Priscilla Angelo, "because the responsibilities of a full trustee for 1995. 1995 Graduate to Serve on Board of Trustees

This is a very exciting class. This alumni from Trustee Liaison Priscilla Angelo, "because no other college has been discovered with a similar program." According to Angelo, the recent graduates will be able to provide a fresh perspective to the Board of Trustees because he or she recently left the curriculum and campus life. "This is a very exciting opportunity for Bryant because it provides recent student input to the Board of Trustees," commented Angelo.

According to the Board of Trustees’ proposal, the addition of a recent graduate is part of an increased effort to expand the number of alumni serving as members of the College’s council, including the Board of Trustees. The increase in alumni trustees has been substantial, moving from representation of 22 percent of the board in 1990 to 41 percent by the beginning of the next academic year. In its’ proposal, the Board of Trustees stressed the importance of adding a recent graduate to the Board because this alumni face can provide the most timely information on the student’s experiences at the College. Student Senate President Rob Fontanella also noted an alumni serving on the board provides students with more of a direct link and bridges the gap between students and the Board of Trustees. "This is monumental in the Trustee world, as well as a stepping stone for higher education," said Fontanella.

Fontanella, along with fellow Senate Trustee Task Force members Sean Conboy, Joshua Hamel and Eric Bertrand ’94 initiated the proposal in January and presented it to the Board of Trustees for review. The Task Force members collected statistical data on other colleges and universities similar in size, geographic location and competitive business program. They looked at what kind of representation students had on college council and how students were chosen for service. According to Fontanella, the time was ripe for the proposal. "The Board of Trustees has been becoming more accepting of input, opinion and contact from students. The proposal was a natural milestone to take."

The search for an alumnus trustee will begin in February with requests for nominations from the Bryant Community. All graduate and undergraduate students from the class of 1995 are eligible. Candidates must be in good academic and disciplinary standing, have demonstrated leadership skills and achievements as well as a commitment to community service and Bryant itself.

The nomination process will begin in February of each year when the Board of Trustees will invite nominations of senior students. Self-nominations as well as peer nominations are welcomed.

The nominee must prepare a written statement describing their Bryant experience and why they wish to serve as a trustee.

The first recent alum will be elected at the May 1995 meeting of the Board of Trustees for a maximum one three-year term beginning August 1, 1995.

Trustees selected serve for three years, but may be considered for additional trustee service in the future. A minimum of one year must elapse before they can be eligible for reconsideration by the Nominating Committee. If re-elected, the alumni may serve for a maximum of two additional terms or six years.

The Board of Trustees wants to ensure the success of the program, said Angelo, and plans to support the alumni in any way possible. For example, they plan on encouraging employers of the alumni, who may be reluctant to let their new employee leave work, to encourage Board of Trustees duties and activities.

Remembering John DeShaw

President William E. Trueheart embraces John DeShaw Sr., father of the late John DeShaw, at yesterday’s dedication of a park bench in his son’s memory. The bench faces the pond, and is near the Archway. DeShaw, a star high school hockey player from Framingham, Massachusetts, was a member of the Bryant hockey team, and a gifted musician. DeShaw died last March as a result of an accidental fall in the Hall 15 stairwell.

The Best of The Best

For the fifth consecutive year, Bryant College has been named one of the best business specialty schools in the country in the annual ranking of America’s best colleges by U.S. News & World Report. These rankings which are listed below, were published in the September 26 edition.

“We are delighted to be recognized for the fifth consecutive year as one of the nation’s best educational institutions,” said President William E. Trueheart. “It is deeply gratifying to know that our peers hold Bryant’s academic programs in such high esteem. That is the finest affirmation of our commitment to excellence.”

Community Service: The Choice of a New Generation

One year ago, President Clinton signed into law a new national service program to provide hands on community-based service to "meet the nation's urgent education, public safety, human and environmental needs." Clinton signed into law this national service program with the same pen John F. Kennedy used to create the Peace Corps over thirty years ago.

Today, there is an increasing trend among college students to engage in community service. For example, Providence College recently dedicated the Feinstein Institute for Public Service as part of a five million dollar grant.

At the dedication, Alan S. Feinstein said, "Someday the heroes will not be sports figures or celebrities. Rather, they will be people who know that the only thing that matters when we come to the end ... on the road to eternity is what we have done to better the lives of our fellow men."

