PROPOSAL

BACKGROUND

As a result of the matters that have been at hand ...the Student Senate has been at hand for some time considering logical alternatives to the problems that would satisfy the situation at hand. We see those that have to be solved as follows:

(1) The Board of Trustees is faced by a situation on the viewpoint of the Vice Presidents for Student and Business Affairs to fulfill their legal and financial responsibilities as delegated by the Board of Trustees.

(2) The Student Senate and the Board of Trustees have been at hand for a way to provide and enjoy activities and programs sponsored in return for the $25.30 per year they pay for this reason.

The basic problem that must be solved is as follows:

The Board of Trustees appropriates all fees that are assessed and collected by the College. The Student Senate, in its present allocation of funds, is faced by the point to which the Board of Trustees appropriates the amount of money per student per year in the form of student activity funds, they have assessed or approved the assessment of the fee on all students, and are therefore responsible to see to it that the Student Senate has the authority to do what is needed to provide the money that is provided to provide the way only that the Board of Trustees has to control the financial situation at hand is by delegating authority to the two aforementioned Vice Presidents who are unilaterally responsible to the Board of Trustees.

PROPOSAL

WHEREAS The Student Senate recognizes the need to provide these services to the Student Body with funds as approved.

WHEREAS The Student Senate has the need to provide these services for the Student Body with funds as approved.

WHEREAS The Student Body supports the Student Senate to provide these services for the Student Body with funds as approved.

WHEREAS The College recognizes the need for the providing of these services on a continuing basis for the students.

WHEREAS The College, by delegation of the Board of Trustees, must have a legal position by which to ensure the providing of these services.

WHEREAS The College recognizes an incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate as that party which will provide the students the activities and the College the service of this provision on a contractual basis. The amount of the contract with the said corporation will be the number of proposed and committed students times the activities allocation of $25.30 per student per year or that the Board of Trustees shall vote to increase this fee, the Student Services, Inc., will be responsible for fulfilling the duties outlined in the contract for this amount.

This proposal is presented to the College with an annual audit of all internal operations on a yearly basis.

RATIONALE

The newly incorporated Student Services Division of the Student Senate will become a separate contract from the Student Senate, allowing it to fulfill the obligations of the Board of Trustees on a contractual basis. We do consider the amount of consideration to be allocated for student activity purposes of student activity part of the established." Mr. Battow feels that the group should be made up of any interested students who are concerned with dormitory conditions and who feel they would like to become involved and voice their views, as well as those views shared by others engaged in the dormitory life.

Prerequisites, of course, are that students involved with the Board of Trustees be dormitory students. Anyone is eligible (and strongly urged) to become a member of the Resident Assistant’s Group (or other group constituted by the Student Senate) on a contractual basis. The group will select two resident students (or other group constituted by the Student Senate) to work with the Committee.

The reason for creating such a group, according to Peter Battow, is that Student Affairs felt the need to "hear the opinions or views of students living in the dormitories concerning dormitory policies before such policies are created." From The Editor’s Desk

This year, I have given hours of thought and pages of newspaper space to many of the problems that I believe we plaguing Bryant College. I have also received letters by concerned students on this topic. Sometimes the people who write these letters have enough courage to stand behind their convictions to print their names. Other times this is not so. I believe that it is very important to give space in THE ARCHWAY to those members of the Bryant Community who are concerned enough about the College to have their opinions printed. It takes an enormous amount of courage to put one’s thoughts down on paper and then have the majority of the Bryant Community sit down and read those thoughts. I do not blame the writer signs his name to these.

In the past, I have allowed letters to the editor to be printed in THE ARCHWAY without signatures. However, I now find it imperative to change this policy. I do not like the idea of people writing letters to me and having them printed in the newspaper without having their names on them. I think that in many cases these people are trying to hide behind the newspaper. That is not fair to THE ARCHWAY or to whatever or whoever is being written about in the letter. People who sign their names to letters to the editor will not be thrown out of school for voicing their opinions. If someone in the student body; on the faculty or administration tries to “get back” at someone for what they have had printed in THE ARCHWAY, let me know. Dr. Fullerton has given his word that if this should ever happen to a student, he will back them up. I am sure that other members of the Administration feel the same way about this. So, if you are worried about having your name printed on any letters that you send in for publication because of repercussions that may occur, don’t. Nothing is going to happen to you. Your opinion will be read and you will feel a little bit of pride in the fact that you had enough guts and believe in your convictions enough to let people know how you feel.

