INDIANS WIN OPENER IN STYLE

By Steven Diamond

On Tuesday, December 1, the 70-71 Bryant College basketball season commenced. The Freshmen won the preliminary game against the Alumni, 82-57. The Alumni were greatly hurt by the absence of Ben Hillyer. Just after the opening tip off, Glenn Cantin took control as he led the Indians scoring with 19 points. Danny Poland also began to hit, chalking up 17 markers. The balanced attack, whichers for the fresh all hit doubles figures in the victory. Goat-dullier with 12, Rick (the handicapper) Shanley, and Tracey were all with 11. The freshmen, who have a rugged schedule, opened the second half with a good aggressive ball. The alumni were led by Dave Greenblatt with 10 points. Danny Gray, Jim Squad­ridge, and Joe Goddard kept the alumni in the game.

The Bryant College varsity opened their season against a poor-looking Gordon College. The Rams put on a show in the first half by outscoring Gordon, 42-32. The starting five were Torr Burns, Pete Porter, Sonny Garrick, Ray Depelpeau, and Captain Jim Gary.

As the second half began the Ram's defense cooled as they only picked up 12 points in the third quarter. Another problem remained strong as they kept the Indians out of the basket. Gordon under 40 points at the close of the third quarter. With Bryant completely dominating the game, Coach Tom Folliard showed the fans the depth of the Bryant bench. Bob Passano, Bruce Stewart, and John Westman increased the winning margin to a final score of 85-57. The scoring was that the Rams were able to hold up.

Losers' Banquet Features Cartoonist Al Capp

Al Capp, popular cartoonist and political commentator, will speak at Rocky Point Palladium this Saturday, December 15th at 8 p.m. The regular fee for the banquet is $3.50, but Bryant students will be admitted for $1.00.

In addition to creating and producing the comic strip "L'il Abner", Mr. Capp has emerged as the most expensive and the most uncompromising of campus speakers. Frequently, he uses his speakers' fees for scholarships to hard-scrabble students.

Al Capp was the most frequently-booked guest on the Johnny Carson Show until he straightened out New York's Mayor Lindsay, his fellow guest on the show one night.

It brought Capp an ovation from the studio audi­ence; thousands of fans let­ters from the TV audience; but no more invitations from NBC.

His comment on NBC's refusal to call him as a

(Continued on Page 4)

WASHINGTON (CFS) -- As President Nixon sat down to Thanksgiving dinner with 100 wounded soldiers in the White House, the real story of the next operation was tanked in the nation's press. Largely because the commercial media couldn't deal with the fact of their own manip­ulation by the story-tellers in the Pentagon, they failed to mention the obvious clue that both acts -- the heavy bombings and the commando raids -- were part of a large military action designed to test the forces of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam.

The two incidents, which occurred simultaneously, were reported and analyzed as unrelated events because the alleged "POW" raid wasn't announced until more than two days later. "Raids: Stir Question: Why?" was the headline in the Washington Post Sunday, Nov. 22. The ques­tion was answered by the new­day day by the delayed an­nouncement of the commando raid. It is important to note that in all of the discussion of the Saturday bombing raids, the Washington press corps suggested that the raid might be a prelude to or coordinated with possible increased air attacks on the "key fac­tories" in North Vietnam. As the second half began, before the Bryant College Va­rians were able to hold the Indians out of the basket. Bob Passano, Bruce Stewart, and John Westman increased the winning margin to a final score of 85-57. The scoring was that the Rams were able to hold up.

It brought Capp an ovation from the studio audi­ence; thousands of fans let­ters from the TV audience; but no more invitations from NBC.

His comment on NBC's refusal to call him as a

(Continued on Page 4)
Interview:

CURTIS W. TARR, Director

Selective Service

with a certain degree of success and that, in the waning months of this year, we were able to substantially reduce draft calls. This year’s draft call of 165,000 is the lowest number of drawees being inducted in the six years since the build-up in Vietnam. I am not able to predict what will happen in the next 12 months as far as the world situation goes. I know, however, that the draft authority is not extended, our country must be prepared to fill our large worldwide manpower commitments from an all-volunteer military service.