Here at Bryant this year's theme is Community and Public Service. The Greek community, Resident Assistants and others already engage in many reach-out community service projects. Other individuals and organizations need to consider service projects as well.

College students have a unique opportunity to serve others with their time, knowledge and energy. Why not channel this energy into projects that serve others? Service is rewarding and self-fulfilling. You get the satisfaction of helping alleviate community problems, and, if you're lucky, maybe even helping solve one or two. Also, community service gives you experience you can't get in a classroom — getting things done and working with people is a lot more challenging in the real world than it is on paper.

The Informant Coming Soon

To The Entire Bryant Community:

I am pleased to announce that the 1994-95 student directory, The Informant will be distributed to students, faculty, and staff the week of October 16. I would like to point out that the date for distribution is not irregular. Publication of this directory involves gathering each student campus phone numbers. Due to the fact that the list of phone numbers is not made available until the first week of September, printing cannot begin until we receive all information.

I would also like to point out that all students will receive The Informant at no charge via their residence assistant. However, faculty, staff, and administrators will be required to pay $2.00 per copy. This is largely due to Bryant's lack of willingness to subsidize the publication costs as they have done for the past seven years. If any office or department has not received an Informant order form please contact Farah Sammani at the BRYCUSE house 231-1220 between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m.

Sincerely,
James A. Zabanski

Copbing With Depression

Karinna Pfunah
Archway Staff Writer

When most people think of depression, they envision some lwo who slumped in a corner with worried fire eyes that just can’t motivate themselves to go on after a tragic event to their problem. However, that may not always be the case.

Bryant College will be participating in a National Depression Screening coming up on October 6 in conjunction with counseling services. It is just one part of Mental Awareness Week that was developed by Harvard psychiatrist Dr. Douglas Jacobs. The intention is to raise awareness of depression as an inherited disease and not something that an individual can control.

From 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., in the Bryant Center, students will be able to have a private, ten minute screening in a confidential location that includes an anonymous written screening test later reviewed with a professional to help detect any tendencies in a family history for depression or related diseases. Videos, information tables, speakers and off campus professionals will also be involved in the screening.

This is the first time anything of this nature has been offered at Bryant, and the school was contacted by an outside organization to participate.

The event is to make individuals more aware of this second form of depression," commented Director of Counseling Services Bill Phillips. "Some people don’t get help because they see it as a personal weakness, but this inherited disease should be treated like any other medical problem."

Boulet Induced into URI Athletic Hall of Fame

Karinna Pfunah
Archway Staff Writer

Most students at Bryant know Professor Archie Boulet as their easy going Nutrition teacher or the winning coach of the golf team. But believe it or not, he had a pretty exciting life before coming to Bryant.

Exciting enough in fact to be induced into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame for football and golf. Boulet was the only one of his 1959 graduating class to receive this honor and join the 200 already existing members.

Boulet received a letter from the President of URI informing him of this great honor. "My first reaction was, 'Do I deserve this?'" claimed Boulet.

During his college years, Boulet was on both varsity football and golf, serving as the captain of the golf team his senior year. The banquet for his induction will be held on October 27 and he will again be recognized during half time at the URI football game the following day.

Boulet may not continue with his football activities, but enjoys coaching the golf team as well as playing the sport often.

One Card Update

William Rober
Director of Purchasing

Monday, September 26, the College received the vinyl jackets we intended to use in the production of the One Card. When producing the new card, we noticed it tends to bend in the middle. Thus, we can not activate the vending stripe. Therefore, there will be a delay in issuing the new photo ID's.

I have been in contact with the supplier in an attempt to resolve the problem and will notify the community as soon as the problem is resolved.
A Walk in the Orchard

During this time of year, I enjoy a brisk walk in an apple orchard, experiencing the crisp cool air, bright clear blue skies and apple trees hanging low with ripe fruit. In times past, I would reach out my hand to gather a beautiful, unblemished apple, but when I touch the apple they would have gotten inside and the apple is rotten to the core. A big disappointment! I threw it away. I try once more, risking that it will happen again, but I am hopeful that the next opportunity will bear better fruit. And so it goes, and I savor each delicious bite on my walk in the apple orchard.

Sometime our relationships with others can be compared to my apple story. In our lives we think that we have found the best person by admiring how "cool" a person looks, but in our conversations we realize how shallow their personalities can be. A big disappointment! So, are we going to try again, knowing that we risk another rotten relationship, or nurture the possibility of finding someone who is attractive to us? In our relationship with God, maybe God realizes that we created the orchard, including the worm and the rotten apple, and God has many choices, and we can make decisions that will affect our lives. We can only hope that our decisions are based on clear values and a faith that allows us to make mistakes. So, be safe, take care and God bless!

