The Student Advisory Committee (S.A.C.) after "nine months of promises from the Business Office" has sent a resolution to Dr. O'Hara concerning the Unstructure renovations and the recently completed Student Center Building. The resolution specifically calls for Mr. Tom Scott, V.P. for Business Affairs to appear at the next meeting of S.A.C. The Committee, comprised of the Presidents of the Student Senate, BRYCOL, and Greek Letter Council, the editors of THE ARCHWAY and LEDGER, as well as the general manager of WJMF and representatives of the Student Assistants met with Peter Barlow on Wednesday, February 9. Mr. Barlow was representing the Administration of the College as Dr. O'Hara and Dr. Fullerton were unable to attend due to obligations out of the state.

The resolution, which was the result of lengthy discussion, states: "Let it be resolved that the Student Advisory Committee, the most broadly-based student group, is dissatisfied with the entire Unstructure renovation and Student Center Building processes, as they were not carried out with priorities given to the Student Body. Specifically, we are deeply concerned with the following areas:

IN REGARD TO THE STUDENT CENTER:
- The building should be opened on weekend days as a Student Center, for use by the entire community. The building should be let, with chairs taken down from stacks, so that it is inviting to use. The Committee believes that its present use is only for a snack bar and pub, and that the building has several other functions as a Student Center.
- Bar stools, soft furniture, throw rugs, and planter/separators that have been promised to the Community as well as the Building Committee, should be purchased immediately. This will enable the building to truly serve as a Student Center, so that informal "lounges" can be set up on the upper level. The large TV in the "lounge" should be used to screen video, and the building should be made in this area.
- A clarification of capacity for events should be made to avoid conflicting opinions as to true capacity.

IN REGARD TO PUBLIC OPERATIONS:
- We have been promised financial data on Pub sales on many occasions and have not received such data. While SAGA Food Service was operator, it was agreed that figures would be available so that organizations' monies could be better appropriated.
- We are thoroughly dissatisfied with the attitude of the Business Office as it appears that their own offices were given top priority. We respectfully request that Mr. Tom Scott, V.P. for Business Affairs, be present at the next meeting of the Student Senate. We have reason to give proper explanation to these matters."

A member of S.A.C. was promised several completion dates during the last six months, some of which conflicted with each other. All of the renovations were scheduled to be completed by September 1, 1976, when proposed to the Student Center Building Committee. This "last-truck" approach was supposed to guarantee completion of most phases by the beginning of the fall semester so that the inability to complete the project within six months of the original deadline would avoid a lack of coordination between various departments.

The Committee was particularly dissatisfied with the "casual attitude" towards completion of student-oriented areas, while administrative offices were completed first. Mr. Scott is ultimately responsible for the renovation project. Members of S.A.C. questioned his authority in coordinating the renovation project so that his own offices areas were given preferred treatment. His lack of communication with student leaders forced the members of S.A.C. to take a stand and appeal to the President for action.

Quality Is Suffering

Subject: Another article concerning the Student Advisory Committee.

This is how it should be. My optimism still remains strong, but only in the view of student involvement.

In reference to students, I feel more actual. Constructive action has taken place in this week than in all of last semester. As exhibit constructive action has taken place in this week than in all of last semester. As exhibit constructive action has taken place in this week than in all of last semester.

Student groups are starting to work together as a collective unit rather than competing with each other. This is how it should be. We're all working for the Bryant Community. We all get our funds from the same place. Perhaps now if we could get a little cooperation from other departments on campus, we could clear away some of the mirages and instead get something physical there.

Honesty and Consideration

To: Honor Deeds. I don't mind a teacher requiring his students to purchase the New York. Times. I even appreciate the efforts of Brycol to get the Times to us at a low price. When the Times comes in late or doesn't come in at all, it is not the fault of Brycol, but that of the distributors with whom they contracted business. The remedy for that problem is up to Brycol.

I am more concerned about the newspaper that are delivered and placed in the locked box outside of the barrelhouses. This office is mainly for the commuters since we are not afforded the same consideration as a mailbox as are the dorm students. But then we don't live here and pay as much money to the college. That's another matter which I'm sure would be argued against in an economic and business-like fashion.

