McGarry Submits Proposal to Evarts, Fullerton, & Scott

The following proposal was submitted by Kevin McGarry, President of the Student Senate, to Dr. Harry Evarts, President of Bryant College; Dr. Barry Fullerton, President of Student Affairs; and Mr. Thomas Sc售卖, Vice President for Business Affairs, for their consideration. Comments from the three administrative officers are welcome. We see those that have to be satisfied as follows:

PROPOSAL

BACKGROUND

As a result of the matters that have been at hand, the Student Senate is at this time considering logical alternatives to the problems that would satisfy student demands. We see those that have to be satisfied as follows:

1. The Board of Trustees (BOT) is the law that approved the Student Senate viewpoint. As a result it shall use the viewpoints of the BOT and give such viewpoints the decision-making latitude that the BOT deems necessary.

2. The Student Senate (SS) is the board of directors that is responsible for the approval of the Student Senate viewpoint. As a result it shall use the viewpoints of the SS in the creation of its viewpoint and give such viewpoints the decision-making latitude that the SS deems necessary.

3. The Student Senate (SS) is the board of directors that is responsible for the approval of the Student Senate viewpoint. As a result it shall use the viewpoints of the SS in the creation of its viewpoint and give such viewpoints the decision-making latitude that the SS deems necessary.

The basic problem that must be solved is as follows:

The Board of Trustees (BOT) appropriates all fees that are assessed and collected by the College. The Student Senate (SS) allocates part of this amount to the Board of Trustees as a result of the code of conduct. Since the BOT is the highest decision-making body of the College, the SS must be satisfied with the viewpoints of the BOT.

Last year, plans were being made for the formation of Bryant College's Resident Student Advisory Group (RSAG). Last year's plans have become this year's realities; and the group will be working toward selection of its members in the early part of next year.

This group, under the direction of the Student Affairs Supervisor, will work in conjunction with the Student Senate. In September, the group will select two resident students and two resident assistants (or two student representatives) from each dorm to represent student views concerning policies that relate to dormitory life. Representing the Student Senate, the group will have two co-chairs who will work with the Committee.

Resident Student Advisory Group

WHEREAS The Student Senate recognizes the need to provide the Student Body with services and activities.

WHEREAS The Student Body expects the Student Senate to provide these services for the students.

WHEREAS The College recognizes the need for the providing of these services on a continuing basis for the students.

WHEREAS The College, by delegation of the Board of Trustees, must have a legal position by which to ensure the providing of these services.

WHEREAS The College recognizes an Incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate as that party which will provide the students with the services and the College the service of this provision on a contract basis. The amount of the contract with the said corporation will be the number of the properties of the student times the activities allocation of $25.30 per student per year.

RATIONAL

The newly incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate will become a separate division from the Student Senate, allowing it to fulfill the obligations of the Board of Trustees on a contractual basis. We do consider the amount of the annual audit of all internal operations on a yearly basis.

The College uses this method for the following services:

1. The Faculty is contracted for a professional education to the students.

2. MBA is contracted to provide the students with the professional dining services.

Each of these parties is party to the contract. The agreement that the College has been at hand to provide the students with a service that is to be provided in consideration for their payment of tuition and room and board charges. Each of the parties is party to the contract to provide the services therein. So each party must agree to the contract.

It is with this that we bring to the Administration our proposal to an Incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate to provide all these services and activities that would be needed in such a contract.

It is with this that we bring to the Administration our proposal to an Incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate to provide all these services and activities that would be needed in such a contract.

It is with this that we bring to the Administration our proposal to an Incorporated Student Service Division of the Student Senate to provide all these services and activities that would be needed in such a contract.

The recent conflict that has come up between the Office of Student Affairs, the Student Senate, and the Greek Letter Council, is due to a conflict that arose from an "ultimatum" handed down from the Student Affairs Office in the Senate concerning a request that all organizations submit a copy of their constitutions to the Office of Student Affairs.

The issues, in the past, the perception and handling of all such material was left up to the Student Senate alone. The Senate seems to feel that this function should be left under their direction, and if they loose control of such matters, they will consequently lose authority over these organizations. The Office of Student Affairs has, therefore, agreed to accept and to commit all constitutions with the understanding that the organizations may edit sections containing confidential clauses. One of the objections to the "ultimatum" expressed by the GLC was that some material contained in their constitutions is to be held strictly confidential per required of national chapters.

The problem of reaching a mutual agreement was not an easy one to solve. In seeking answers to many of the problems related to this matter, the Senate ran across many contradictions from Student Affairs. One administrator stated that his answers varied from meeting to meeting.