Summer Orientation 1995 Planning Begins

Timothy P. Lloyd
Assistant Director of Student Activities

Wanted: A few good women and men to serve as the Orientation Leaders for the Summer of 1995.

Now is the time to take action. The planning for the 1995 Summer Orientation program is underway. The first step in the planning process is the selection of the staff of students to serve as the 1995 Orientation Leaders. Applications will be available from October 3 through 21. Interested students can pick up applications in the Office of Student Activities or at the Information Desk in the Bryant Center. Applications should be turned in to the Office of Student Activities by Monday, October 24.

Students who submit applications will be only 3 interview away from joining the 1995 Orientation Staff. If selected, applicants will be invited to participate in the Round 1 interview process. Potential staff members will be evaluated on how well they will be able to work together in a variety of group activities. Successful candidates will move on to the Round 2 interview, where they will be evaluated to see that they are ready for the upcoming activities. The final interview, for those selected, will be an individual basis for the selection committee to meet with each candidate on a more personal level.

"Those students selected can expect to log in about 100 hours of the program," says Tim Lloyd, Assistant Director of Student Activities. Lloyd oversees the training of the Orientation Staff, which will begin in February and last until May. Lloyd added, "The experience of being an Orientation Leader is one that many students have said they would not trade for anything.

What is the Casual Cafe?

Sophanie Dunk
Student Activities Intern

Are you already tired of the same old thing on the weekends? Do you want to find somewhere on campus to talk? You need to look no further. This fall, the Office of Student Activities has established a new venture: "The Casual Cafe." Every Friday and Saturday night the Heritage Room is transformed into a quiet coffeeshop. There are no steep cover charges or over-priced drinks...and you can actually hear what you are saying! Wait...there's more. The coffeeshop has free international coffees, pastries, board games, and light entertainment. Yes, that's right - it is all free.

Deb Pasquarella, Director of Student Activities explains, "In planning for the Fall semester, we looked at what types of alternative programs we could provide for students who may be staying on campus during the weekends. Brainstorming with my student interns, Stephanie Dunk, we came up with the concept of opening up the Heritage Room for all students to be able to hang out, have a cup of coffee, and play a fun board game or two with friends."

The Cafe will be having light entertainment once a month. The Casual Cafe hours are 8-12 p.m. every Friday and Saturday night.

Careers In Marketing

Curious about a career in Marketing? If so, please listen to three alumni talk about their Marketing careers on Monday, October 3 at 3:30 p.m. in the Bryant Center Room 20.

Speakers will be: Michelle Farbanga '92, Circulation Manager, State Line Truck; Colleen Sporgren '92, Sales Person; Marion Merrel Dow, Inc. and Susan Postlock '92, Senior Merchandise Manager, TJ. Maxx.

Each graduate will discuss job responsibilities, necessary skills that their job requires, what to do now to prepare for a career in Marketing and tips on how to launch a successful job search in a challenging job market. This is an excellent opportunity for all students who are interested in marketing careers to explore some excellent career options.

Also, the Career Library in Career Services has several books that would be of interest to Marketing majors who are investigating career options. All books may be signed out over the weekend.

Here are a few suggestions: 100 Best Companies to Sell For (Harbrace), Marketing and Sales Career Directory (Morgen), The 100 Best Companies to Work For in America (Mann/Moskowitz), and America's Fastest Growing Employers (Smith).

All That’s Gold Need Not Glitter

Karen Davis reported in Monday’s Providence Journal (September 26) that the sewage treatment facility on the cyanide levels up to 100 times greater than environmentally safe levels and hundreds of dead fish in the Woonasquatucket River confirmed the contamination.

Although the culprit is unknown, cyanide waste is used to be typical of jewelry or metal plating industries. During my own visit to that same sewage treatment plant last fall, I heard about potential problems with cyanide from a local industry representative. What does the jewelry industry do with cyanide?

One of the very desirable properties of gold is that it is extremely chemically stable: it does not form salts and it does not react (as, for example, it is in the case of silver). It forms complexes with cyanide to prevent oxidation and cyanide complexes with a variety of other elements. Cyanide may be used to remove gold from the metal, which is then precipitated as gold.