I have allowed, all letters to the editor must be signed by their author. I reserve the right to refrain from publishing any letters that may be considered libelous. It’s time to clean up the act.

Compund

Hunting Bow

Legal in Rhode Island

State House, Providence, R.I.— Dennis J. Murphy, Jr., Director of the State Department of Natural Resources, has announced that the use of the compound bow for archery hunting in Rhode Island is legal. Since the bow is neither drawn, held by a person, or released by mechanical means, it is not considered a mechanical bow, Director Murphy said.

The compound bow enables an archer to use a greater draw weight than he could with a conventional bow. The result is an arrow that shoots faster with a flatter trajectory, improving accuracy.

The Department’s Division of Fish and Wildlife biologists, who have recommended permitting use of this bow, point out that it is not a new, and now, to the archer and is, biologically, a suitable hunting weapon. Most states have already permitted the use of compound bows, they noted.

be was clarifying the Department’s position at this time as a result of several inquiries from bowhunters and the approach of the archery deer-hunting season on September 29.

A Letter to Mr. David Wells

The following is a letter which Mr. David Wells, Assistant Professor of Social Sciences, received from one of his students.

I am writing to tell you how much I learned from one of your lectures on September 12, and his comments, which I feel are of interest to the Bryant Community, are presented below in his letter.

Dear Mr. Wells,

First, I would like to commend Bryant’s proposal to establish a major program in public administration leading to a Bachelor of Science degree is well considered and much needed. It offers students a sound basic foundation and sufficient latitude to tailor the program to suit his or her interests. Finally, the proposal’s awareness of “new requirements for knowledge of economics, computers and financial management” makes Bryant’s program interesting and timely.

You asked me about the effect of Watergate on public service. The consequences of that legal affair will be far reaching and, hopefully, cleaning. As you pointed out, one of the consequences will be that capable and honest people will be turned off by, and away from, public service. That would be the real tragedy of this world episode.

It is my premise that people deserve better government than they have. When people are seeing as much as 25-30% of their income go for taxes, they have a right to expect decent service in return. Roads in good repair, dependable and effective public safety, adequate recreation and cultural outlets, decent educational and training systems, and other necessary services not commonly supplied by private enterprise must be realized. If the quality of life is to match the quality of goods in our society, if good people refuse to enter public service now, the framework within which we enjoy and avail ourselves of exists will deteriorate and collapse, and the problems and injustices we recognize will

Criticized

Dear Editor,

Last week I found the letter to the Editor from Mr. David Wells, a student, expressing his views on Watergate. Being a student myself and having grown up under this administration, I believe that Mr. Wells’ views are not only valid but necessary. I, as a student, feel that the people who have grown up with this administration need to have their views heard.

Mr. Wells is an excellent writer, and I feel that this letter should be printed in THE ARCHWAY.

Sincerely,

Compound Hunting Bow
Legal in Rhode Island

This letter is from the Editor-in-Chief, who is responsible for the overall content and tone of the publication. The letter discusses the importance of giving students a voice in the classroom and the administration, and how this can be achieved through signature on letters to the editor. The letter also touches on the topic of compound hunting bows being legal in Rhode Island, with an explanation of how they provide greater accuracy and how they are being used in the states and countries where they are legal. The letter ends with a clarification of the Department’s position on archery hunting season on September 29.
October Highlights As Varied As Fall Foliage

State House, Providence, R.I.

— October in Rhode Island gives double enjoyment to the “Ocean State” during the fall foliage vistas and exciting events.

The United States Navy’s 199th Birthday will be marked with a USN Birthday Ball at the Veterans Memorial Auditorium, October 13, on board the H.M.S. Rose, Newport Harbor. The Rose is a U.S. Navy frigate whose harassment of Rhode Island shipping during the state’s colonial era led to the establishment of the Continental Navy.