The real stinger is the lack of consideration and honesty on the part of students themselves. There is a combination lock on the newspaper box, but the combination isn't all that difficult to get. All you have to do is ask. For those students (mindless morons) who feel the responsibility of a newspaper they haven't paid for or for those who have a tendency to be overly temperamental and grabby, I'd appreciate it if you'd show a little consideration to those who did pay their measly ten dollars.

If you need a paper to train your dog or something to line your birdcage and kitty litter Tuesday with, use the Providence Journal. It's been given the Bounty and Viva test and has proved to be more absorbent and stronger than the New York Times. Please, if you ordered a newspaper, take one, if you didn't, go to the library and read the one on file.

1. Applications will be available in the Student Affairs Office and the Bursar's Office starting Tuesday, February 15.

2. Fill out the application and bring the $100 deposit and the application to the Bursar's Office. The Student Affairs Office will accept your deposit and verify your application. Bring the application with you on the day you sign up in the Student Affairs Office.

Deanna Grader, a sophomore senator, may be running for a position on the Executive Council this spring. The new Senate constitution will be put to the Senate for a vote, as well as the constitutional amendment to add one additional member to the Executive Council. If she wins, Deanna said, she hopes to start up a Women's Action Group to address issues such as adding a self-defense class for women. She is also considering running for President on the basis of her experience as a senator, chairperson, and being involved with the Women's Action Group.

Deanna said that she has been reading a lot about leadership and is trying to learn as much as possible for the upcoming election. She plans to start recruiting members for her campaign and to work towards building a strong team. She is also considering the possibility of running for a position on the Executive Council in the future, as it would be a good way to develop leadership skills and increase her knowledge of the issues facing the university.

Early morning Sunday (5:30 isn't early!) the Bryant College Ski Club left for Loon Mt. in Lincoln, New Hampshire. Rumors had been passed about possible reservation tickets were unavailable, but that seemed of minor importance. The bus was pulled into the resort. All tickets were sold out! But did we panic? No, we just hurriedly loaded onto the GM bus driver (reliable Pastwuck Bus Lines) was quite familiar with the area and suggested Cannon Mt. ONWARD! Twenty minutes later, after soothing stiff necks from looking up at Cannon's expert slopes, we were unloading.

A two-dollar "rebate," which was for the difference in the unexpected change in mountains, degraded the expenses at McDaniel. The trip turned out great and we only hoped that you have the opportunity to come along on the next one (possible a weekend event). See you at the next Ski Club meeting!

A U.S. Soviet dispute occurred earlier this week has been resolved. Assistant Secretary of Commerce Robert Blackwell stated the Russians will increase their payments to the United States. Full-time bombers will be used to compensate for failure to give U.S. ships one-third of the shipping.

Washington Semester Programs

Several different seminar programs are being offered to Bryant students by The American University, Washington, DC. All programs are a cooperative arrangement between The American University and Bryant College. Well qualified students will be selected by Bryant to spend a semester in Washington, DC to study a field in which they are interested. The four seminars will be sponsored by the Department of Economics and Development Semester.

The purpose of these seminars is to provide the student with a realistic picture of the processes involved in the given area of government which the student is interested in. These processes will be far richer in details and more accurate than that which can be gained in an ordinary academic environment.

Aside from the seminar, the student will be able to participate in an internship program which will enable him to attain appropriate on-the-job training with an appropriate legislative, administrative, or political office. If a student is recommended for the program, expenses would be handled in the following manner: Tuition is paid through the student's home college. Dormitory charges, payable at American University, are the same as those charged regular students for similar accommodations. Travel costs would depend upon the distance of the student's home from Washington. Other expenses depend upon the tastes and pocketbook of the student.

The American University, Washington, DC, is eligible to be a recipient of college credits transferred from the student to his home institution. The credits must be applicable toward graduation requirements of the student's home institution.
Inner Visions

by Donna M. Lampen

Always before,
I tried to keep myself distant from others.
Who was I waiting for?
Some perfect man I never found.
Why did I try to travel so many miles to find love?
To those I love,
I loved you intensely with visions of what might be.
And for those who have passed through my life,
there was you for the smiles and the tears;
the laughter and the sorrow
you have brought me.
For I have loved and learned from the experience.

When I say I love you
It is to you; as I see you and not some vision I'd like to see.
I love you for your faults and virtues.
I could not love you more.
And whether we change as time passes,
I will always love the person I see before me.
and will remember you in this regard forever.

