Nuclear Plants Discussed
by Valerie A. Brauckman

Thursday, December 5, the Ad Hoc Committee of Student Overseas Services presented a talk concentrating on the recently exposed Atomic Energy Commission Staff member, and Daniel C. Fied, Executive Director of the Union of Concerned Scientists.

Students interested in making it on their own in Europe may obtain complete information, including job openings and application forms, by sending their name, address, the name of their school (only students are eligible), and $1 to cover overseas postage, handling, and printing to: SDS Student Overseas Services, 22 Avenue de la Liberté, Luxembourg, Luxembourg. Europe. Inquiries are answered the day they are received.

European Job Cards
Student Overseas Services-Temporary paying jobs have been advertised for students with a European Job Card. The card entitles you to a pay job, with free room and board, in a resort, hotel, office, restaurant, or hospital, in Switzerland, Austria, France or Germany. Standard wages are paid which include back all or most of the trip costs. Of equal value is the experience itself and the fact that it will always provide an overview of the business world and the future you. It puts your name on a job list, and it indicates processing of your application, one of the necessary working papers. As the business world is a system, students interested in earning their way to Europe should consider obtaining their student Overseas Job Cards well in advance of their anticipated departure. Job cards and jobs are given out on a non-profit, first-come, first-served basis.

The service is provided by Student Overseas Services, SOS, which has advertised for students in temporary paying jobs in Europe during the past ten years. Throughout the year SOS conducts orientation periods in Luxembourg, to make certain that every student who wants a job gets off to a good start. Large numbers of students from all over the U.S. converge in Luxembourg to attend these orientations.

Students interested in learning more about the opportunities available in Europe may obtain complete concerned over catastrophe accidents. Six to eight years after the Three Mile Island incident, the industry acknowledged forswearing difficulties, but, with the use of safety systems any disaster would be avoided. Now, the industry admits the possibility of a safety system failure, but the industry's inducement for rapid evacuation from the contaminated area would be palpable.

Dr. Carl J. Hoevar and Daniel C. Fied both strongly agree that these risks are too great for our society to be exposed to nuclear power in a question of survival. Their question of this magnitude should not be left up to large secretive, bureaucratic commissions, but should be left to the judgment of a well-informed public.

Bicentennial Committee Meets
Valerie Brauckman

Tuesday, December 5, the Friends of The Bicentennial Committee met to discuss plans concerning Bicentennial celebration at Bryant. Tentatively, the committee plans an "Open End" day on April 18, as Bryant Bicentennial Day, where the program will be devoted to lectures, symposiums, and in-class activities. Historical tours of certain areas will be made available to interested students.

The committee would also like to sponsor an essay contest, to be devoted to an essay on the Bicentennial, and to sponsor a debate on the Bicentennial, and a debate on the Bicentennial Scholarship.

Any student or faculty who would care to offer ideas concerning the celebration is encouraged to contact Gerry Sussman, Philip Schumacher, or Norma Baines.
What About the Rat?

Dear Editor,

I'm writing this Letter to the Editor in disgust after returning from the Rathskellar this evening where there was a grand total of 4 students there, 2 employees, my friend Bob, myself, and a mouse.

Where have all the people gone? Is it the increase in prices that has driven the people away? What has happened to the Rathskellar in just one years time? These are just a few of the questions that Bob and myself asked each other while relaxing after night school, having a beer.

There has been a definite change for the worse in student attitude towards the Rathskellar this year and whose fault is it? The College's? The student's? Well, my feelings are that the students are finally realizing that the present facilities at Bryant College are insufficient to meet their needs, both academically and especially social, of the Bryant Community as a whole. With over 1,300 students living on campus, and with total enrollment of 2,600 students, I feel that there should be a decent Rathskellar where students can go in their spare time to mix, dance to the music of a live band, meet with old friends, and make new ones. Besides beer, wine, and chips, a Rathskellar should provide a variety of other foods, getting away from the forced craving of alcoholic beverages, and the strictly alcoholic atmosphere that the Rathskellar provides in such great quantity and quality. It seems as though the college is pushing the sale of beer, beer, even more beer at a profitable price without bothering to provide a healthy psychological atmosphere for its students.