The 200-year-old Kentish Guards’ Annual Meeting in whose ranks Generals Nathaniel Greene and James Mitchell Varnum both served as members, includes similar units in colonial uniform for its anniversary parade and review, October 19, East Greenwich.

The North Kingstown Friars Homecoming celebration concludes with a Veterans Day Parade and planting of a time capsule, October 28.

From the lively, vibrant best of Autumn foliage and the Queen of the Sea, we’ll see marurka and the state polonaise, colorfully performed by Polish dancers representing all four quadrants of their homeland while Skagit, a Pacific Northwest coast native, appears in Providence, October 26, at the Veteran’s Memorial Auditorium, sponsored by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, October 28, and the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, October 19, will also be at that location.

Sunday Architectural Walking Tours

In a laid back historic tour from pre-Revolution to Victorian era will start at 10 a.m., Saturday, October 29, at School of Design, 224 Benefit Street, Providence, at 2:00 p.m., October 13, 17, 27 and November 10 and 24.

New England’s leading Holstein breeders will send 40 of their finest to the Newport International Dairy Show for a morning auction, October 26, Goat Island. The cattle will be on exhibit Saturday through Monday and coincides with the New England Holstein-Friesian Association’s 1993 Convention.

The Newport County Pumpkin and Squash Contest, October 12-13, will be held at the Eastern Avenue Elementary School, Portsmout, Newport.

October horse shows include the Rhode Island Farm Show, October 7-9, Quick, R.I., and the Riwans Charity Show, October 10-20, Cumberland.

Columbus Day weekend, October 12-14, features the Delilah Art Fair, October 13, in Wayland Green, North Stratford. The Umbrella Factory, Charlestown, will exhibit folk art, and the Wind River Crafters will sell their wares during a walk-in show.

The American Association of University Women’s 31st annual four-day book sale opens October 12-15, at 9 a.m. at 224 Benefit Street, Providence.

On the sporting scene is the Eastern Surfing Association Northeast Invitational Meet, October 12-14, sponsored by the Narragansett Pier Surfing Association, Narragansett Pier, Narragansett Bay. The Atlantic City Open Surfing Classic will be held at the Riptide Surf Club, Ocean City, N.J., October 14-15.

The American Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Day, November 23, will be held in Warren.

Of interest to fishermen are the Rhode Island Stripper Tournament, October 4-14, Narragansett and the Tri-State Bass Invitational Tournament, October 12-15, Charlton, The Rhode Fly Rodders will plan a Stripper Seminar, October 6-9.

Other featured sporting events include the Rhode Island Lighthouse Classic, October 3, Narragansett Bay, H. S. Trifling, Chariho Bay Classic, October 5, and the Rhode Island Bass Fishing Tournaments. The Narragansett National Opens, East Rock, trapshooting at Wamoi Lake Rod and Gun Club, Narragansett, and the more than 100 annual trap, skeet and Fitz Day Tabl Club training clinics at the Narragansett Club Park, Exeter, all on October 6.

Paul J. Carroll

I have been a Christian in the Bryant Arena for some time now, and although still alive and active in the game, playing "Bryant who's got what on who," I've seen that the standards through the board are very high; and no matter how ahead one may be in the game, no one ever wins. To play the game one must have this as your opinion. Of course, it is only after you've started standing up for your convictions that you realize what you've involved in is no game. The players in the game are inseparable at all times, and at all times are under the watch of Dr. Exrats, Dr. Fullerton, Kevin McGarry, Mr. McAlloon, Joan Fris, Mr. Scotti, Al Sherman, and others. It's that kind of game.

Bryant is in the late stages of the game and the battlefield is strewn with the ragged shadows of what were once people, members of the Bryant Contingent, lost in their ambition for black and white in this part. The components are shifting and unstable, always varying for a better position, whether it be for bargaining or playing the game. Reviewing Bryant's perennial conflict, I see the Faculty fighting the Administrators as the Contingent, as the students fighting with each other. Why all this instability? Because no one wants to lose the game. All right, so much for fun-and-games. Bryant is separated from itself from within, and all of us are contributing to it. I feel that the time has come for all to do more than a little soul searching and bailing. All of us should think back to our first day at Bryant and recall what our objectives and reasons for coming here were. I hope no one forgotten them. If you look hard enough, you'll find them. Their number is probably worn; but old beliefs, hopes, and aspirations can be revived and made meaningful again.