Fortunately, in this case cyanide has been found in our waste water, not in our drinking water, so no harm is thought to be at risk. Not to be lucky for the entire trying to get by in the Woonasquatucket. Cyanide is a toxic substance in which cyanide is mixed with gold and cyanide complexes with it. This solution is cyanide.

Cyanide has sometimes been used to extract gold from metal, but in simpler terms, cyanide catalyzes gold into plating on other metals. The cyanide is reduced to its aqua state and the gold is precipitated as gold. This results in a gold/mercury amalgam which is then reduced to gold.

With all the talk about O.J. Simpson's guilt or innocence, here's what some Bryant students thought.

"I'm undecided. At first, I thought it was a set-up and therefore, he was innocent. But now after the DNA testing, I think he might be guilty."
-Michelle Turchetti, '96

"I think O.J. is innocent. There's not enough evidence to prove otherwise."
-Shawn Crowley, '98

"I think he's guilty because of all the evidence against him. Just because he's famous and can afford to pay a lot of money for good lawyers, he shouldn't get away free."
-Ben Gray, '98

"I think he's innocent. If he was guilty, he wouldn't have been so careless."
-Lisa Young, '96

"I think he's definitely guilty, especially after hearing all the 911 phone calls."
-Karen Fairbanks, '98

"We think O.J.'s guilty, but not by himself. There must have been an accomplice."
-Chris Benjamin, '97
-Jeff Waiber, '97

"O.J. is innocent because no murder weapon has been found, no bloody clothes, etc. I think his son did it!"
-Christina Seigler, '98

First of all we would like to welcome everyone back. Hope you all enjoyed your first two weeks here and that you all probably lost, we lost our charter, but we are still strong. Thanks for all the support.
We’d like to begin by thanking our new neighbors for an eventful night and a great game of bumper. Mike and Jay, you definitely mastered the game. Dave, we’re sorry you didn’t have any more problems. We’d also like to welcome our new stumates, Greg, Drew, and Max.
Since we have been back, Mintz and Scudua made new friends in B-1. Tuesday was a special night. Hey Swit! Did you ever find the keys after all the moon dancing? Saturday was another special night. While getting herself knee deep in trouble, Smiffield Police helped in the search. Watch out for those dangerous Co-op Communists and Lefty on their one year anniversary.
Hey Wydle! Did you finally figure out what the "bottom drawer" meant? Mintz and Mintz. The worst part of the night was that we couldn’t think of one question, where is Wyz? We’d also like to thank Beta for finding the Delta Zeta for us Saturday night. We all had fun, Imus and Hatch, we never knew how well we could dance! Thanks to all the brothers for showing us a good time.

Another fall session is upon us here at Bryant College and I am excited about all the special things this fall. The beauty of the falling leaves as we skill on rainy days across the pavement. The knowledge that there is pavement on Route 7 this year. A leisurely hike in the crisp air, a trip to an exotic place, like my parking space.
In all seriousness, it’s great to be back this year. I’d like to thank all those who came to our meeting on Monday and invite anyone else to stop by the office and hang out for a few minutes. An ID at the Info desk will get you the key and your fridge is always open (figuratively).

To start off we’d like to thank all the people who came to our meeting last week, especially Beta for the repeated visits and knocking.
This week we have a newسل in our line. Our line is looking better than last year. Baloo is set with his mouthpiece in place. Look for him to be getting in there. At least now we have a quarterback who isn’t also a starting running back.
Baloo and F-Frump’s room seems to be the place to be because we can’t get anyone to stay away. Ripper didn’t break anything this week and he is still a contender in the cones with the help of Chucky. Magoo is finally realizing the purpose of committee heads, or the lack of purpose. Why is Lefty running the meeting?
Duke learned how to lock the door and Baloo didn’t have to do any emergency laundry tasks. Spanky is also finding new ways to spend his free time. Thanks to J.B. for the time and the heart attack. I’m sure it’s a nice speaker Mike. I just can’t seem to hear it.
This week, the weekly meeting is in now and realizing all Bryant has to offer. There is still an open invitation to all to be a part of Baloo and F-Frump’s committee. Come up to Hall 3, second floor, and Townhouses B-8 and E-1 at any time.
Quote of the Week: "If you want to lose that Eco, look right here."
Tip of the Week: "If I didn’t say it’s cool, it’s cool.