The familiar faces of the past few years probably weren't at the Rathskellar when I was there because they were also driven away with similar feelings as my own. Perhaps it is only a coincidence, but business seems to be booming at the Library down the road, and at Gulliver's lately. Is our Rathskellar providing the same atmosphere as these places whom Bryant students can go to enjoy very much? If the answer is no, and I'm sure it is, why?

While working with the Student Senate over the past few years I have come to realize that in order for changes to occur at Vryant College, people need to speak out. Certain things must change at Bryant College and if in their time they will, but the students must show their feelings and in action in order to receive action.

Respectfully,
Howard Flach

THE ARCHWAY STAFF
November 25, 1974

After the acceptance of the minutes from the previous week's meeting and a reminder from Mike Hammer concerning overdue committee reports, Howard Flasum asked the Senators to please observe the rules concerning putting up of posters, or the privilege of being able to put them up at the Senate's own discretion would be taken away. In connection with this, Jack Singleton reported that rules dealing with non-Senate use of poster materials and supplies would be forthcoming.

Peter Lockattt attended the meeting, and was questioned by the Senators concerning his reasons for wishing to take on the position of Senior Senator. Mike Hammer made a motion that Peter Lockattt be accepted to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Paul Carroll, but in a closed ballot, the motion was defeated 11 for, 8 against, 3 abstentions, as it was not a majority.

Under new business, Rich McGarrett brought two R.S.A.O. proposals to the floor. The first motion was that the Senate investigate the possibilities of sending machines put back in the dorms, and the second proposal was that the Senate investigate the possibility of increasing the security patrol on campus, especially in the dorm villages on weekends. After some discussion, both motions were unanimously passed.

Howard Flasum informed the Senate that Student Affairs had been approached by a promoter about having an "Afters" concert on campus. Deemed infeasible as planned, the idea was turned over to the Student Senate for consideration. The costs of the concert, which had been set at $1500 for the promoter, $100 for lights from URI, and $64.50 for security, the concert could possibly be held in the mini dome on Sunday, December 8, 1974, free of charge.

Discussion followed, during which the problem of the library being open was brought up. Jack Singleton made a motion that the Senate investigate all the possible options and aspects of December 8 concert and it passed, 18 for, 0 against, 0 abstentions.

The idea of a Christmas party in the form of a semi-formal, to be held Saturday, December 14, was brought up by Howard Flasum. The end result of a lengthy discussion was a motion by Rich McGrath that in view of conflicts of other activities the week of December 14, the party not be held. The motion passed, 16 for, 4 against, 0 abstentions.

Rus Powers announced that the movie schedule for Sunday, November 24, was not shown because the film was packaged wrong and was damaged in shipping. Since it was not possible to rent the movie for another time, the money from the cancelled film would be used towards cartoons for the rest of the year. The motion passed, 19 for, 0 against, 1 abstention.

The possibility of sponsoring a bus to the first away basketball game at Assumption was brought up by Howard Flasum. Pat Frazer made a motion to sponsor a bus Monday, December 2, 1974, to Assumption College for the basketball game at a cost of $50 per person plus the cost of the ticket to get in. The motion passed, 18 for, 0 against, 2 abstentions.

Dan Landefin proposed that the Senate investigate having the library open longer hours during the exam week, December 12-19, especially weekends, and the motion passed 19 for, 0 against, 1 abstention.

Landefin also announced that the Lecture Committee, in conjunction with Parents' Weekend, plan to present Robert Stan, April 18, at a cost of $750. In addition, there is a possibility of having Dr. Joyce Brothers speak at the school on February 11. As there appeared to be no other business, Anne-Marie Vigneau made a motion to adjourn.

December 2, 1974

The meeting began with the reading of a letter of resignation from Margaret French, Executive Secretary, by Howard Flasum. The letter, which was unanimously accepted, cited increased involvement in a sorority as the reason for the resignation.

Michael Lynch, a member of the Library Committee, reported that an investigation into the possibility that in previous years, not enough students were interested in using the library after hours to make it worthwhile. As an alternative, it was decided that three concerts would be opened as study room evenings from 20 to 12 p.m. beginning on Thursday, December 5.

The Senators were asked by Pat Frazer, Sophomore Senator, to please turn in their individual tabulations on the food survey, as John Ledwith had asked for the final results by Wednesday.