Each of the groups at the College—Students, Faculty, and Administration have goals and desires. In an effort to reach these goals, we have grabbed each other by the throat and said, "All right, if you don't give us what we want, we'll break you!" While we are all choking each other. For all the bitching and bollering that has gone on, we have it so that we can't do anything with each other. If anything, we have made Bryant a Menagerie of Misanthropes, too paranoid to smile for fear of not appearing strong—and if you want to play the game, you've got to smile.

While talking to an employee of the College the other day, he said to me, "I feel like I've been warned not to be trusted." This statement, although not shocking, was the gun proof to me that something must be very wrong here if I, a singular person, can demand so much. It needs a higher-up to say that. There is evidence to me that our objectives are very out of alignment. Instead of doing constructive things, we're draining our resources by fighting each other. We are not putting our energy into "non-controversial" situations and hating each other; but that's what you're here for. Bryant College is not here for you to have your ego trip in!

I am not in total agreement with Dr. Exrats and his gang. I'm disappointed in the Faculty, I'm disappointed with the students. And, most of all, I'm very disappointed with myself. I am party to this ugly mess we have going on. We are all guilty: either through participation or non-participation.

I am not just chopping the Administration for being boor boys, I'm trying of helping people when they don't have the guts or desire to help themselves. And I'm tired of reprimanding students for vandalism. Most of all, I am tired of every one of us smothering each other.

Bryant is in doubt on its present course. We must resolve our differences—if not in friendship, then in respect and trust; Our problem has been one of communication—there is none. We don't listen to each other because we only will hear what we want and edit all the rest.

Please don't read this without thinking of what I have said to you. Don't put the paper down until you've read the whole piece. The whole piece.

If you think the game can be won, go ahead—play it; but I'd rather not play it, for the reasons: we've been warned not to be trusted. We've been warned not to be trusted.

Sexuality & Personality Responsibility

by Dr. Gaytha Langlois

Much is said today about a women's "right to control her own body," but I often question whether we lose sight of the concomitant "responsibility" to maintain reproductive health. Although good health is widely promoted as a result of consuming health foods, performing outdoor exercise, and avoiding food additives; reproductive health receives little emphasis.

It seems that sexual interactions often escape the careful consideration given to other less controversial activities. A measure of our lack of concern can be seen in the high incidence of gonorrhea and syphilis, viral diseases that are transmitted almost exclusively through sexual contact. Since gonorrhea and syphilis are present in epidemic proportions in many areas of the United States, it is evident that large numbers of people are uninformed or irresponsible about the prevention or cure of these venereal diseases. According to the U.S. Public Health Service statistics, the incidence of gonorrhea and syphilis have continued to rise since 1970; and these statistics account only for reported cases of the diseases.

The large numbers of unwanted pregnancies, including those that are terminated by abortion, also attest to the casual manner in which we view sexual interactions. Yet, unwanted pregnancies can result in a variety of psychological and social complications. Lastly, the high levels of unwanted and abortion can conceal the unwillingness of women to have routine gynecological examinations or even, in many cases, yearly physical exams.

Why do these situations exist in today's "civilized society?" There are at least three underlying reasons: lack of information about reproductive processes and the reproductive health, embarrassment about dealing with such issues, and the inability of the individual to deal with sexual and reproductive concerns. As Long as women are denied the freedom to make the best use of the resources, lack of information, is unthinkable in the midst of today's knowledge and education. Planned Parenthood, along with other public service agencies, provides extensive information packages and assorted clinical and referral services which could help to assuage the ignorance that abounds in this subject area. The concerned woman can easily use hospital clinics or other medical facilities as a means of obtaining a Pap Test for uterine cancer, a gynecological examination, treatment of venereal disease, or care during pregnancy.

Frequently, embarrassment about sexual activities reflects societal attitudes taught by parents, siblings and peers. Often a woman is unwilling to discuss birth control with a sexual partner; choosing rather to use no control measure. Other women are embarrassed to have a gynecological exam, or to seek medication for the treatment of syphilis or gonorrhea.