The Executive Council of the Student Senate has appointed Rich McGrath as Chairman of the RSAG, and Susan Horn as the Student Senate's Representative. Presentations. Then the moderator will ask some of the questions from accredited members of the news media, who would be allowed to identify themselves.

Each candidate will be limited to two minutes to answer the question addressed directly to him. His opponent will have one minute to reply to the same question. Candidates at the debate will be present and Mr. Richard J. Israel and Mr. Julius C. Michaelson.

The five-minute rebuttal from each candidate will conclude the program. The debate will close with an complimentary to attend. There will be no charge.
From The Editor's Desk

This year, I have given hours of thought and pages of newspaper space to many of the problems that I believe are plaguing Bryant College. I have also received letters by concerned students on this topic. Sometimes the people who write these letters have enough courage to stand behind their convictions to print their names. Other times this is not so. I believe that it is very important to give space in THE ARCHWAY to those members of the Bryant Community who are concerned enough about the College to have their opinions printed. It takes an enormous amount of courage to put one's thoughts down on paper and then have the majority of the Bryant Community sit down and read those thoughts. The writer signs his or her name to them.

In the past, I have allowed letters to the editor to be printed in THE ARCHWAY without signatures. However, I now find it imperative to change this policy. I do not like the idea of people writing letters to me and having them printed in the newspaper without having their names on them. I think that in many cases these people are trying to hide behind the newspaper. That is not fair to THE ARCHWAY or to whatever or whoever is being written about in the letter. People who sign their names to letters to the editor will not be thrown out of school for voicing their opinions. If someone in the student body, on the faculty or administration tries to "get back" at someone for what they have had printed in THE ARCHWAY, let me know. Dr. Fullerton has given his word that if this should ever happen to a student, he will back them up. I am sure that other members of the Administration would feel the same way about this. So, if you are worried about having your name printed on any letters that you send in for publication because of repercussions that may occur, don't. Nothing is going to happen, except that your name will be read and you will feel a little bit of pride in the fact that you had enough guts and believe in your convictions enough to let people know how you feel.

ARCHWAY Criticized

Dear Editor,

Last week I found the letter to the Editor, written by the President, Senator of the College. The President's letter was extremely damaging and causes me, as well as many of the other students at Bryant, to question the sincerity of the writer and the person in the authoritarian position that approved the letter. I feel the students and the surrounding Bryant family deserves an apology.

Sincerely,

Robert Anderson

To the Editor,

...go unread and I believe it was Edmund Burke who said that "All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing." If, because of Watergate, we end up with a so- cialism in which we lose our freedom, I will go in serious trouble.

It is good that a business college should recognize that sound business principles have as much of a place in government service as in private industry. Managing for efficiency, reliance on empirical perspectives, and proper use of technology is sorely needed at all levels of government agencies. The public education systems. The rewards are decent (but not super) salaries, aggravation with systems and procedures that linger from the Dark Ages, elation when good ideas are implemented and work. real renaissance when entire agencies begin to believe that they exist to serve people, and satisfaction from knowing that at least now and then one person can make a difference. The qualifications are education, motivation, integrity, stamina and a respect for people. We don't only look for a few good men. Public service needs good men and women at Bryant and willing to do battle. I hope the students of Bryant College will be mentioned to the public administration program and consider public service as a career.

Yours Truly,

September 29, 7:30-9:30
Sexuality & Personal Responsibility

by Dr. Gaytha Langlois

Much is said today about a women's "right to control her own body," that we lose sight of the concomitant "responsibility" to maintain reproductive health. Although good health is tacitly promised as a result of consuming health foods, performing outdoor exercise, and avoiding food additives; reproductive health receives little emphasis.

It seems that sexual interactions often escape the careful consideration given to other less controversial activities. A measure of our lack of concern can be seen in the high incidence of gonorrhea and syphilis, venereal diseases that are transmitted almost exclusively through sexual contact. Since gonorrhea and syphilis are present in epidemic proportions in many areas of the United States, it is evident that large numbers of people are uninformed or unprepared about the prevention or cure of these venereal diseases. According to the U.S. Public Health Service statistics, the incidence of gonorrhea and syphilis have continued to rise since 1970; and these statistics account only for reported cases of the diseases.

The large number of unwanted pregnancies, including those that are terminated by abortion, also attests to the sexual activity with which we view sexual interactions. Yet, unexpected pregnancies can result in a variety of physical and emotional complications. Lastly, the high levels of unwanted pregnancies can reveal the unwillingness of women to have routine gynecological examinations or even, in many cases, yearly physical exams.