Remember me
Although we may not be together at this moment our separation is only temporary and as of such short duration compared to our times spent together.
When you are sad or lonely,
Remember me.
When you are frightened,
Remember me.
When you feel as though the world is closing in or that no one cares,
Remember me-
I care.
I will stand beside you and give you the support you may need.
I will give you encouragement to face the obstacles of life ahead, and the belief in you when all else fails.
Remember me.
I love you.

If excellent Italian cuisine is ever your tummy's desire, quell that empty growl at Vincent's on the Hill. Located in downtown Providence on Atwells Avenue, (Now you know where the "Hill" came from) it is just a few blocks from Route 95.
What you will find there is superb dining.
The menu was a wide variety of selections (including Italian names), with most foods cooked in a wine or spiced sauce. All dinners come with salad and two vegetables, or pasta. The pasta is fantastic, cooked just the way
Mama made it.
The interior decor is blue crushed velour. The outside walls have booths covered completely in velour, and the center of the room has oak tables with big armed chairs all covered with crushed velour. The ambiance is semi-formal and in very good taste.
On my last visit to Vincent's on the Hill with a party of four, everyone ordered different meals. Using my roaming fork, I "sampled" the other three meals and found that each one was elegant. The dinners were ordered: chicken, scallops, veal and seared. Two members of my party chose the pasta, and the other two guests selected a vegetable. The vegetables were good, but their pasta is excellent.
For desert we ordered two spumoni's which we split among the four of us. The spumoni is homemade ice cream with fruit and topped with strawberry (fool a place for weight-watchers). Basically, a "spumoni" is just like fruit cake made with ice cream. I find it too much for one person to eat because Vincent's food portions are generous.

Lastly, the service is excellent.
Very professional and very friendly. Many times a professional waiter can be very cold and curt. Vincent's mixes professionalism with a kind smile and a little teasing to make a relaxed evening. The prices are very reasonable and service is very good. So the next time the "Anthony" in you cries out, satisfy the call with Vincent's.

We would like to wish KDK and TEP the best of luck on their Snow Queen Weekend in hopes that it is a success.

Special congratulations are in order for the great job the pledge class did in campus follies, and congratulations and all to Marie, who represented Sigma Iota Xi in the Snow Queen Pageant. We are all very proud of all of you! Good luck on Saturday night!

Alpha Phi Kappa

The sisters of ALPHA PHI KAPPA would like to to welcome everyone back for the second semester.

Pledging is underway again this year. Through varied unusual circumstances, our pledges learn the meaning of sisterhood and how to extend their love to one another. We have eleven pledges this year and the sisters of AKF look forward to the day when they will join us as one. GOOD LUCK PLEDGES!

ALPHA PHI KAPPA's basketball coach is Brian "Wyer" Dwyer and his assistant is Ray "Shiny" Shidler. Under their direction, our team promises to have a successful season. Let's take it to the limit!

Lastly, the sisters of AKF would like to wish our sister Stacie Schuenberg good luck in the Sino Queen contest and also to our pledges in the campus follies. We are all cheering for you.

The Sisters of ALPHA PHI KAPPA

Delta Sigma Phi

The brothers of Delta Sigma Phi would like to welcome everyone back for the new semester.

As we all know, pledging started last week. We wish good luck to all the pledges, because they're going to need some over the long, hard road of pledging. Our candidate for Sino Queen is Miss Marcia Vaccaro, escorting her will be Doug Smith. Everyone is behind her and we wish her the best of luck in the pageant.

In sports the Delta Sig basketball team is awaiting a new season. Though we lack a big man, we hope to overcome this by hustle and determination. In volleyball the coed team finished second, losing to Rio Grande in the finish. The Delta Sig team also did well making it into the playoffs before being bumped off.

Sigma Iota Xi

With the beginning of a new semester also comes the start of the pledging season. SIB's pledge class this year is known as the "Sporadic Seven..." They are: Kathy Morgan-Pledge Captain, Gail Astrouniczek, Gretchen Bakuzonis, Sue Passardi, Maureen Barry, Gail Rouseville, and Claudia West. We wish all the sororities and fraternities good luck with their pledge programs this year.