Underlying the preceding reasons may be a basic inability to deal with one's sexuality. The woman of today must view herself as a whole person, capable of rational decision making, even in the area of sexual behavior. Rather than assuming that the male is the dominant force in every sexual interaction, a woman should feel confident about helping to determine when, where and with whom to engage in sexual relationship should be pursued, and what form of birth control is most desirable if sexual intercourse is being carried out. In short, a woman has a responsibility to develop a rational approach toward sexual decisions, to plan ahead for the likelihood of her sexual activity and the need for birth control, and to continually seek to better understand her own sexual identity.

Respectfully,

Madame Leora

Theta Volleys On!

With the beginning of the volleyball season came three losses for Theta. This year Theta has an A and a B team, both full of spirit and determination.

The A team played Free Spirit on Monday night, and after rounds the game was over. But the Red and White never died. On Tuesday evening the B team met SIX-A head on, and after two minutes Theta accepted defeat. SIX played great, of course, and Theta’s own team showed their enthusiasm and good nature.

At 9:00 p.m. that same night Theta’s A team was beaten by Our Gang in a three match series. It was one to one, but the Red and White just wasn’t tough enough as they met defeat once again – but always with a smile and hearty congratulations for the winning opponent.

Not all good things start off good, as Theta proved last year, but with the great coaching of Larry “Crow” Kreamer and John “J.J.” Millman it should end in an outstanding success.

Again this year the Red and White are out to win what they can and have a good time. After all, it’s only a game!

SIB

SIB opened their volleyball season Monday night. The B team played with determination against the Fruitbites, but lost. We are hoping for better luck in our future games.

SIB’s annual Smoker will be held on Tuesday, October 15. All those interested are invited. SIB wishes you a having a Happy Hour this Friday because of the September Fest. We hope you will support SIB on September 15th and hope to see all those interested at our next Happy Hour.

Beta Sigma Omicron

After an exciting summer of socializing and fundraising, our sisters are going full into the rushing season. We are in the midst of planning our smoker, deep-over, spaghetti dinner and on-campus happy hours.

Last Saturday night BSQ held their first Alumni Banquet at the Providence Hall Inn. Our alumni showed great interest in the success of the banquet; hopefully, it will become a yearly event.

Phi Sigma Nu

Phi Sigma Nu returned this year with 31 active brothers. We started our football season last Sunday with a 2-0 victory. The game was a hard fought defensive battle. Standouts were Buzz Waltman, Frank Carrigan, and Frank Spadamanita.

Phi Sig’s brothers, as in past years, are involved in many aspects of Bryant College life. The brothers held their annual summerfest in Fairfield this year, late in August. There was much partying and a good time was had by all.

We are looking forward to a successful year in athletic, social, and community activities.

Phi Ep Football

Phi-Ep started off its season in football with a dramatic win over Delta Sig. Both teams battled through a scoreless first half. Delta Sig carried the ball to Phi-Ep’syard line. Unable to score on the first two downs, Delta Sig’s quarterback threw a pass across the center, but Dave Plante, our middle linebacker, picked the pass off and carried it out to the 10 yard line. Plante, again playing quarterback, completed a pass to Greg Hoefst and it brought the ball to Delta Sig’s 20 yard line. Phi-Ep couldn’t manage to score and it ended the first half.

The ball was back and forth in the second half with a few key interceptions by Dave Plante, Digger Lawrence, and Al Hyatt. The next succession of plays lead to Phi-Ep’s score. Plante intercepted his second pass on our own 10 yard line. He then threw a 30 yard pass to Whitey Keane, with less than a minute left. A pass interference call brought our ball up to Delta Sig’s 15 yard line. With only 10 seconds left Digger Lawrence kicked a field goal and it ended the game. Delta Sig 0, Phi-Ep 3.

Phi-Ep has been busy off the field too. After having two successful parties, our third Saturday night party is coming this weekend. This one will be special, as Whitey Sowers will be sold for 20 cents. So come up and see us on the top of Dorm 2.

On October 17, We will hold our annual Smoker. This momentous gathering will be open to all freshmen and independent students. Those who plan to join us should meet in room 386 at 7:30 p.m. Don’t Miss It!