The concept of an all-volunteer service is not new to this country, as all services have the same exception of the Army, rely primarily upon volunteers to carry out their missions. The Air Force and the Navy have used only minor increments of drawees in the past six years to meet needs for their roles in Vietnam, and the Air Force has never drafted. In all the armed services, the draft is very much a minority, making up only 12 percent of all the men in uniform today. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.

The Army MUST train certain numbers of its men, whether volunteer or draftee, to place in its fighting units, whether it be infantry, armor or artillery. Figures from the Department of Defense show that up to 70 percent of the men drafted into the service in any given year, end up in one of these basic units. Volunteers who, under several recruitment programs and because they stay in the service amounts to a period from three to six years, have a certain choice of job assignments, assignment and training and are often not among those troops assigned to a combat unit. A volunteer today is motivated by several things, not the least among them the feeling that he may be needed, he may be needed. If the draft remains, it is very likely that the draft will be drafted and end up with the other 70 percent in a combat unit. Therefore, it is evident that draft, as exists in the first place is motivation for a great number of volunteers. If the draft does not exist, it is a matter of conjecture just how effective a volunteer program would be.

A special commission headed by former Secretary of Defense, Thomas S. Gates, Jr., has recommended that an all-volunteer service, with higher pay and career incentives, replace the draft system as early as July 1, 1971, the day the Selective Service System was put back into use in Vietnam. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.

The Army MUST train certain numbers of its men, whether volunteer or draftee, to place in its fighting units, whether it be infantry, armor or artillery. Figures from the Department of Defense show that up to 70 percent of the men drafted into the service in any given year, end up in one of these basic units. Volunteers who, under several recruitment programs and because they stay in the service amounts to a period from three to six years, have a certain choice of job assignments, assignment and training and are often not among those troops assigned to a combat unit. A volunteer today is motivated by several things, not the least among them the feeling that he may be needed, he may be needed. If the draft remains, it is very likely that the draft will be drafted and end up with the other 70 percent in a combat unit. Therefore, it is evident that draft, as exists in the first place is motivation for a great number of volunteers. If the draft does not exist, it is a matter of conjecture just how effective a volunteer program would be.

A special commission headed by former Secretary of Defense, Thomas S. Gates, Jr., has recommended that an all-volunteer service, with higher pay and career incentives, replace the draft system as early as July 1, 1971, the day the Selective Service System was put back into use in Vietnam. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.

The Army MUST train certain numbers of its men, whether volunteer or draftee, to place in its fighting units, whether it be infantry, armor or artillery. Figures from the Department of Defense show that up to 70 percent of the men drafted into the service in any given year, end up in one of these basic units. Volunteers who, under several recruitment programs and because they stay in the service amounts to a period from three to six years, have a certain choice of job assignments, assignment and training and are often not among those troops assigned to a combat unit. A volunteer today is motivated by several things, not the least among them the feeling that he may be needed, he may be needed. If the draft remains, it is very likely that the draft will be drafted and end up with the other 70 percent in a combat unit. Therefore, it is evident that draft, as exists in the first place is motivation for a great number of volunteers. If the draft does not exist, it is a matter of conjecture just how effective a volunteer program would be.

A special commission headed by former Secretary of Defense, Thomas S. Gates, Jr., has recommended that an all-volunteer service, with higher pay and career incentives, replace the draft system as early as July 1, 1971, the day the Selective Service System was put back into use in Vietnam. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.