The SIBBIES are anticipating an enjoyable and successful basketball season. Our games begin Wednesday night with SIB-A playing the Turtles, and SIB-B against SIX-A.

LOVELIGHT, the world's first laser musical, has been open at the Charles Hayden Planetarium, Museum of Science, Boston since February 4 and running continually through August. The production combines an original story, colorful visual images, and a contemporary soundtrack to create a unique entertainment experience.

The three-set performance, in its premiere showing at the Charles Hayden Planetarium, tells the story of earthlight, spaceflight, and lovelight. To achieve this dramatization, LOVELIGHT pioneers in the creative combination of laser technology and graphic techniques.

The images of LOVELIGHT, abstract and representational, are drawn with laser beams. A fast-moving light source projects the images on the dome of the planetarium and creates a dynamic and colorful visual spectacle.

The soundtrack incorporates original lyrics, dialogue, and a range of musical styles from melodic to electronic in its interpretation of the story. The show is synchronized to the visuals for automatic playback.

LOVELIGHT was produced by INTERSCAN, a Cambridge-based creative team. The artistic elements of LOVELIGHT—the story, musical score, and visual images—were developed and produced by Intermedia Systems Corporation of Cambridge. The laser technology was developed and produced by General Scanning, Inc. of Watertown.

Ernie Isom scored 18 points Monday night to lift the Bryant Indians to a 108-79 thrashing over the Barrington Warriors. The Indians have now reached the 100 point plateau 6 times this year and rank as one of New England's most effective offensive threats.

The Indians were down by seven points early in the first half but rallied to a three point halftime lead, 45-42. As the second half started, the Indians put on a shooting exhibition and eruped for 63 points in the final twenty minutes of play. Scoring was evenly balanced in the game with high scorer Ernie Isom leading the way, followed by Paul Seymour, 16, Tom Box,16, Dan Mazzula, 15 and Dave Yukna, 13.

Over Barrington

Greetings again fellow members of Spaceship Bryant.

Things are looking up unless you're watching where you're going. Little pun there. YO HO! Meanwhile, back on Earth, there are some great things happening. Since this is a news-type paper, I will present it to you with a news type headline.

GREEK SPONSOR MASOCISM SEMINAR

In order to help people with identity problems, the Greeks on campus have decided once again to sponsor their annual course on self-abuse. Most of the "workshops" run for three weeks, but some offer an extra bonus week for those who really get into the program's theme.

The course kicked off last Friday, and some participating have been dubbed "pedagog" as they have "pledged" or "offered up" themselves for the cause of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The festivities have included many imaginative and creative activities that truly make this an experience (especially for bystanders).

There are only a slight dues charge for the course, and those who pass will receive shirts and jackets that have funny little letters on them. What fun! YO HO!

Continuing on, it's time again to check our secret mailbag and see what goodies we have this week. Here's one from some disgruntled person who seems to be suffering from claustrophobia.

Dear Lucky,

I am so cramped in this office, it took me two weeks to find the typewriter before I could send you a letter. Lucky, what has happened to those offices we were supposed to get? You know, the ones for the student organizations? I saw the movie "Promises, Promises," but this is ridiculous! I know it will be that way, but at this rate, they're still be doing the foundations. I thought all this was going to be done? Perhaps that adage "When the cat's away, the mice will play" is apropos. Lucky, please check with Uncle Leo and see if there is any cheese left.

SIGNED,
I.M. Cramped

As you can see, things have always been tight here at Bryant, and space is no exception. As far as "Promises, Promises" go, I'm afraid that they're "Gone With The Wind." You've heard that song, "It Don't Come Easy," well at Bryant, it doesn't come at all. You're the best bet might be to forget about expanding until after you graduate. As for the cheese I think it went bad because something sure does smell in the offices.

Dear Lucky

This week I received a love letter from the Bryant Gestapo. It said my car was illegally parked and please remit two dollars within several days or something vicious would happen to me. Would they make runs in my mykonos or let the air out of tires? What is this scare tactic on the back of each ticket! After all, the Bryant Storm Troopers Club gets five dollars from every student for the use of a locker which is free for all students at one time. They may give you back the money at the end of nine months for the use of a locker, but they get the use of that money interest-free for that period. Please, Mr. Lucky sir, tell me what those monsters in blue will do to poor little ole me if I don't come across?