Theta Wedding Bells

Wedding bells are ringing in the two Theta suites of Dorm 6 this year. The sisters of Sigma Lambda Theta would like to extend a sincere congratulations to two of their sisters – Denise Mae Hembach, who got engaged in September, and Marcy B. Galinski, who got engaged on August 17. We wish both much happiness and love in the future and always.

Congratulations again! Love, Your Sisters always, Patty, Cheryl, Pamie, Laurie, Frenchie, Donna, Jackie, and Linda

Tau Epsilon Phi

Now that everyone is getting back into the swing of schoo, we are also getting involved in extracurricular activities.

Freshmen Festivities are being held the week of September 29, so in order to cooperate with our fellow Greeks our smoker has been changed to Tuesday, October 6, at a date we hope you won’t forget. Our smoker this year will have a different theme. We would like to extend an invitation to all independents, both guys and girls, to join us at 9:00 p.m. in the student lounge on October 8, for an evening of fun and a chance to get acquainted with one another.

There will also be a football game that evening where we are playing against one another. We hope to see you there.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE—ON CAMPUS

Listed below is the schedule of tentative graduate courses for the 1975 Spring Semester and the two Summer Sessions. This is the schedule that was programmed in our current 1974-75 two-year plan. It was also included in the Fall Semester registration announcement.

We are listing it here so that graduate students can use it as a guide in planning their individual programs for the remainder of the academic year. Please note that it may be subject to some changes.

Food, Glorious Food!

by Velerie Breuschman

$220 will buy approximately 18 full-course dinners at fancy Howard Johnson or approximately 139 meals of Quarter Pounders, French Fries and Cokes at MacDonalds. Here, at Bryant College those people with meal plans receive an unlimited breakfast, lunch and dinner Mondays through Friday and brunch and dinner Saturdays and Sundays. But, at a fancy Howard Johnson or a MacDonalds there are not long waiting lines just to get in the door, as at Bryant. Absolutely right. The reason is because those organizations employ people who are proficient enough to consider a growing population and the need to expand in their building plans. On the other hand, Bryant College provides you with a cafeteria designed to hold 900 people and is now forced to juggle their trays to accumulate 1,840. At the end of last year 1,866 full time students used the cafeteria, this year there has been a 23.6% increase.

The cafeteria is trying hard to, if not overcome this handicap, at least work well with the limitations. The process is really quite rapid, between 12:00 and 12:30 approximately 640 people enter the cafeteria at once; 21 people enter a minute and with the two lines it allows 10 people to be served a minute. Breaking it down even further, approximately one person is served every 6.6 seconds! Hot breakfast was recently reduced an hour. The reason behind this stems from the initial problem of too many people. The cafeteria staff needed more time between breakfast and lunch to clean up and prepare the food. Comparison is not always a valid argument, but just for the record; RIC only serves breakfast five days a week from days a week.

V.A. benefits $0; preregister. Preregistration is the basis for preparing certificates of enrollment.

Evening school calendars are available in the evening school office. All students including day students, should obtain a copy. There are some differences between the day calendar and the evening calendar.

The Coffee House

by Rita Baner

Whatever happened to Bryant College's Coffee House? The Coffee House was closed last semester because, structurally, it does not meet safety standards. Because of this, The Coffee House, which was originally the Mowry Barn, cannot be insured. Hence, no one is permitted to use it.

Some of the building's faults include insufficient fire exits and poor electrical wiring. Before the Coffee House can be reopened, a stairway leading to unsafe lofts must be removed, ventilation must be improved upon, and the lavatories must be renovated. Estimate figures for renovating the Coffee House have not yet been completed, although they are presently being investigated.

The Coffee House was used in the past by Bryant College students as a meeting place. It was also a recreation facility where Rock Groups occasionally performed.

Paul Carroll, Chairman of the Student Senate Coffee House Committee, has stated that the Coffee House needs support from students if it is ever to be successful. Anyone interested in helping reopen it, can contact Paul at THE ARCHWAY Office, or by calling 232-0116.

Civilisation Film Series

Mr. Albert J. McAloon, President of the Bryant Faculty Federation, announces that through a cooperative effort of Dr. Lowell Smith; the Student Senate; the Federation; and Librarian, John Hamson, trustee of the Greenville Public Library; the distinguished film series entitled "Civilisation" will be offered free to Bryant students and the public.

