me patience, public speaking and unique skills, as well as my ability to take leadership roles and initiative. I have been responsible for the funding, travel, and future of this team. I feel that this experience and skill will make me a unique candidate for the position. SOPHOMORES

Tim Bertrand

Hello, my name is Tim Bertrand. I am from Suffield, Connecticut. I have a strong family background and value the concept of the family very much. One thing I have to say about myself is that I have always been a leader. My leadership experience ranges from being the Title IX sexual harassment peer educator for Suffield High School to attendance of many leadership seminars and close work with the High School’s student senate. One of my main gripes with the Student Senate at Bryant College is the fact that many students have made suggestions that seem to have been "thrown on the back burner." I believe that the students are the most important part of the college and their suggestions and ideas are what make the school what it is. My main goal is to value the student's suggestions and to follow through with turning them into reality. Your suggestions are important and your vote counts.

Thank You
Tim Bertrand

R. Patrick Carey

Hello, class of 2000, for those of you that don't know me my name is R. Patrick Carey. I am running for senator to represent you, the students. I have been active in school government for all my life. I attended Vermont Boy's State and was a senior senator at Rutland High School. I have continued this involvement at Bryant College. I am currently the president of the ski division in B.O.A.C. and am on the freshman team. My platform will be developed by the class of 2000. Here are some of the ideas that you have already brought to my attention:

- New Meal Plan: have everything done by points to prevent missing meals
- Modernize Koffler with "Windows 95"
- Phone bills cheaper with new phone company or bring in a competitor
- More computers open in evenings (open the computer labs in the Unistructure)
- Encourage football and other varsity teams (thus attracting new students)
- Improve radio station with work study and commercials
- Help plan spring weekend (just as organized as parents weekend)
- Advisors assigned to each student and meeting held each semester

Class of 2000 it is time for a change. Vote R. Patrick Carey the senator who will make a difference.
SENATE PLATFORMS

John Coleman

My name is John Coleman. I am from Stamford, Connecticut, and I am double majoring in Finance and Economics. I feel I am a good candidate for senate because I get along with people well, and I will listen to what the student body wants and follow through. In high school I was the manager of the school store senior year, and a member of the Future Business Leaders of America. In my spare time I enjoy golf, and skiing.

I am a regional franchise manager for College Pro exterior home painters. In my job responsibilities include hiring, managing, and motivating employees, and estimating and booking all of my summer work.

My reason for running for Senate is simple, I want to represent the student body, not think for them. I will set in meetings and other functions thinking about what I would like. I will be thinking about what Bryant would like. If you are to elect me, do so because you feel I would do a superior job representing you, not because you like me personally, or support my ideas, because they are just that. My ideas. They are generalizations as to the direction I think that Bryant should head. My ideas are nothing without the support of the student body, and there are a lot of things that the student body wants accomplished that I probably will not think of. I am interested in being involved with government the way it should be, representing every sophomore at Bryant.

My goals are that of any other candidate, to make Bryant a better place. I have a few ideas to accomplish this. First, I would like the senate to work with president Macleod in his quest to make Bryant more student oriented. I would like to make it easier for students to voice their opinions if they so wish, this promotes student involvement, which in turn promotes school spirit. I would like the student body to play a larger part in the budget process, putting students in some control of where their tuition money goes, they also will be able to suggest new ideas that could save the school money. I would like to have a special senate meeting to discuss the issue of school spirit, the answer to getting more involvement from the student body must come from the student body. The main issue I will deal with if elected is the student body. In order to effectively do my job I will be reporting to, and gathering information from as many students as possible so I may understand what they want. My goals consist of making the student body happy, and making their time at Bryant more enjoyable.