The Army MUST train certain numbers of its men, whether volunteer or draftee, to place in its fighting units, whether it be infantry, armor or artillery. Figures from the Department of Defense show that up to 70 percent of the men drafted into the service in any given year, end up in one of these basic units. Volunteers who, under several recruitment programs and because they stay in the service amounts to a period from three to six years, have a certain choice of job assignments, assignment and training and are often not among those troops assigned to a combat unit. A volunteer today is motivated by several things, not the least among them the feeling that he may be needed, he may be needed. If the draft remains, it is very likely that the draft will be drafted and end up with the other 70 percent in a combat unit. Therefore, it is evident that draft, as exists in the first place is motivation for a great number of volunteers. If the draft does not exist, it is a matter of conjecture just how effective a volunteer program would be.

A special commission headed by former Secretary of Defense, Thomas S. Gates, Jr., has recommended that an all-volunteer service, with higher pay and career incentives, replace the draft system as early as July 1, 1971, the day the Selective Service System was put back into use in Vietnam. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.

The Army MUST train certain numbers of its men, whether volunteer or draftee, to place in its fighting units, whether it be infantry, armor or artillery. Figures from the Department of Defense show that up to 70 percent of the men drafted into the service in any given year, end up in one of these basic units. Volunteers who, under several recruitment programs and because they stay in the service amounts to a period from three to six years, have a certain choice of job assignments, assignment and training and are often not among those troops assigned to a combat unit. A volunteer today is motivated by several things, not the least among them the feeling that he may be needed, he may be needed. If the draft remains, it is very likely that the draft will be drafted and end up with the other 70 percent in a combat unit. Therefore, it is evident that draft, as exists in the first place is motivation for a great number of volunteers. If the draft does not exist, it is a matter of conjecture just how effective a volunteer program would be.

A special commission headed by former Secretary of Defense, Thomas S. Gates, Jr., has recommended that an all-volunteer service, with higher pay and career incentives, replace the draft system as early as July 1, 1971, the day the Selective Service System was put back into use in Vietnam. The Department of Defense is reluctant to operate without drawees because it knows that the volunteers have been eager to enter those services which have been traditionally offering the good training, the best jobs and the most opportunity for a relatively stable career.
Proposed Student Senate Constitution

Preamble: We, the students of Bryant College, believe in the necessity of having a political body of its own, the purpose of which is to aid the students in the welfare of an individual student or the student body as a whole. In the performance of such functions we hereby adopt this Constitution.

ARTICLE I
Name: The name of this government shall be the Student Senate of Bryant College.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES AND POWERS
Section 1: To act as the official representative body of the student body to the College administrators, the College authorities, and the public.
Section 2: To present to the College authorities all requests, demands, complaints, and grievances.
Section 3: To promote the interests of the student body.
Section 4: The Student Senate shall enforce the Constitution.
Section 5: The Student Senate shall have a right to review the actions of any student organization and enforce all College rules.
Section 6: The Student Senate has the right to ensure any Senator by a two-thirds vote of all those Senators present for violation of the Constitution or unbecoming conduct.
Section 7: A two-thirds vote of all members present shall be required to impeach any officer of the Student Senate whose section of the College has policies of the Student Senate of Bryant College. A two-thirds vote of all members present shall be required for removal of any officer from that position. Any trials will be held two weeks after the initiation of the impeachment procedure.
Section 8: The Student Senate shall be a policy-making, deliberative body.