Each film is 50 minutes long, narrated by Sir Kenneth Clarke, an outstanding art critic with a superb sense of humor (proportion).

The series will begin on Thursday, October 3, 1974, continuing through Thursday, November 14, 1974. Each film will be shown twice each Thursday at 3:15 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. in Room 386.

These films are so rich in content that they lend themselves to a variety of uses—from sheer viewing pleasure to a teaching agency for all students, teachers, administrators, office staff and general public.

MAY ALWAYS DO FOR OTHERS

Sometimes I overhear conversations. Almost unconsciously I pick up a remark that is being discussed. I ask myself the question: What is more important? The ego-identity of the people speaking, or the issue? In some cases the issue is the same. In other cases, the issue (especially in government or political areas) is far larger than the ego involved. It appears to me that some people would rather carve their names in granite rather than remove rocks from a stream. This analogy of people's basic motives in life may be helpful to you in the future. The next time you listen to a "political" speech or conversation, ask yourself if the words used tend to paint a picture of a super-person whose quest for identity has led to bigger images of himself. You may discover that if the person is making use of the human energies he/she may have to the greater freedom of higher fellow.

"May you always do for others-- and let them do for you...." Bob Dylan

SENATE NEWS
by Anne-Marie Vigneau

After the acceptance of last week's minules, Senator Kervin informed the Senators that the allocation agreement was not yet realized but it was being worked on. He also reported that Dr. Evarts had a meeting with the campus last week's issue of THE ARCHWAY. Dr. Evarts indicated a great lack of communication between students and administrators. Howard Lamont, Vice President of the Senate, reminded all Senators to see the teacher assigned to them in the same program. He asked that Robert's Rules of Order, a copy of which had been distributed to all senators in their mailboxes, be followed at the meeting. Alleged proposals and motions be written out and given to Margaret French, Executive Secretary of the Senate. She in turn read off a list of new office procedures and said copies would be distributed to senators during the week.

Mike Hammer, Speaker of the Council, asked for written reports from Committee heads on the 15th of each month. He also requested that he be notified of committee meeting times.

A sociology report was believed to have been approved. Administration and October 21 and 22 were suggested as likely dates for it to be held.

Jack Singleton announced that "Sho No No," the "Engles," and "Foco" were the winners of the concert poll and that they will try to get one of the three groups for this semester. He asked for Student Senate opinion on having concerts on week nights, but the Senators voiced the opinion that weekends would be better.

After some discussion on the subject of Senate mailboxes, Mike Hammer made a motion that only people associated with the student government at Bryant College be allowed mailboxes in the Senate Office. The motion was seconded and unanimously passed.

Rich McGrath, Senior Senator, brought up the idea that money made from levied dorm fines be donated to worthy causes, such as drug abuse centers and freemen relief funds in the name of Bryant College. He made a motion that the Senate support such an idea and it was unanimously passed.

Nancy Inglis spoke to the Senate on behalf of the Ledger and asked for a loan of $1,300 to enable the staff to sign a new contract for spring delivery, as opposed to the fall delivery now promised. The money would be repaid as soon as the income from advertisements built up to the needed amount. Mike Hammer made a motion that the Senate lend the Ledger the money until advertisements come in and it was passed 13 for, zero against, and one abstention.

Dave Knoblock announced that plans for Club Day were advancing smoothly and that it would be held in the Rotunda on Wednesday, September 25, from 12 to 5 p.m.

Other business brought up for the Senate's attention was the idea of having an FM receiver installed in the dining hall for student enjoyment. Mike Hammer proposed that the matter be brought to the Buildings and Grounds Committee for investigation. The motion passed 12 for, one against, and one abstention.

Fat Frazier, Sophomore Senator, asked that anyone interested in working on the Food Committee please get in touch with him. The Committee is planning another food survey this year.

Dan Landerlin asked if the Senate would be willing to co-sponsor a 13-week film series entitled "Civilization" with Mr. MacArthur. Senator Kervin's unanimous support was given. The possibility of having concerts sponsored by outside groups was started but Landerlin's motion was brought up and Dan Landerlin made a motion to table the motion passed unanimously. Dan Landerlin then informed the Senate that he had received a constitution for the new Karate Club from Fred Leontovich and was brought up for consideration at a later time.