Molly Devanney

Hello, Class of 2000! For those of you who do not know me, my name is Molly Devanney and I am seeking re-election to our class as a Sophomore Senator. This past year I have served our class as the freshman class chair. I have had the opportunity to serve on various committees that will, and have had an impact on our lives here at Bryant College. The one that I have been recently working on is concerning the study lounges that will hopefully be impacted throughout the entire school. There is someplace where you can go to and study if you will be bored in your room that is definitely more to school than the classes. I have become actively involved in a number of activities in this school and I now realize that the most important one to me is the Student Senate. I have heard a great deal of negative campaigning again the current Senators and I would like to clear a few things up. Parent’s weekend was a wonderful event which was run by your student representatives. This year also marked the first year in which the Student Senate had a fund raiser at this event. Senates have also worked a myriad of hours on personal problems which you have brought to our attention. I am not saying that the current Senate is the greatest, it is not, it has done an excellent job, and rivals any other that will follow.

For those of you who do not know me very well, I will tell you a little about myself. I grew up in a small town located on the outskirts of the University of Vermont. I chose Bryant college because of its reputation, yet I have realized that there is definitely more to school than the classes. I have become actively involved in a number of activities in this school and I now realize that the most important one to me is the Student Senate.

I have a few ideas to accomplish this. First, I would like to have a special senate meeting to discuss the issue of school spirit, the answer to getting more involvement from the student body must come from the student body. The main issue I will deal with if elected is the student body. In order to effectively do my job I will be reporting to, and gathering information from as many students as possible so I may understand what they want. My goals consist of making the student body happy, and making their time at Bryant more enjoyable.

Bob Fressola

I am asking you to once again elect me into the Bryant College Student Senate. I can honestly say that I have thoroughly enjoyed representing you in the Senate, and look forward to another year of hard work and dedication.

Experiences:

High School:
- President and Co-founder of an environmental club
- President of Rotary International
- Owner/Producer of a Theater group
- Active member of Junior Achievements
- Taught The Junior Achievements Program in 6th graders
- Student Council all four years

College:
- Student Senator
- Orientation Leader for the summer of 1997
- Selected to be a Resident Assistant for the 1997-1998 school year
- Student Ambassador

Accomplishments As A Senator:
- Helped raise money for the Freshmen class
- Helped make Parents Weekend a success
- Made Senator more accessible to the students by listing their e-mail addresses in The Link
- Selected to be on the Ways and Means Committee (allocates funds to clubs and organizations)
- Make-A-Wish Foundation Committee

Future Goals:

- My main goal for the 1997-1998 school year is to make the senate a more approachable organization. I will personally work with our President-elect, Fran Doebber to set up booths around campus for students to voice their concerns, and ask questions about what the Senate is doing for them.
- I will also push for a student activities fee increase for the next school year, so our clubs and organizations can have more funds to provide quality activities for our students.
- By increasing the fee $1 per person, we will increase the amount of money that we can allocate to our clubs by over $35,000/year.

Rupert King

Hello Bryant. My name is Rupert King and I am running to be re-elected to the Bryant College Student Senate. For those of you who do not know me very well, let me tell you a little bit about myself. I grew up at a small town and went to a small high school. My parents never expected me to be a leader. Working in teams, inspiring others, being honest, dependable, and appreciating teamwork, are all qualities that I think every leader should have. I feel as though I...

I received as a Sophomore Class Senator, I promise you that I will work to the best of my abilities to serve our class. I feel that I can do this best by daring to dream, motivating others, being a team player, respect for others, the ability to communicate well with others, and honestly. Thank you, for taking the time to read this and remember to vote on April 7 & 8 for MOLLY DEVANNEY FOR SOPHOMORE CLASS SENATOR.

Brian McCarthy

Classmates, I am Brian McCarthy seeking re-election as a Sophomore Senator. Throughout my first year here at Bryant, I have gained more leadership skills and experience than I thought could have been achieved in my whole college career.

My involvement with Senate has been both demanding and rewarding. Demanding because of the fact that it takes great time management skills and preparation to balance the work load received in classes and the various tasks of Senate. The first big event I was involved in with Senate was Parents and Family Weekend. This was a great success, but there was an enormous amount of time and effort put into to preparing it. It was such a great reward to put so much effort into an event and to see how much people enjoy themselves because of the amount of work put in. The Alternative Program has also been a great experience because I was able to help organize the different trips and courses and learn how to manage a program. My other involvement on campus has added to and proven my leadership ability, like, being selected as a 1997 Orientation Leader, 1997-98 Resident Assistant, and involved with Peer Education. Throughout all of these experiences I have learned that I am fully able to handle the responsibility of a Sophomore Senator and I am determined to accept it.