Hi everyone! The first meeting of the History and International Studies Club will be held today, Thursday, September 29, at 6:40 p.m. in the Bryant Center. As we skid on the second year and start thinking about what we will talk about, the Club will be, $10. Come to the meeting and meet the F-board and the Advisor. Also find out what we will be doing this semester. Any questions or comments can be directed to Fred at Box 1242.

HISC
by Rebecca Barker
The History and International Studies Club had a meeting this past Thursday, September 25. It was an informational meeting, where the topic of discussion was going international. "Why do I need to know about the Study Abroad Program?" Three Bryant students, who had recently studied abroad, talked about their experiences.
Students who attended were able to ask questions and receive information on how to become involved in the Study Abroad Program here at Bryant. The meeting proved to be very informative for those students interested in studying in foreign locations.
The first HISC meeting will be held tomorrow, October 3 at 4:00 p.m. in the Bryant Center, room #2A. At this meeting, HISC will be joined by the United Students Organization, ISO, for an ice cream social. The purpose of this meeting is for the two groups to get to know each other. All History and International Studies majors, HISC members, and ISO members are welcome to attend.

Hey, hey, Bryant! What’s Happening? Thanks Beta and Tri Sig and Burgs for stopping by, DZ, thanks for Thursday, your grab your quizes and let’s study. Fall is coming and baloo and f-frump are making great progress. Baloo and F-Frump’s room seems to be the place to be because we can’t get anyone to stay away. Ripper didn’t break anything this week and he is still a contender in the cones with the help of Chucky. Magoo is finally realizing the purpose of committee heads, or the lack of purpose. Next week is Commuter week. Starting Monday, October 3rd, and the first Monday of every month, there will be Coffee, donuts and muffins in the office from 7:30 to about 10:00, so stop by. Events for the week include caricatures, a stereo, a hair cut, a rubber wear party, and more. Look for our signs in the Roman.

Men’s Rugby
by Josh Herron
Welcome back Rugby fans! This past weekend the Men’s Rugby team traveled to Babson College and suffered their first loss of the season. The side, consisting mostly of rookies, played well, despite the score. After the game we hung around with Babson.
Next Update: Not Update. Unfortunately we have no Babson Update, but contact us if you have not stopped eating the food in the dining room, never mind all that nice dining etiquette.
We’re all going to Dallas! Special thanks to Phi Sigma and the Women’s Rugby team for hanging out with us the last two weeks. My apologies to the women’s team (especially the Seniors).
Vinnie, stay away from those marksmen Saturday morning.
The team will be having a few Comfort nights this semester. Till you let us know when they are as soon as I know.
Our next game is this Saturday at 2:00 p.m. against Brandeis. The team would like to have a large hometown to pump us up for the game.
Sorry Bob, not this week.

Debije has all enlightened. She believes in others. "Blonde feet can never be a few that are going and going, and going, and going," she says. "Hope receivers.

Congratulations to the soccer and the new members. The Big Day Ceremony will be today at 9:00 p.m. in the Rotunda. All are invited to attend.

It has been an interesting week in Hall 91, since we have no entertainment and we have been entertaining ourselves. It all started with the town meeting and from then on it was sheer confusion. Mo just keeps going and going and going. Debbie has kept busy with the wedding. Stacey likes to keep us informed about what is going on somewhere, whether we want to know or not. Shannon plays with her guns, Allik keeps things rolling! While Missy delivers the food, Amy P. enlightens us with her deep thoughts (did you know that if there were no birds, the bugs would overpopulate the human race and eat us all?).

Now for some of the top quotes of the week: "Cracker!"; "Stuntery!"; No Chocolate!"; "Who's everybody's mother?"; "Blue..."; "The whole head, table thing!"; "That's lamont!...I've been running for foot that your feet come off the ground...", "I don't know My" and finally from all the Hall 9 girls, all we have to say is "I can't be bothered!"

Well, if you have been keeping up, this is our first Campus Scene of the year. I hope everyone is in their school mode by now.

I'm proud to say that the freshman SRC football team is starting to look great. We have some great receivers, a few that can really throw the ball, and a great line. We are going to have a great team this year.

If anyone is still looking to join a team, we are the black gold, in Hall 1 third floor, and townhouse G2. The brothers are looking good too. Everyone else be sure to look out. So far we only have two broken toes, one broken hand, and a shiny knee.