Jack Singleton read a proposal that at the next Senate meeting the Executive Council give a report on its activities, including: 1) from the President, a progress report on Student Government Incorporation and development of a Student Union; 2) from the Vice President, a progress report on Faculty Evaluation; 3) from the Treasurer, the financial position of the Senate to date, written up in detail, including all agreements now in effect or pending between the Senate and the School; and 4) from the Speaker of the Council, a progress report on all the Senate committees. In view of a report handed around by Kevin McGarvey dealing with what is happening with the "Afters" concert. It was accepted, citing increased involvement in a sorority as the reason for the resignation.

Many of the Senators were open to the possibility of having the library open longer hours during the exam week, December 12-19, especially weekends, and the motion passed 19 for, 0 against, 1 abstention.

It was asked by Jack Singleton, what was happening with the "Afters" concert. Kevin McGarvey responded by stating that since a decision had to be reached last week and there was still the problem of the library being open, the concert was cancelled.

Dave Knoblock asked what the Senate's position was on the matter of an Executive Secretary. Kevin McGarvey said that the office was open and applications would be solicited. Howard Flasum continued by saying that an advertisement would be placed in The Archway, and Dan Landefin asked that it include the Senior Senate seat that is still vacant.

The meeting adjourned at 3:50 p.m. with a motion by Anne-Marie Vigneau.

For an Experience You Won’t Forget!
Genesis is a band that is well known for its stage theatrics, and rightly so. The group undoubtedly has one of the best, if not bizarre stage shows in the business. The use of stage theatrics is becoming increasingly popular in the music industry today. It's even making its way into nightclubs and discodubs. There are quite a few ideas concerning the use of stage theatrics as an effective entertainment tool, and most of them are best left up to personal opinion.

The one thing that virtually any Genesis record does best, is to prepare the listener for its live performances. Most of this group's albums have a story within and this one is no exception. "The Lamb Lies Down on Broadway" continues itself with the story of Rael, a young man who experiences a series of adventures in a journey. Those who have an interest are eager to seek out the "true meaning" will not be disappointed, as the story is crammed with vagues and allegorical nonsense. This story is certainly not a literary masterpiece, and it will be infinitely more interesting when performed on stage, for which it was written.

"The Lamb Lies Down on Broadway" is a two-album set, and like most of these, there is much wanted sound. It is most difficult to fill up four sides of an album with consistent high quality sound. The music on this album is almost as vague and non descriptive as the story it's backing. To those familiar with Genesis, the music will bear no surprises. While placing theatrics in the spotlight, the quality of the musical and lyrical composition falls by the wayside. This is quite a blow to those who listen to the record, with nothing but his imagination to supply the main portion of Genesis' essence--stage theatrics.

An interesting point of the album is the last line, it sounds very similar to the little tune of a recent Spence album, "It's Only Rock and Roll, But I Like It." Upon checking the lyrics sheet, what is found is that they're saying, "cos it's only knock and knowall, but I like it."

This album is exceptionally factitious musically. The only redeeming quality is the story (?) within, and that's only if you're able to figure it out. The album does provide somewhat of a musical background that you might better appreciate seeing Genesis in concert. For all but the most sincere Genesis freaks, this album is hardy worth the time it takes to listen to it.

Incidentally, Genesis is playing in concert this weekend in Providence. This group has one of the best shows in the business, and if you have a chance, go see them. Tickets are available for one dollar (now) off regular price in the Student Senate Office.

Rating: * on a four-star basis.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

Lyrical Lyre

by Paul J. Carroll

Miles away from break of day the elmore did conspire to whisk away
at break of day
the beauty of the Lyre

Now beauty was in the fairer mind that lived in the Land of Lyre and loved she was by all the folk in the lowland known as Lyre

The elmore he did plot and plan his evil be the fire and thinking about his dirty deed came a vision that was dire

he ran into his little hut
and made a mix of sile then put it in a beaker glass and went down to the Lyre

Now beauty lived in a manor high that overlooked the Lyre and there she slept with none other than her Sire below, below quoth the elmore with the panting with desire for he was hot from drinking of the passion of the sire
he hung a rope up to her ledge
and sealed the wall unit then reaching for the rim of the ledge
he roughly about for she'd surely awakened the Sire and he was right for up in fright
he heard her bring the Sire

Now the Sire was strong and his arms were long he was the Champion of the Lyre and when he saw the beauteous elmore his patience did expire

Amidst the rash of flying fins awoke the beauty of Lyre and shocked was she to see the sight of the elmore and her Sire