All the work I do in the Senate, I will do for you, my classmates, the Class of 2000. If you have any questions, my door is always open to you, in Hall 13 room 115 phone number 4958. And remember on April 7th and 8th, Re-elect Brian McCarthy as Sophomore Student Senator. And remember I will do ‘Whatever it takes’ to get the job done. Thank you for your support.
Hello, my name is Julie Piccirilli and I am running for re-election to the Student Senate. As a Sophomore Senator, I have worked in affiliation with the University’s student organizations, the Greek Life Office, and the Student Senate. I have been a Freshman Senator for the past year and I feel I have the experience, the hard work ethic, and the sincere concern for the student body. I believe I have the qualifications to serve the Class of 2000 for a second term.

In high school, I was very much involved in student government all four (4) years. I knew once I reached college, I would continue to be involved. I was elected as Student Council Secretary and Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) Vice-President in my Senior year. With these leadership positions, I took on the responsibility of chairing numerous committees. As I entered Bryant College this past fall, I brought with me the desire to be a student leader.

As a Freshman Senator, I served on the “Make-A-Wish” Committee, the Rotunda “student friendly” Committee, and the 1996 Parents and Family Weekend Committee. My most recent project is the Reform of Academic Advising. “Each student should be able to have his/her own advisor to seek advise about his/her major and the courses that adhere to it. Now it is time to take some action! (The Archway: Editorial. J. Piccirilli February 27, 1997) I strongly believe personal advising is essential. I am currently serving as a Student Representative on the task force with college administrators.

In addition, I currently work in the Office of Student Activities. This job enables me to be constantly aware of activities and events occurring on campus as well as interaction with various student organizations. I have also worked in the Greek Life Office during my first semester here at Bryant.

It is with this sincere concern and dedication for the student body that I ask you to RE-ELECT JULIE PICCIRILLI FOR SOPHOMORE SENATOR.

Kim Muller

Hello, my name is Kim Muller. I am running for re-election to the Student Senate. For the past year I have been a dedicated and responsible member of the Senate. Presently I hold a position on the Ways & Means Committee, which allocates funds for clubs and organizations. Working on the Ways & Means Committee for the past year has affiliated me with the organization which will enable me to be a more effective member next semester. Also I worked in affiliation with other Senators on a student panel that met with the three potential Vice President’s of Academic Affairs. As a newly appointed Orientation Leader for the incoming class of 2001, I will become more familiar with the administration, faculty and students. As well as practice my leadership skills while becoming in tune to what incoming students expect from Bryant College. If elected I would like to play a more concentrated role in parents & family weekend, by serving as a chairperson. If given the opportunity to serve as a sophomore senator I will put 110% of my efforts into making this a better Bryant community. With that in mind please vote for Kim Muller on April 10th & 11th.

Vinnie Poppo

Hello, for those of you who don’t know me, my name is Vinnie Poppo. I am running for student senate for the class of 2000. Some of you remember the last election held in early September of our first semester. I didn’t give a speech and I lost the election, but the reason I didn’t give a speech is because I really didn’t know what to talk about. I didn’t want to be better in believing I could be elected and do great things for our class. I had no idea as to what the extent of a senator’s power was. I find it hard to believe any of my opponents did either. Now after being here a year, I’ve seen what can be done and what needs to be done, and if I, I can accomplish those things to make our years at Bryant the best years of our lives.

I think my record of involvement speaks for itself. I have tried to be as active as possible in the Bryant community. Yes, I lost the election in the beginning of the first semester, but I was an active participant. I also tried out for an Orientation Leader position. I made it to the last round but, unfortunately was not selected. I currently serve on Hall Government for Hall 14, and I am actively involved with the Bryant Singers. Last semester I was actively involved in the Coffee Talk meetings, sponsored by Bacchus, and I participated on my floor’s basketball team for the freshmen tournament.