For those who don't know, the Grateful Dead is in town for a while... yeah! I hope everyone looking to see a show can get a hold of a ticket. If you can't get a hold of any of our brothers this weekend we are probably somewhere in Boston having the time of our lives. Some of us will be bright flying. I hope everyone has a great safe time.

Kath, Ulpog in for your desk, it will all be ok. I would like to say hello now to a few of my friends. Hi Ross, Dan, Tim, Dar, Taz, Izgy, Jan, Jiggy, and Alex! May the wild kingdom reign forever. Good luck brothers and everyone else.

The Bryant Players

by Donald Wadger

Hello everyone! It's been a busy couple of weeks for the Bryant Players, so let's get right to it.

Casting is complete for "Roommates," our upcoming Parents' Weekend production. The cast and crew are actively rehearsing and preparing for the three performances. Let's help support their efforts.

Also, be on the lookout for a great deal of campus involvement from the Bryant Players. Upcoming events include: Parents' Weekend, Comfort Nights, A Dress-Down Day, our full Dinner Theater, and that's only this semester!

On a final note, I would like to formally welcome all of our new members. Their contribution will play a major role in making this year the best one ever for the Bryant Players. Until the curtain rings yet again.

Overheard: "I can feel that!"

Hello everyone. First of all, I'd like to welcome everyone back, especially all the freshmen. Get ready to experience the best time of your life.

McKinney, how's your head from the chandeliers? Thanks to tri-Sig for Friday's party, a good time was had by all — even the music was good. Duke has earned two, but be careful, because three strikes and you're out.

Jim got booted from 14, while Ray took a plunge for his 19th, and Dells did some house cleaning before he took his bath.

TEF football is on the prowl. TEP-B is looking strong. We're on a quest for a repeat championship. Be prepared for some good, clean, crazy fun. Keep your eyes open for our 4-on-4 beach volleyball tournament on the new court this weekend. There is $10 entry fee per team with cash prizes and free dinner at Subway up for grabs.

Don't forget, everyone is welcome to our floor for Monday Night Football, Donnie's 340's. Everybody study hard, next weekend is only a few short days away. Until then, bath, bye.

The women's volleyball team went 2-3 last week to drop their record to 8-4 overall, 2-1 in the NE-10.

"For the most part, we have been playing well," co-captain Kim Potrzebowski said. "We still have some small patches we have to fix, and we need to blend more."

On Tuesday, the Bulldogs traveled to Bentley and were defeated in three straight. Prior to the Bentley game, the team traveled to East Stroudsburg, PA for the Pocono Classic Tournament.

In the opening rounds of the tournament, the team lost to Mercyhurst in four games and East Stroudsburg in five.

The team finally broke through and defeated Mercy College of New York in four games.

The one high point of the tournament came when co-captain Maria Brus was named for the All-Tourney Team. Brus collected 79 kills (4.9 per game) and had a kill percentage of .318.

Brus had one scary moment in the tournament when starting setter Jen Carvalho went down with an ankle injury, and wound up on crutches. Fortunately for the team, Carvalho returned to action Tuesday against Bentley.

We have a few new people on the court, and we are still trying to get used to playing with each other," Potrzebowski said. "Once we accomplish that, we will surprise a few teams at the end of the season."

The team has a few players amongst the leaders in the NE-10. Brus is fourth in aces per game with 6 and first in kills per game with 4.6. Mireiah Dean is fifth in kills per game with 3.2 and in kill percentage with .338.

Carvalho is fourth in the conference in assists per game with 9.1.

The team itself is also at the top in a few categories. With 45 games played, they are first in kills with 579 (12.9 pg); and third in aces with 102 (2.3 pg), digs with 678 (14 pg), assists with 461 (10.2 pg), and kill percentage with .232.

Currently, the team is looking down the road at events upcoming. "We should come together and find ourselves at the top when we need to be there," Potrzebowski said. "We are always looked upon as an underdog, and that should help us surprise a few teams at the end of the season."

"Basically, we are an egg getting ready to hatch, at the end of the season we will be at the top," Potrzebowski said.

The Bulldogs will be at the Springfield Invitational this Saturday, they will then return to Springfield on Tuesday.

Women's Soccer Starts Slow

Angelo L. Corradino
Archway Sports Writer

The women's soccer team started their season slow, and is still looking for their first win of the season. Currently the team is 0-5 overall and 0-2 in the NE-10.