In panic
did she want to help her man, her stud, her sire
So, grabbing the closest thing at hand she flung
the beaker of sile

The beaker it flew right past the two and landed in the fire and filled the room with billows of va-voom
then it spread throughout the Lyre

Now it was fast and it was strong filling people with desire and soon it entered the sleeping heads of all the people of Lyre
the night was long the night was hot the land was tinged with sile and all the folk united their knobs
and cooled their burning desires

And as for the two who drank of the brew
they both had surpassed their desires they were at peace nearly half dead
from beauteous' irresistible passion.
The Sisters of Beta Sigma Omicron have had another three weeks worth check full of events. To begin with, we had four seniors competing in the GLC Cross Country Race. All four received honorable mention ribbons. To everyone’s amazement, Sister Donna Caroselli was the first to cross the finish line of our four. Next was Laurie Blair, then Nancy Hilliard and Jeannine Peave. Last, but far from least, was Cheryl Maine.

Two weeks ago the Sisters of BSO had another surprise candle-light ceremony. Everyone was completely shocked when we found out it was Joanne Delmonico who was the lucky girl. The Best of luck and congratulations Jonnie!

For our fund-raising event for November we sold boxes of nuts. Good eating to all those lucky enough to grab one of these boxes of delicious nuts. For all those who didn’t get to buy one of the boxes, don’t give up hope. We’ll be around next year at this time.

The Sisters of BSO held their annual Pajama Party this year on Friday, November 22. It was a great gab fest for all and also proved to have some enlightening moments for a few sisters. All who went had a great time and look forward to next year’s party. On a more serious note, Beta Sigma Omicron donated a Thanksgiving Basket filled with lots of good food to a needy family. All the sisters seemed to be quite pleased to help others less fortunate have a very bountiful Thanksgiving. And now for the sports. Our Sister Susan Longo has once again been chosen for All-Star Team. She participated in the All-Star game the Monday before the Thanksgiving holiday. Congratulations, Sue. Also, four of our Sisters are playing with Delta Sig for co-ed volleyball. Good luck, guys and gals. We’re beholding you all the way.

Monday, December 9, is the day for BSO’s annual Christmas Party at the Scandinavian Home for the elderly. This private function has always been a huge success. We have been told that the old folks at the home eagerly anticipate the party for several days. All the sisters sing songs, pass out goodies, and talk to the elderly who can attend the party. This year Santa Claus is coming in for a surprise visit. He’s also going to help the sisters out pass the gifts to all the elderly in the home. This party certainly helps to get both Sisters and the old folks into the Christmas Spirit.

Last but not least, we wish to thank the best of luck to all the candidates for Miss Bryant. A special good luck wish goes to our candidate, Lisa Calvagno. We wish you all the way, Lisa. Go get ’em. Good Luck again.

Phi Sigma Nu

Phi Sig ended up their football season as fraternity champions. They then lost to Denmar 2 with a score of 10-6 for the school championship. Phi Sig had like this thank all the Greeks and Independents who came out and supported the team during the season. We would also like to congratulate Denmar.

Phi Sig-SLT Weekend is on right now with the judging looking for the Miss Bryant Pageant. We will be entered in the Miss Rhode Island Pageant this same weekend.

Our volleyball teams are starting to prepare for the season ahead. Come on out and support your favorite team.

paranoia, that attitude is disturbing. So too are the implications of a statement of a "co-chaperon" of the local Women’s Political Council defining as the purpose of the organization to support women for public office exclusively. A feminist back or a party back - what’s the difference? We should, therefore, really listen to our language. From rhetoric to cliché in less than ten years — that’s setting us back. "Women’s lib" is over as a cause and has completed its transition to action — affirmative action. The liberalized woman’s goal now is not to promote her rights, but to assure that society benefits from all the human resources equally and use equal rights movements have made available and to assume commensurate responsibility. There’s still a long way to go, ladies and gentlemen.

AKP

APK finished its volleyball season in third place in Division A, and they lost to Sigma Alpha Kappa in a close game in the playoffs. A special thanks to our coach, Ernie, for this time and effort.

On November 22, the sisters held a wine and cheese happy hour. It was an attempt at a different kind of happy hour and proved to be successful, as it gave the sisters and the freshmen more of a chance to talk and get to know each other.

APK Phi Epsilon Phi

Our annual Christmas Party will be held at RPM on December 11 due to a conflict with the Phi Sig-SLT Weekend. Anyone planning to attend must have his money in by Sunday, December 8.