Why do these situations exist in today's "civilized society"? There are at least three underlying reasons—lack of information about reproductive processes and reproductive health, embarrassment about dealing with such issues, and the inability of the individual to deal with sexual behavior in a rational manner. There are no reasons, lack of information, is unthinkable in the midst of today's knowledge explosion. Planned Parenthood, along with other public service agencies, provide extensive information packages and assorted clinical and referral services which could help to assure the ignorance that abounds in this subject area. The concerned woman can easily use hospital clinics or other medical facilities as a means of obtaining a Paps Tast for uterine cancer, a gynecological examination, treatment of venereal disease, or care during pregnancy.

Frequently, embarrassment about sexual activity reflects societal attitudes taught by parents, siblings and peers. Often a woman is unwilling to discuss birth control with a sexual partner, choosing rather to use no control measure. Other women are embarrassed to have a gynecological exam, or to seek medication for the treatment of syphilis or gonorrhea.

Underlying the preceding reasons may be a basic inability to deal with one's sexuality. The woman of today must view herself as a whole person, capable of rational decision making, even in the area of sexual behavior. Rather than assuming that the male is the dominant force in every sexual interaction, a woman should feel confident about helping to determine when, where and how sex will occur. Sexual relationships should be pleasurable, and what form of birth control is most desirable if sexual intercourse is being carried out. In short, a woman has a responsibility to develop a rational approach toward sexual decisions, to plan ahead for the likelihood of sexual activity and the need for birth control, and to constantly seek to better understand her own sexual identity.

In conclusion, the most desirable purpose of sexuality is pleasure. For anyone interested in improving their sexuality, Dr. Evarts and his colleagues have written瘕于《The Science of Human Sexuality》, which, although it may not be sex education in schools, is a very useful and entertaining book on sex.

Theta Volleys On!

With the beginning of the volleyball season came three losses for Theta. This year Theta has an A and a B team, both full of spirit and determination.

The A team played Free Spirit on Monday night, and after rounds the game was over. But the Red and White never died. On Tuesday evening the B team met SIX-A head on, and after two minutes Theta accepted defeat. SIX played great, of course, and Theta's own team showed their enthusiasm and good nature.

At 9:00 p.m. that same night Theta's A team was beaten by Our Gang in a three match series. It was one to one, but the Red and White just wasn't tough enough as they met defeat once again — but always with a smile and hearty congratulations for the winning opponent.

Not all good things start off good, as Theta proved last year, but with the great coaching of Larry "Crow" Kreinert and John "J.J." Millman it should end in an outstanding success.

Again this year the Red and White are out to win what they can and have a good time. After all, it's only a game!

SIB

SIB opened their volleyball season this Monday night. Our team played with determination against the Fruitflies, but lost. We are hoping for better luck in our future games.

SIB's annual Smoker will be held on Tuesday, October 15. All those interested are invited. SIB will have a Happy Hour this Friday because of the September Fest. We hope you will support our SIB and have a good time.

Beta Sigma Omicron

After an exciting summer of socializing and fundraising, our sisters are going full-force into the rushing season. We are in the midst of planning our Smoker, sleep-over, spaghetti dinner and on-campus happy hours.

Last Saturday night BS0 held their first Alumni Banquet at the Providence Holiday Inn. Our alumni showed great interest in the success of the banquet; hopefully, it will become a yearly event.

Phi Sigma Nu

Phi Sigma Nu returned this year with 31 active brothers. We started our football season last Sunday with a 2-0 victory. The game was a hard fought defensive battle. Standouts were Buzz Waltman, Frank Carrigan, and Frank Speckus.

Phi Sig's brothers, as in past years, are involved in many aspects of Bryant College life. The brothers held their annual summerfest in Fairfield this year, late in August. There was much partying and a good time was had by all.

We are looking forward to a successful year in athletic, social, and community activities.

Phi-Ep Football

Phi-Ep started off its season in football with a dramatic win over Delta Sig. Both teams battled through a scoreless first half. Delta Sig carried the ball to Phi-Ep's yard line. Unable to score on the first few downs, Delta Sig's quarterback threw a pass across the center, but Dave Plante, our middle linebacker, picked the pass off and carried it out to the 10 yard line. Plante, again playing quarterback, completed a pass to Greg Hooft and it brought the ball to Delta Sig's 20 yard line. Phi-Ep couldn't manage a score and it ended the first half.

The ball was back and forth in the second half with a few key interceptions by Dave Plante, Digger Lawrence, and Al Hyatt. The next succession of plays led to Phi-Ep's score. Plante intercepted his second pass on our own 10 yard line. He then threw a 30 yard pass to Whitley Keane, with less than a minute left. A pass interference call brought our ball up to Delta Sig's 15 yard line. With only 10 seconds left Digger Lawrence kicked a field goal and it ended the game. Delta Sig 0, Phi-Ep 3.