Bryant Blanks Roger Williams & Barrington

by Lawrence B. Selvin

The Bryant Soccer Team, led by Howie Schreiber, Damien Ziruk, and Mark Shoham, easily defeated Roger Williams 4.0 in the Indians' home opener. Bryant is now 2.0 after last Monday's second shutout victory in a row. The decisive loss left the Hawks of Bristol, Rhode Island, scoreless in two games this year, Roger Williams allowed 15 goals.

Coach Guyz inserted his usual starting lineup: Howie Schreiber, Ziruk, Loostoce on the line; Eaton, Arps, Lewis, at halfbacks, and Slepowski, Texel, O'Brien at fullbacks. Goalie John Feeley recorded his third career shutout.

Howie Schreiber initiated the scoring at the 9 minute mark when he intercepted a pass and quickly shot into the net. For the last 20 minutes of the game, Bryant's Coach Gerry Guyz substituted all his available field players which included: Frenzenus; Bill Davis, Lenny Jay, Mike Kelley, Ben Ferreira, Guru Schwaib, Bob Tillman, Sophomores, Pete Dumas, Arnie Silva, Howie Widmann; and Juniors, Dale Speicher and Kurt Nyman.

Bryant totaled 36 shots on goal to Roger Williams mere 7. Hawk bettmander Fran Masterbone. Silva, Howie Widmann; and Juniors, Dale Speicher and Kurt Nyman.

On Wednesday, September 23, Bryant shut out the Barrington Warriors 2.0 in Barrington. The victory extended this year's Indian streak of not permitting a goal in the three games. The shutout was goalie Feeley's fourth whitewashing of his career and put Mark Shoham, and for part of their end game play utilized Arnie Silva and Mike Kelley. The standard eleven starters played an excellent team game as they faced what proved to be the stiffest competition of the season on the 120 by 75 yard field.

Kevin Homan knocked the first goal after 20 minutes of action. Ziruk assisted on a beautifully executed play for his sixth assist of the year. Also in the first half, Howie Schreiber knocked home his third goal in two games on a perfectly timed pass play with 35 minutes expiring. Kevin Homan established the opportunity for Schreiber by drawing out the goalie, Greg Kubis. Mark Shoham and Kevin Homan led Bryant with five shots on goal. John Feeley saved 10 goals. Greg Kubis' 8. Barrington edged Bryant in total shots on goal, 17 to 13.

Coach Guyz chose the following two players for his weekly Players of the Week. Of course, Howie Schreiber was selected for his hustle and scoring feat. Ziruk was honored for his past week; and Guyz' Offense defense for consistency at the goal and GPA leadership. For their leadership and flawless play was John Feeley. Ziruk will play three games in the next week. On Saturday the Indians tangle with Roger Williams at 2:00 p.m., play host to arch rival Rhode Island College at 5:00 p.m., and wind up the busy week at home on Wednesday, October 2 at 3:30 p.m.

Karate Club Lessons a Big Success

On Monday, September 16, the Bryant College Karate Club began its new season with an impressive demonstration in the rotunda. That afternoon official classes sponsored by the club began. A large turn-out of students, male and female, eager to learn martial arts gathered in the exercise room on the second floor of the gym.

The club sponsors the karate classes on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. Classes are on a continuous basis which enables new students to participate in the instructions throughout the semester. Mr. Nick Rutt, first degree black belt is the chief instructor.

For women who wish a separate class, the club sponsors a women's self-defense class on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. The sessions for the women's classes are Al Marzuci and John Mitter. The women's class is also on a continuous basis.

For the students who prefer attending an evening class, on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., all classes will be held in the exercise room on the second floor of the gym.

The Bryant College Karate Club has grown each year. They strive to bring the knowledge of the martial arts to all interested students. The Club officers are: Chuck Bisio, President; John Mitter, Vice President; Steve (Stoney) Hughes, Secretary; and Neil Dolan, Treasurer. All interested students are welcome to attend the gym and observe class and sign up.