Signed, Finod

If you had bought tickets to the Annual Bryant Security Ball, this ticketing of your car probably would never have happened. No, honestly, Security really does do a lot for us. For example, when was the last time that the National Guard was on campus? Just because Smithfield Police have set up a separate station on campus is no reason to doubt the ability of our Security force. You must remember, ticketing cars is hard and dangerous work that makes many demands of those on duty. For myself, I sleep a lot securing knowing that all the cars in the lot are in their right places. The thought of a solitary car parked out of line because of a snow pile makes me shudder. YO HO!

As for the interest from the money on locker deposits, it goes to a fund that allows Security to purchase new tires for their van every month after they burn them off by hot-rodding around the campus. These tires aren't cheap; therefore, tickets are sold out the parking lot daily. The new game, Parking Raquette, only costs two dollars to play and if you don't buy one, you lose. If you do buy one, you lose again. That will teach you not to gamble.

Lucky

Dear Lucky,

Though I've been on vacation in Siberia for the last couple of years, I managed to catch your article in Pravada and decided to write. I understand everything is freezing up and cold people are turning red. How are you going to help their problem? How is student life going? We have many people marching around fields here too, but even we have a limit. And the sports program. How I miss it. What are the goals of the hockey program this year? Things can be rough these days. Money is tight and with fixed budgets, especially on campus, things can become hard. How are the prices at Bryant? Are you spirits still up?

Well, Lucky, just thought I'd drop you a line to let you know that we all know what's going on at Bryant. Hope to write you again soon.

Love,
Madame Lovenda

My Dearest Madame,

It is so nice to hear from you again. I'm glad I can say that Things are as well as can be expected, though there's always room for improvement.

Yes, it has been a little frigid around here lately and those stinging winds really have a way of making your cheeks burn. Then again, with our heating system, many times temperatures are uncomfortably warm in the Unstructure. The only thing I can suggest when this happens is, "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

You mentioned the hockey program. It started off a little icy rinkside, but everything is pucky now. YO HO! Even though there have been problems, spirits remain to be high. I don't understand why, but how does that expression go, "It's not for me to reason why, but for me to do..." and so on.

Madame, I hope I will hear from you again in the future.

Love,
Lucky

Hockey Team Wins 6 Out of Last 7

The Bryant Hockey Indians pulled out a tight 6-5 win over Bridgewater State College Wednesday night to give the high-flying Indians their sixth win in their last seven games.

Neither team had more than a one-goal lead in the Division Two contest, but a 34 shot-on-goal barrage was too much for the Bridgewater goalie and the Indians were able to pull out a very rare road victory. Dave Dolce scored two goals for the Indians and Bill Trinque scored the game winner to lead the Indians to their twelfth victory of the year. Johnny Ogrodnick, Vito Scotti and Mark Inman also scored for Bryant.

The Indians travel to Middletown, Conn. to play Wesleyan tomorrow and return home Monday night to play New Haven.

Indian Streak Stopped at 5 - Downed by Amherst

The Bryant Indians had their winning streak stopped at five games as Amherst College defeated the Indians 7-5.

Amherst goalie Jeff Fine was directed at his nets to salvage a road victory for the Amherst team. Fine, a former Moses Brown star from Pawtucket, successfully thwarted a last minute barrage of shots from the Indians to insure the victory.

Last Second Shot by Avery Pulls Out Win Over Bentley

A last second tap-in by Chris Avery climaxed the Indians second straight road victory as Bryant defeated the Bentley Falcons, 83-81. Chris finished the evening with 18 points in what many have called his finest game as a collegian.

The Indians led through most of the game, but a late minute surge by the Bentley team put the Falcons on top 81-79 with a minute left. A Tommy Box layup attempt was then blocked, and it appeared the Indians would have to settle for their ninth loss of the year. Dan Mazuola, however, grabbed the loose ball, fed Box, and Tommy laid it up for two points and a tie score. A misfire goal by Bentley with 15 seconds left gave the Indians the chance they needed as Mike Travassos scored with 2.2 seconds left to give the Indians the victory. It was the Indians second straight road victory for the Indians to insure the victory.

High scorer for the Indians was Tommy Box with 19 points followed by Chris Avery, who scored 18 and pulled down eight rebounds. Bryant led at halftime, 46-35.