On Monday, the Bulldogs traveled to New Haven and came up on the short end of a 6-1 loss. The lone goal came from Michelle Osborne assisted by Melissa Roberts. Prior to that game, the team lost to Bentley 1-0 on Saturday and 4-0 to Sacred Heart on last Tuesday.

Despite the scores, the team is playing well and still as a bright outlook on the season overall, 2-1 in the NE-10.

"We have much more talent than the scores and record are showing," Tarna Kiamos said. "We have turned the couple of close games: in over time, or just by giving up a goal late in the game. It has been pretty tough.

Leading the Bulldogs in scoring is Lisa Pink who collected a goal, three assists, and 11 shots on goal; Roberts is next with a goal and two assists; and Osborne, and Kiamos with a goal apiece.

In the net, Bryant is led by Stacey Farber who collected 33 saves in her first five games. Farber has only allowed 11 goals in 345 minutes of play, for a GAA of 2.87. Bryant has given up 28 goals, while the Bulldogs still sit ahead for the Bulldogs, and they are still looking to make a run in the playoffs.

"We started slow, but we are starting to come together," Kiamos said. "In the past, the team has not had a great record, and the team really had not continuity. This year we are really looking for something to build on."

Why Did We Change Our Mascot?

By changing the mascot, the athletic department hopes they can get the fans back into the program. Our athletes work hard every time they go out on the field of play. Even if they don't have the best record in the conference they still deserve our support.

Obviously, the changing of the mascot had no effect on the campus. People simply don't pay attention to what is happening on our campuses, and it is time for these to practice to stop. The people who play soccer, volleyball, or tennis the people who run cross country, play basketball, or even belong to one of our club sports are ambassadors of the college.

By changing the mascot, the athletic department hopes they can get the fans back into the program. Our athletes work hard every time they go out on the field of play. Even if they don't have the best record in the conference they still deserve our support.

Justin Dahl rounded out the Bryant finishers in 15th place with a score of 159. In fact, Bryant's individual finishers placed high enough so that the team was awarded the NE-10 team honors.

The Bulldogs completed the sweep of the individual awards when Archie Boalset was named coach of the year. Boalset will also be inducted into the University of Rhode Island Athletic Hall of Fame for golf and football.

Next up for the team is the Toski Invitational this Sunday and Monday. However they are still looking down the road to the New Englands and other tournaments later on in the season.

Men's Cross Country Defends Their Title

The women's cross country successfully defended their title at the 12th Annual Shacklette Invitational last weekend at Saint Anselm.

Bryant came away with an easy victory, as they out scored the host team, by 29-64.

"It was a different team form last week," head coach Charlie Mandeville said.

"Everyone improved on their times by almost a minute. They [the team] really dug deep and made a difference."

Leaving the way for the Bulldogs was tri-captain Heather Cronce finishing second overall with a time of 19:21 for the three mile course. Right behind Cronce, was Jess Daval finishing third overall with a time of 19:34.

"The second half of the team came through for us this week," Mandeville added. "They really came together."

Other scorers for Bryant were: tri-captains Karen Pilewski finishing sixth, with a time of 19:42; Amanda Friedrich, 15th, 20:53; Karen Caldecorn, 17th, 20:59; Carrie Stagg, 22nd, 21:20; Joey Russo, 27th, 21:36; and Kerri Murphy, 38th 21:57.

Although the team did well this weekend, the team still needs some work, according to Mandeville.

"We did okay, but the second half of the team, still has to close the gap," Mandeville added. "Right now, the gap between first and fifth is in 1:38, they have to bring that down to around one minute if we are going to be competitive."

However, Mandeville still has a positive outlook on the season.

"We still have a good shot at second place in the conference (NE-10), we just need to stay healthy," Mandeville commented. "I stand down to only eight runners, if I lose one more, it is going to be tough."

Injuries and illnesses have hit the team hard this year, the Bulldogs will have to get along without Mandy LaPierre. LaPierre, who was the number two runner on the team, came down with mononucleosis and will miss the rest of the season.

Next up for the team is the Rhode Island College Invitational this Saturday, where Springfield will be their toughest competition.

"Most of the teams are pretty even," Mandeville said. "Springfield, however, is a very strong team, and they will most likely win the meet."

However, if Bryant has a good showing against Springfield on Saturday, they could use this as a stepping stone for the rest of the season.

The team will be gunning this meet as a tune-up for the Tri-States which will be held at Bryant on September 8 at 11:00 a.m.