Here are some of the things I will work on to improve:

1. I heard many complaints from students on the menu at Salamanca. Many students would like a healthier menu. I will work hard to see that Aramark changes their menu to better accommodate the students.

2. Another thing I have noticed is that the prices and amount we are allowed to spend at South Dining Hall are ridiculous. The prices are too expensive for the food served and our limit is way too low to get a reasonable dinner. As a senator I will work with Aramark and the Senate to rectify this situation.

3. As every student has noticed, when the goose decide to visit, the walk ways between the Unisphere and the Bryant Center become littered with goose droppings. When elected, I will talk to maintenance and get them to send a clean-up crew on a regular basis to clean up this mess so our campus is more pleasing to walk around.

4. I would also like to move Student Senate meetings once-a-month to the Rotunda. This will promote the Student Senate and get the student body more involved. I have heard from countless people that the Senate is a bore and because of the location of the meetings, many people feel that they don’t have a voice in what goes on. I want to change that image. I want people to get involved, so together, as a team, we can achieve more.

There are many other things that can be done to improve our campus. When elected my door will always be open for suggestions and your ideas. I commit myself to performing the best possible job for you. I want to work with you as a team to make these next three years at Bryant the best years of our lives.

A Promise of Commitment...

...A Commitment to Excellence

Vladimir Konopelko

Hi, I am Vladimir Konopelko. I am an international student from Russia. Now, I am a second semester freshman with my major in Marketing. Bryant College is my second undergraduate education. I have completed a Bachelor’s Degree in Theology, in Russia, in Greek Orthodox philosophy. By coming to Bryant and the United States to get a second degree, I already have proven my open mindedness, eagerness to achieve goals, challenge myself, and take risks.

As a Sophomore Senator I will not be afraid to voice the opinion of students and do my best to create change. As an active participant in the election I would like to propose more involvement of the Student Senate in student life through a phone hot line where every day of the week there will be a Senator responsible for calls from students. The Senator would be responsible for responding to the call and bringing it to the Senate. Also, to make the Student Senate more approachable and responsive. I would suggest a box in the Rotunda for student’s suggestions and requests. I would like to raise the question of building more parking lots behind Hall 15 for the convenience of people who live in the State Village.

The Senate should be an organization not only made of students, but made for students.

As a foreigner with an unique background I can bring new, not standard ideas and decisions to the old Student Senate.

How was your Easter? How about a Nonie day? This article has been timely, my luck of any time in the past two week... Let's start off our... Spring Break was a great time.

A lot of turns around campus have yet to fully fade away. Big news lately has been housing. I hope everyone lives where they want to next year. I know we will. I would like to thank all of the Fraternitys and Sororities who wouldn't let us down.

In other news... Congratulations to the new Theta Sisters on earning our Fall Contract. Good luck to all these seniors who are looking for jobs. And Finally, let's buckle up and party down.

Tuesday was quite eventful. Everyone goes out for what is now a New England Holiday. "Snow Day." There were snow-ball fights and snow men, and even snow was used to settle disputes. The on-the-floor-off-the-wall comedy routine was a hit. Quote of the week:

"This week no jocks, Hun!!" - Freak

Well, in spirit of struggling seniors, Top 10 things that Big 6 firms should consider when deciding on a new snow woman. How did you do the rest of the semester?

1) Who's got papers?
2) Roll it up and look through it (pretending to be a pirate).
3) Make Chinese stars to throw at each other.
4) Origami practice; impress the clients abroad.

We would like to thank the Beta for the wake up call. We knew those snowballs would come in handy. Glad to see Snowchute up and running. Tigger was beat up by every staircase case on campus that afternoon. Many sisters went blind while looking out the window, and it wasn't because of the sun's reflection. On the floor there seems to be a huge source of pistachio shells. Treetch and Duff, would you happen to know about this? KT made their way up to the floor wondering if anybody was out there. Hailey would like to challenge Cricketo to another game of checkers; this time the winner has to be followed by a blue cat.

Well, Snakebite is coming up next week; look forward to a good time. The countryside is also on for the formal and the competition for record-setting dates.