ARTICLE III
STUDENT SENATE MEETINGS
Section 1: The Executive Council shall meet regularly once a week, at the call of the President, as requested by three members of the Student Senate, or at the call of the President, for the purpose of conducting its meetings.
Section 2: The Legislative Council shall meet at the call of the President, as requested by three members of the Student Senate, or as requested by two-thirds of the members. Petitions for special meetings must be presented to the Secretary of the Senate at least four days prior to the time of the desired meeting. Only the stated business for which a special meeting is required may be transacted at the meeting. Legislative Council meetings shall be open to the public.
Section 3: Motions may originate in either house. If the Executive Council votes against a motion, a reconsideration may be passed by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of the Legislative Council.
Section 4: Emergency meetings of the Legislative Council may be called at anytime by a majority of the Executive Council.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP
Section 1: The Student Senate of Bryant College shall consist of two branches: An Executive Council and a Legislative Council. All members of the Legislative Council shall be known as Senators.
Section 2: Membership of the Executive Council shall consist of the following:
1. Speaker of the Executive Council (President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Student Senate)
Section 3: Membership of the Legislative Council shall consist of the following:
1. Executive Council Officers (President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Student Senate)
Section 4: The Executive Council has the power to review all bills and proposals submitted by the Legislative Council and pass to the Legislative Body for ratification, with a majority vote of the Legislative Council.
Section 5: Membership of the Council shall consist of the following:
1. Eight elected by each class from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes of Bryant College.
2. Total Membership
Section 6: Vice President of the Executive Council shall act as the Speaker of the Legislative Council. A Speaker of the Council shall be elected from the membership of the Legislative Council. The Speaker of the Council shall act as the presiding officer of the Legislative Council for tie-breaking purposes only. The presiding officer may not have the veto power.
Section 7: Voting by the presiding officer of the Legislative Council shall be for tie-breaking purposes only. The presiding officer may not have the veto power.
Section 8: Each of the Senators in Article IV, Section 5, shall have an active member on the Legislative Council. The Legislative Council may appoint a representative to deliver a written proxy on a specific issue or issues.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS OF THE SENATE
Section 1: The Executive Council shall have a President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Speaker of the Council.
Section 2: The Legislative Council shall have a President, Secretary, and Parliamentarian.
Section 3: Either the Executive Council or Legislative Council may make any additional officers they deem necessary as a two-thirds vote of approval from the members of the Legislative Council in attendance.
Section 4: The Vice President shall have the right to act as his absence. A two-thirds vote by the Legislative Council in attendance will result in dismissal.

ARTICLE VI
ELECTIONS
Section 1: The procedure for elections shall be decided by the Executive Council with concurrence of the Legislative Council.
Section 2: The term of the four elected officers shall be from May 1 after their election until the spring semester of the following year.
Section 3: All elections for the Student Senate office must be held in the spring semester of the following year.
Section 4: All candidates running for the Senate office must have attended Bryant College for at least one full semester before taking office.
Section 5: The term of all Senators shall be from October 1 after their election until the spring semester of the following year.
Section 6: A candidate for the Office of the Student Senate office must have a petition endorsing his candidacy.
Section 7: Candidates may be ranked in order of endorsement by an Election Committee.
Section 8: The date of all elections shall be set by the Election Committee.
Section 9: Any member of the student body is eligible to vote at any time. A student wishing to vote must present his student ID card before receiving a ballot.

ARTICLE VII
DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS
Section 1: President
a. The President shall provide security for the Executive Council.
b. The President shall represent the student body personally in the reorganization of the Student Senate and the Legislative Council and shall assume all powers of the President.
c. The President shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the Student Senate.
d. The President shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the Legislative Council.

ARTICLE VIII
ABSENTEEISM
Section 1: When a Senator has been absent from two regular Student Senate meetings in succession or three during a semester, he shall be issued a written warning notice. The next time the Senator is absent he will be ineligible to vote and the Legislative Council will show cause for his absence. A two-thirds vote by the Legislative Council in attendance will result in dismissal.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS
Section 1: This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Student Senate present and voting.
Section 2: Proposed amendments to this Constitution and/or by-laws shall be sent to the President of the Executive Council, who shall call a special meeting of the Student Senate, at which time the proposed amendments will be considered by a majority vote of the Student Senate present and voting.

ARTICLE X
INTERIM OFFICERS OF THE STUDENT SENATE
Section 1: Undergraduates previously holding the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Student Senate shall be automatically elected to hold the same offices on the Student Senate of Bryant College until the election of new officers in the Spring semester of the following year. A new officer shall be elected by the Graduate Senate in the Spring semester of the following year.