Phi-Ep has been busy off the field too. After having two successful parties, our third Saturday night party is coming this weekend. This one will be special, as Whitley Soures will be sold for 20 cents. So come up and see us on the top of Dorm 2.

On October 17, We will hold our annual Smoker. This momentous gathering will be open to all freshman and independent students. Those who plan to join us should meet in room 306 at 7:30 p.m. Don't Miss It!

Food, Glorious Food!

by Velerie Brauchman

$220 will buy approximately 18 full-course dinners at fancy Howard Johnson or approximately 129 meals of Quarter Pounders, French Fries and Cokes at MacDonalds. Here, at Bryant College those people with meal plans receive an unlimited breakfast, lunch and dinner Mondays through Friday and brunch and dinner Saturdays and Sundays. But, at a fancy Howard Johnson or a MacDonalds there are not long waiting lines just to get in the door, as at Bryant, Absolutely right. The reason is because those organizations employ people who are forgetful enough to consider a growing population and the need to expand in their building plans. On the other hand, Bryant College provides you with a cafeteria designed to hold 900 people and is now forced to peggo their trays to accommodate 1,840. At the end of last year 1,866 full time students used the cafeteria, this year there has been a 23.4% increase.

The cafeteria is trying hard to overcome this handicap, at least work well with what they have. The process is quite rapid, between 12:00 and 12:30 approximately 640 people enter the cafeteria at once; 21 people enter a minute and with the two lines it allows 10 people to be served a minute. Breaking it down even further, approximately one person is served every 6.6 seconds. Hot breakfast was recently reduced an hour. The reason behind this stems from the initial problem of too many people. The cafeteria staff needed more time between breakfast and lunch to clean up and prepare the food. Comparison is not a valid argument, but just for the record; RIC only serves breakfast five days a week from days a week from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m., Providence College serves hot breakfast from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m., and continental until ten, and URI serves breakfast from 7:00 to 8:00 a.m.

The cafeteria is planning a few treats such as Italian Night in October, holiday meals and periodic steak nights through-out the year. John Ledwic is the man to see if you care to make a suggestion, but if you want to complain , see the administration or go to church and tell it to the Lord.

The Coffee House

by Rita Danner

Whatever happened to Bryant College's Coffee House? The Coffee House was closed last semester because, structurally, it does not meet safety standards. Because of this, The Coffee House, which was originally the Mowry Barn, cannot be insured. Hence, no one is permitted to use it.

Some of the building's faults include insufficient fire exits and poor electrical wiring. Before the Coffee House can be reopened, a stairway leading to unsafe loft must be removed, ventilation must be improved upon, and the lavatories must be renovated. Estimate figures for renovating the Coffee House have not yet been completed, although they are presently being investigated.

The Coffee House was used in the past by Bryant College students as a meeting place. It was also a recreation facility where Rock Groups occasionally performed.

Paul Carroll, Chairman of the Student Senate Coffee House Committee, has stated that the Coffee House needs support from students if it is ever to be successful. Anyone interested in helping reopen it, can contact Paul at THE ARCHWAY Office, or by calling 232-0316.

MAY ALWAYS DO FOR OTHERS

Sometimes I overhear conversations. Almost unconsciously I pick up sentences that is being discussed. I ask myself the question: What is more important? The ego-identity of the people speaking, or the issue? In some cases the issue is the same. In other cases (issue especially in government or political areas) is far larger than the ego involved. It appears to me that some people would rather care the issue to remove the ego involved. This analogy of people's basic motives in life may be helpful to you in the future. The next time you listen to a "political" speech or conversation, ask yourself if the words used tend to paint a picture of a super-person whose quest for identity has led to bigger images of himself. You may realize yourself if the person isibaba the human energies he/she may have to the greater freedom of higher beings.

Bryant totally shot 36 times on goal to Roger Williams mere 7. Hawk’s bettman, Fran Masterbone, saved 17 to John Feeley’s 5.

On Wednesday, September 25, Bryant shut out the Barrington Warrior’s 2-0 in Barrington. The victory extended this year’s Indian streak of not permitting a goal in the three games. The shutout was goat Feeley’s fourth whitewashing of his career. He outshot Mark Shohan, and for part of the new season game play utilized Arnie Silva and Mike Kelley. The standard eleven starters played an excellent team game as they faced what proved to be the stiffest competition of the season on the 120 by 75 yard field.

Kevin Homan knocked the first goal after 20 minutes of action. Ziruk assisted on a beautifully executed play for his sixth assist of the year. Also in the first half, Howie Schreiber knocked home his third goal in two games on a perfectly timed pass play with 35 minutes expired. Kevin Homan established the opportunity for Schreiber by drawing out the goalie, Greg Kubis.