Hadjii would like to advise that if we had those fun-loving moving sidewalks, there would be no need for chausers. Montego would also like to ask Lash if he was sleeping on the phone. Sahara, Keep your head up! Till next week!

Hey! Hope everyone had a great weekend. Rappin' Raffel bought the way to HU. You could distinguish a snow man from a snow woman? Snowball. Another hot topic. We get the strainer back? Another way to L7. Sofy and Hailey would like to thank the piggy-back crew was in full effect till Sunny and Berger discovered a stone wall. Berger, you win. Love Sunny.

I would like to thank everyone who signed up to volunteer. We are till looking for people to help out the day of the games. Compliments of your major. For example strengthen the future. There is a huge source of pistachio hell. - Love Sunny.

For your Mexican name, do you like the speaker seat? As for the crazy snow storm, a song story break was in order because of the lack of lights in the library. Thanks to Treetch for the endearment. Well after the magnet his head, a huge snow ball went into session. A piece of advice; never stand unbalanced in Hailey and try not to be trouble heading towards Dorm 10. We were able to get everyone involved. Hailey got to see how the trees are rooted. Also because of snow, the snow tube was in full effect till Sunny and Berger discovered a stone wall. Berger, you win. Love Sunny.

Baseball Preview: American League Team capsules

(An order of predicted finish)

With the Baseball Season already underway, here's a look at your favorite teams.

American League East

New York Yankees

On the Mount: The Yankees have all the pieces to win - at least 105 wins, and 17 wins over their arch-rivals, the Boston Red Sox.

On the Plate: With Ken Caminiti (.318, 36 HR, 116 RBI) and John Wetteland (43 saves), the Yankees have the best pitchers in the league. The offense is led by Tino Martinez (.301, 27 HR, 99 RBI) and Derek Jeter (.314, 14 HR, 97 RBI).

Toronto Blue Jays

On the Mount: It's always a concern when the Blue Jays are facing Montreal. However, their pitching staff is solid, with Roy Halladay (17-7, 2.92 ERA) and Roger Clemens (17-9, 3.63 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Blue Jays are strong offensively, with Joe Carter (.337, 41 HR, 111 RBI) and Roberto Alomar (.301, 32 HR, 90 RBI) providing the power.

Boston Red Sox

On the Mount: The Red Sox have a strong pitching staff, with Curt Schilling (17-7, 3.47 ERA) and Pedro Martinez (20-5, 2.48 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: Boston has the potential to be a dominant team, with David Ortiz (.343, 31 HR, 91 RBI) and Manny Ramirez (.307, 11 HR, 46 RBI) providing the offense.

Baltimore Orioles

On the Mount: The Orioles have a young and promising pitching staff, with Bruce Rondon (9-3, 3.55 ERA) and Jeremy Guthrie (7-10, 4.31 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Orioles' offense is led by Adam Jones (.283, 28 HR, 88 RBI) and Melvin Upton (.296, 13 HR, 44 RBI).

New York Mets

On the Mount: The Mets have a solid pitching staff, with R.A. Dickey (9-6, 3.57 ERA) and Jacob deGrom (5-3, 3.21 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Mets' offense is led by Jay Bruce (.254, 22 HR, 78 RBI) and Curtis Granderson (.222, 11 HR, 44 RBI).

Chicago White Sox

On the Mount: The White Sox have a strong pitching staff, with Chris Sale (17-8, 3.00 ERA) and Jose Quintana (15-12, 3.14 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The White Sox's offense is led by Adam Eaton (.283, 13 HR, 80 RBI) and Jose Abreu (.296, 33 HR, 102 RBI).

Boston Red Sox

On the Mount: The Red Sox have a strong pitching staff, with David Price (14-9, 3.49 ERA) and Chris Sale (17-8, 3.00 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Red Sox's offense is led by Xander Bogaerts (.290, 10 HR, 74 RBI) and Mookie Betts (.261, 11 HR, 35 RBI).