Two of our brothers, Bill McDermott and Steve Ricks, are leaving school next semester and joining the Navy. We would like to thank both of these fine Brothers. Our brother Bill Drohan will be attending school at the University of London this same semester. New officers have taken over their positions, Em Runowski as Alumni Secretary, Walter Michalecky as Assistant Treasurer, and Jeff Huff as Counselor at Large.

In the past GLC Cross Country Race, Phi Ep took first place, capturing eight places out of the top ten. We would like to thank Ned McCray, John Doss, Glenn Jeter, Eric Daley, Mike Riley, Max Zuniwski, Mike Andreasen, G. Hansen and Tom Leonard for running for us.

This year we are really involved in volleyball. Brothers and freshmen have formed the up for this season, so should this year. We are really involved in volleyball. Brothers and freshmen have formed the up for this season, so should it be a lot of fun.

Our last party, two of the new Fraternity/Phi Sig sisters, was those few who were still at the bar at 7:15 a.m. Great to see all of you there.

We’re looking forward to the G.L.C. Christmas Party. As usual, it will turn out to be the biggest Greek function of the semester. All Greeks, make sure you’re there.

As this is the last Greek News for the semester, the brothers wish everyone the very best for the Christmas holidays. Look forward to seeing you in January.

TKE would like to thank the student body of Bryant for attending the GCLA mixer of Friday, November 22, 1974, and making it the biggest success that it was. We would also like to thank you for patronizing our car wash on Saturday, November 23, 1974, which was also a big success.

TKE would like to announce that we came out victorious after our first two co-ed volleyball games.

We are preparing for the 1974-75 Basketball season as the Fraternity Defending Champions this year, as we have been for the past three years.

Bryant Beaten in Upset Attempt Of Assumption 95-83

by James Dunlop

On Monday night, December 2, in Worcester, MA, Bryant failed in its attempt to upset the top-ranked Assumption College basketball team. Bryant, who took an early lead in the first half, couldn’t hang onto it as Assumption tied it at 32 with two minutes left in the half. Trailng by six at half time the Indians played catch up ball with the entire second half. Bryant was able to close the gap to five points before Assumption slowly pulled away, enroute to their 95-83 win.

The game started slow and stopped as both teams failed to capitalize on the others mistakes. The Greyhounds were the first to score in the game. They maintained their 5-0 lead for the first three minutes as both teams shot poorly. Bryant was the first to catch on fire as they ran their lead to as many as eight points midway through the first half. But then Charlie Armstrong picked up his third foul and Dave Sorantine shot his second, and both were taken out of the line up. Without their reserves Assumption slowly closed the gap until they tied the score with two minutes left in the half, and then went ahead, leading the floor at half time with a 33-31 lead.

The second half saw Bryant come out shooting as Dave Sorantine scored 20 points in the last half of play. The Indians continued their hot shooting for the remainder of the game, running up 10 points in the second half. Unfortunately Assumption was also on target as they scored 33 points in the last half, 14 of them by Paul Brennan and 17 by All American John Jon Grachowski. Bryant’s hopes of an upset disappeared with about three minutes to play when they fell behind by twelve points.

The one bright moment for the Indians in the closing minutes was when Dave Sorantine sank a shot making him the eighth player in Bryant history to score 1,000 points.

This is the first year Bryant has played in Division II, they previously played in Division III. In Assumption, Bryant was facing the nations third best Division II team of last year. All in all Bryant played a good game against an excellent team. Besides Dave Sorantine’s shooting and Ned Bobholz’s ball handling, two other standouts in the game were freshmen Chris Avery and Jeff Kurz who scored 17 and 18 points respectively.

Girl’s Volleyball Playoffs

The 1974 girl’s volleyball playoffs were a far cry from the excitement and proved to be interesting.

The first round began with SIB defeating a tough Phi Psi team in two games. Both games were won by mere two points. Jane Hazen started for the Phi Psi, while Georgette Schulz sparked the Sibbies. Mikeee proceeded to play the Fruitflies. The Fruitflies were led by the serve of Paula Fontanella who was much too strong for Mixed Coffee as they handle the “Flies” won in two straight games.