New York Yankees

On the Mount: The Yankees have a strong pitching staff, with Masahiro Tanaka (12-4, 4.23 ERA) and Sonny Gray (12-6, 3.07 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Yankees' offense is led by Aaron Judge (.284, 21 HR, 71 RBI) and Giancarlo Stanton (.281, 25 HR, 69 RBI).

Detroit Tigers

On the Mount: The Tigers have a strong pitching staff, with Justin Verlander (17-6, 2.67 ERA) and Jordan Zimmermann (10-5, 3.47 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Tigers' offense is led by Miguel Cabrera (.318, 38 HR, 117 RBI) and Nicholas Castellanos (.259, 18 HR, 44 RBI).

Kansas City Royals

On the Mount: The Royals have a strong pitching staff, with Danny Duffy (13-8, 3.81 ERA) and James Shields (17-9, 4.26 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Royals' offense is led by Salvador Perez (.274, 14 HR, 77 RBI) and Alex Gordon (.261, 12 HR, 48 RBI).

Tampa Bay Rays

On the Mount: The Rays have a strong pitching staff, with Blake Snell (9-8, 3.21 ERA) and Tyler Glasnow (9-1, 3.37 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Rays' offense is led by Kevin Kiermaier (.280, 14 HR, 36 RBI) and Brandon Lowe (.267, 23 HR, 83 RBI).

Los Angeles Angels

On the Mount: The Angels have a strong pitching staff, with Patrick Sandoval (9-7, 4.10 ERA) andconexion (3-4, 6.44 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Angels' offense is led by Mike Trout (.274, 31 HR, 94 RBI) and Albert Pujols (.238, 25 HR, 62 RBI).

Texas Rangers

On the Mount: The Rangers have a strong pitching staff, with Corey Kluber (10-9, 3.69 ERA) and A.J. Griffin (3-4, 5.25 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Rangers' offense is led by Joey Gallo (.209, 27 HR, 62 RBI) and Ronald Guzman (.261, 14 HR, 32 RBI).

Seattle Mariners

On the Mount: The Mariners have a strong pitching staff, with James Paxton (9-10, 3.99 ERA) and Felix Hernandez (13-7, 3.42 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Mariners' offense is led by Mitch Haniger (.242, 31 HR, 92 RBI) and Adam Frazier (.254, 11 HR, 36 RBI).

Los Angeles Dodgers

On the Mount: The Dodgers have a strong pitching staff, with Max Scherzer (11-6, 3.44 ERA) and Clayton Kershaw (17-3, 2.86 ERA) leading the way.

On the Plate: The Dodgers' offense is led by Corey Seager (.286, 29 HR, 85 RBI) and Cody Bellinger (.297, 31 HR, 84 RBI).
National League East

Atlanta Braves
On the mound: Can it get any better for the Braves? After re-signing John Smoltz, last season's Cy Young winner, in fact, it can. Greg Maddux (15-11, 2.72 ERA) and Tom Glavine (15-10, 2.90 ERA), the two 46-year-old Cy Young Award. And it gets better, Denny Neagle (16-9, 3.50 ERA) will contribute much more than departed Steve Avery. The bullpen is solid with Mark Wohlers (39 saves) bring the heat. Middle relief is the only question mark on this talented staff.

At the plate: The Braves hit more home runs than any other NL team with the exception of Colorado. Chipper Jones (30 HR, 110 RBI) is a rising star. And, of course, John Smoltz has star potential. 1B Fred McGriff (28 HR, 107 RBI) is as steady as they come.

National League West

Arizona Diamondbacks
On the mound: The rotation is excellent with Randy Johnson (16-6, 3.65 ERA) and Darryl Kile (12-11, 4.19 ERA) steady and contributing to last season's key. The bullpen will be tested quite well. Ex-Mets to score runs. Likely candidates include OF Bernard Gilkey (20 HR, 117 RBI), John Olerud (274, 18 HR) and OF Lance Johnson (333, 50 SB).

Arizona should be in for a great season of three pitchers have great offensives. Offensively, they should be able to manufacture a few runs to support the pitching staff.

Montreal Expos
On the mound: The Expos are left with one quality pitcher after the departure of Jeff Fassero to Seattle. Pedro Martinez (13-10, 3.70 ERA) will be key to the profitability, and probably to the young bullpens. The bullpens will be tested quite often, and if they respond, the Expos could win more than 70 games.

At the plate: On his experience, the Expos could avoid another 70-loss season.

Montreal continues to trim their payroll. Somehow they win every year with little in terms of big name players. However, this year will be a little tougher than past years. For manager Felipe Alou.

Philadelphia Phillies
On the mound: This is a question mark on a team of question marks. Curt Schilling (9-10, 3.19) is their only three to strikeout (160) last season. SS Mark Grudzielanek (13 SB, 33 HR) but the key to Montreal's success will be Rondell White (293, .262 average) will take over in the middle of the lineup. Hey, don't forget about Tony Gwynn (.353, 15 HR) and OF Steve Finley (31-16, 3.19 HR) anchoring this lineup. LA led the NL in hitting, Philadelphia was the 10th best in the NL batting average. The rest of the starters, someone else needs to have a big season.

On the mound: The rotation will depend on how well Mike Hampton (10-10, 3.59 ERA) and Eric Young (9-7, 4.50 ERA) perform this year. The bullpen is supported with new closer John Hudek (223, 5 saves) and Mike Hampton (10-10, 3.59 ERA) a the closer.

Outlook: The Phillies are young and their inexperience will be hard to overcome.

Cincinnati Reds
On the mound: Led by John Smoltz (13-14, 3.83 ERA) and the future, the rotation will be steady and strong. Mike Hampton (10-10, 3.59 ERA) is a very capable pitcher and the bullpen's 3-4 spots. 3B Sean Burr (281, .262 average) will catch a few people with his speed.

Outlook: The Astros could win the division if they don't have the most saves in the NL in pitching. Ismail Valdez (15-7, 3.32 ERA) is also another key figure in the starting rotation. The bullpen is a little shaky in the middle, but Todd Hundley (44 saves) is in the elite class of closers.

San Diego Padres
Outlook: The Padres are in a very good spot. The Padres are loaded. If Pat Burrell (.293, 41 HR) is as steady as they come.

Outlook: The Padres are loaded again. The rest of the key players are: LF Scott Brosius (.260, 13 HR) and OF Derek Bell (8 HR, 5 saves) and SF Matt Williams (.276 average) is in the elite class of closers.

Outlook: The Padres could be in the thick of the NL West race if Caminiti remains healthy and fracture. The rest of the starters, someone else needs to have a big season.

Outlook: The Dodgers could be in the thick of the NL West race if Caminiti remains healthy and fracture. The rest of the starters, someone else needs to have a big season.

Outlook: The Dodgers should be in the thick of the NL West race if Caminiti remains healthy and fracture. The rest of the starters, someone else needs to have a big season.

Bulldogs Weekly Round Up

BASEBALL:
The five Bulldogs (7-10, 1-0 NE-10) split two games at Quinnipiac last weekend.

Bryant jumped out to a 19-0 lead in Friday’s 21-10 win. Junior leftfielder Luke Robustelli (Bristol, CT/ Bristol Central) had a career day, going 3-for-6 with eight RBI. He then scored a home run and a double to pace the Bulldogs in their conference opener. Junior first baseman Brian Hurleigh (E. Williston, NY/Wheatley School) went 4-for-4 while senior shortstop Vic Donato (Port Chester, NY/Port Chester) added three hits and two runs scored. Senior lefthander Matt Goodfinger (Randolph, MA/Randolph) picked up his first win of the season, going five innings, striking out five and allowing just two unearned runs.

The Bulldogs bounced back from an 11-1 deficit Saturday but fell just short, losing 11-10. Sophomore centerfielder Jason Eldridge (Belchertown, MA/Belchertown) had two hits and three RBI and Donato went 3-for-4 with two runs scored. Hurleigh recorded three more hits to lift his average to a team-high .415. The second game of the doubleheader with Quinnipiac was rained out. Bryant’s game with Umass-Lowell and Wales were also postponed.

UP-COMING GAMES:
Saturday, 4/5-at BENTLEY, Sunday, 4/6-at St. Anselm

SOFTBALL:
Bryant’s (2-2) double-header with AIC Saturday was rained out.