Six, in a fine team effort, defeated Apple Pie in two easy games despite Margie Lewis’s fine play. The final game of the night was between the RB’s and Free Spirits. The RB’s led by the trio of Carolyn Massey destroyed the Free Spirits in two games.

On Tuesday, November 19, the divisional finals took place. In the most thrilling game of the night SIB overtook the RB’s 20 to 9 in the first game to capture the Intramural B Championship. The RB’s blew a big lead in the first game and SIB came back to win the second by a score of 17 to 15. Georgette Schillings and Linda Bartee played extremely well for the Sibbies. The Division “A” championship was won by the Fruitflies in relatively easy fashion, two games to none.

SIB and the Fruitflies met the next night, November for the intramural championship, a best of five series.

Dorm 2 and Company Successfully Defends Its Intramural Football Title

On November 21, Dorm 2 and Co. successfully defended its intramural football title by defeating Phi Sigma Nu, 10-6. Dorm 2's secondary had almost complete domination of the airways with six interceptions to none for Phi Sig. Tom Schmidt scored the lone, Dorm 2 touchdown with a sensational grab of a deflected 40-yard pass midway through the first half giving Dorm 2 a lead they never relinquished. The first half, except for the touchdowns and a squibbed conclusion by each team, was highlighted by the enormous rush of Phi Sig and the stop-and-go secondary of Dorm 2. The half ended with Dorm 2 leading 7-0.

The second half was more of the same. The defenses of both teams continued to dominate the action. Dorm 2 had only one opportunity in the second half to gain good field position, and used the opportunity to their advantage when Steve Sisten split the uprights with a 35-yard field goal—giving Dorm 2 an insurmountable 10-6 lead. Finally Phi Sig broke their scoring ice by missing in a controversial pass interference call near the Dorm 2 goal line. On a fourth down clutch play, Billy Taylor hit Bob Perry in the end zone with a pass to cut the lead to 10-4 with only 32 seconds remaining in the game. After the ensuing kick-off Dorm 2 was unable to run out the clock and had to punt back to Phi Sig. Phi Sig's quarterback Frank Carrigan had 5 seconds on the clock to go and had one last chance, a desperation bomb that was knocked away and the Dorm 2 defense ended Dorm 2 of their second football title in as many years. It marked the "beginning and the end of a dynasty.

Both teams had their outstanding players. For Phi Sig there was nothing more exciting than the passing combination of Phi Sig's quarterback Frank Carrigan to Bob Perry. Add to this the devastating run of "Buzzy" Waldman and Phi Sig had a very impressive array of weapons to choose from. For Dorm 2, which had the highest offensive total in either league, they had an outstanding selection of weapons themselves to choose from. Nune was more explosive than the potent Steve Simon to Tom Schmidt book-up that baffled many a defensive back and Dorm 2 amassed over 200 points for the season. Dorm 2 would like to pay two special tributes, the first to a rookie named Steve Stetson whose awesome rush gave Dorm 2 a new dimension. The second tribute is to the loyal fans who pulled for them throughout the entire season.

There were many players on both teams that did deserve recognition but because both teams competed in the finals, it illustrated that neither team was exclusively by relying on supers but rather because of consistent team efforts game after game. It would be unfair to indicate the names of some thus neglecting other deserving players.

This writer would like to say thank you to all members of the Dorm 2 team and their fans for making this a most satisfying and successful Dorm 2 & Company championship season, and also to congratulate Phi Sig for their fine season and sportsmanship throughout the playoffs.

St. Mary's Nips Bryant 66-62 In Exhibition Game

St. Mary's, trailing by one at half, put on a great second half and held on to pull out a 66-62 victory over Bryant in the season opener at the University Gymnasium on November 22, at the Bryant Gymnasium.

The first half saw neither side take command as the lead changed hands several times. Senior Ned Bohan led the Indians in the first half as he hit on five of seven shots from the field for ten points.

In the second half, both teams found the scoring range. The major factor in the second half on 9 of 10 shots plus 5 free throws for 21 points in the second half. Freshman starting guard Jeff Kuns was also on target as he made all five of his shots.

Bryant's chances of pulling out the victory were dampened when both Ned Bohan and Dave Sotofine fouled out late in the game, Bryant pulled within two points with less than 30 seconds left. But two free throws by St. Mary's ended the Indians' hopes.

St. Mary's was led by Dave Sotofine's 19 points and Ned Bohan's 16. Freshman Jeff Kuns chipped in with 12 points.