UP-COMING GAMES:
Saturday, 4/5-at St. Anselm

MEN TENNIS:
The Bulldogs opened the spring slate Tuesday with a decisive 7-2 win over Stonehill. Senior Mike Gisler (Hauppauge, NY/ Hauppauge) recorded a 6-3, 6-4, 6-1 win in first singles. Freshman Quentin Carmichael (Arlington, MA/Arlington) posted a 6-4, 6-1 victory in third singles and teamed with sophomore Dave Dolph.

UP-COMING MEETS:
Thursday, 4/3-at Trinity Invitational

TRACK AND FIELD:
The men’s and women’s track and field team competed at the Elm Swanson Invitational at Wesleyan University Saturday. Sophomore Matt Roloff (S. Portland, MA/S. Portland) won the men’s 5000 meters with a personal-best time of 16:17.7. Junior Jeff Pennini (Hanson, MA/ Whitman-Hanson) was victorious in the discus (120’2”) and finished second in the javelin (167’). Freshman Adam Gray (Barrington, RI/Barrington) continued a strong freshman campaign, finishing second in the hammer with a throw of 137’4”. Sophomore Keith Jenic’s (Stratford, CT/Bunnett) field of time of 4:22.4 in the 1500 meters was a personal best.

On the women’s side, sophomore Michele Mottola (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham) emerged victorious in the women’s 5000 with a time of 19:54.3. Sophomore Jackie Ely (Bohemia, NY/ Connetquot) turned in a second-place performance in the 1500 (5:06.6) and a third-place effort in the 800 meters (2:30.0).

UPCOMING MEETS:
Saturday, April 5-at Trinity Invitational

Arizona did nothing fancy

Rock Burke

Monday night, March 31, seemed too good to be true. The Arizona Wildcats won the national championship in overtime over the defending champion, the Kentucky Wildcats, and the students at Bryant would soon find out Tuesday classes were going to be canceled. Although I had a few interruptions during the game (like losing power and playing bailer-dash), I did manage to keep track of what was going on at least when it counted.

Those of us who watched the game saw Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby play sensationaly. I believe Simon played on a different level. The captain’s emotional leadership electrified all of the Arizona players. Lagree Bibby unanimously picked MVP. However, as we know one player does not win games, total team efforts must be given credit as well. There were many questions before the game referring to what Arizona needed to do in order to win. Would they be able to handle the feared Kentucky pressure? Would they be able to play TEAM defense and use their quickness as an advantage? The answer was obviously a simple YES!

THE UNSUNG HERO:
In a society where the motto is "show me the money," unsung heroes are almost extinct. These are the athletes who will never wear an NBA uniform or are not going to be starring in any shoe commercials, but always leave practice with a floor burn. Jason Terry, who is known as the little guard who wears his socks up high, deserves a little recognition for his efforts. For a man who was admitted to the hospital following the North Carolina victory, he showed the heart of a champion. In the last five minutes of regulation and overtime, the ball should have been in the hands of Kentucky’s future NBA lottery pick Ron Mercer. Terry would not allow it to happen; he was not doing anything special, just doing his job of playing tough fundamental denial defense. Kentucky attempted to run Mercer through a variety of picks and screens but were forced to have an “ice cold” Anthony Epps heave prayers from behind the three-point mark and come up empty. Eventually, the twenty-year old Mercer got frustrated and committed two quick fouls to pick up his fifth and end his short stay at Kentucky.

The entire Arizona defense and outstanding success at the free throw line proved to be the difference in this battle of the “CATS.” Ron Mercer, the soon to be millionaire, was limited to less than ten total shots in the game (1 for 4 in the first half for 3 points). It just goes to show that when 12 GU/Y (not 6 8 or even 11) play hard and remain focused on one common goal, good things happen. They will all be back next year!

ATHLETE of the

Luke Robustelli, Baseball

Robustelli, a junior outfielder, had a career day as he went 3 for 6 with two home runs, a double as Bryant defeated Quinnipiac last Friday.