Section 2: Undergraduates previously holding the office of Parliamentary Consultant of the Student Senate may be automatically elected to hold the same position for the remainder of the Student Senate term.
RAIDS
(Continued from Page 1)
Tonkin in 1964 during a renewal of commando raids against the north that provided the explanation for the massive escalation of the ground war in the south and the commitment of hundreds of thousands of U.S. troops.

One other initial justification for the Saturday bombings offered by the U.S. that should be discussed in the notion of "protective reaction" strikes, which the Vietnamese say are the exception to the 1968 bombing halt agreement. They supposedly only occur in response to the attack of "unarmed U.S. reconnaissance flights" above the Demilitarized Zone. The Vietnamese shoot down these planes regularly because they know the reconnaissance being talked about is the mapping of bombing sites for the increasing escalation of the bombardment of the north by U.S. planes. Paris spokesman Bernard Manheim said in Paris that the number of U.S. air reconnaissance missions north of the DMZ totaled 7,050 — while in the first ten months of 1970 there had already been 11,180 such missions.

The number of individual sorties had risen, he said, from 11,180 in 1969, to 19,410, in the first ten months of 1970. Le also charged that the U.S. had made 607 air attacks on the north in 1969, and 1,012 such raids in the first ten months of 1970. Included among these are 36 B-52 raids in 1969 and 179 such raids in the first ten months of 1970. Included among these are 36 B-52 raids in 1969 and 179 such raids in the first ten months of 1970. U.S. officials will only respond to this by saying that 65 "protective reaction" raids against the north have been flown in the past two years.

The most recent matter-of-course reaction of the U.S. press to the information control in America is important, not only because it led to public acceptance of the government line, by the avoidance of obvious analyses of the bombing and commando incidents, but also because it generated widespread acceptance of the fact of in guest again was this: "I am now old enough and rich enough to tell the truth, and I'm surprised that NBC isn't."

AL CAPP
(Continued from Page 1)

At the age of nine he lost his left leg above the knee. In an accident. It doesn't seem to have much affected his life thereafter.

He has worn a wooden leg (a term he prefers to "prosthetic", which he claims has a vaguely nasty sound) most of his life. In an article in LIFE entitled "My Well-Balanced Life on One Leg", he said that he didn't believe in paying undue attention to his leg, that it could come with him if it wanted to, but that he could expect no more pamperness from it than to be obeyed 500 miles.

This then is a brief outline of a very complex and fascinating man whose means attempts to alter his personal views because they offend or anger a few people.

The banquet at which Mr. Capp is speaking will be in honor of the losing candidates from the state of Rhode Island. Proceeds from the lower banquet will help pay back many of the campaign debts incurred by Republican candidates who were defeated in the November elections.

Pig Chase Highlight
Rick Larson, G.L.C. President, joins in the fun of the annual pig chase held recently during Fall Weekend.

Review:
Son of Man and the Family

Once again, Trinity Square Repertory company, and in particular Adrian Hall, author of Son of the Man and the Family, have come up with a controversial play which almost defies review.

The play, in case you haven't heard, deals with the life of Charles Manson and his communal family. Although the play was initially regarded with distaste, at the outset it proved to be exciting, intriguing, and just plain unforgettable.

When the media first spread the news of the crimes of the Manson family, specialists everywhere immediately espoused sociological and psychological explanations of the murders. The play shows that the actions of the "freaked-out cultists" aren't really explanations. Instead it attempts to show Manson himself, as his followers see him—a Christ figure. This in itself is shocking enough to command an audience. Even more commanding is the play's attempt to show the similarities between Manson and Christ. There are definitely differences between Manson and Christ; there are also disturbing similarities. The play attempts to show both. They are effectively shown in rituals of the farm, or movie ranch as it was called, including a crucifixion and last supper.

Phrases of Trinity are the great acting and physical effects of the play, although one segment is nippy. The audience is asked to stand, clap hands, and chant "Oh!" as part of a ritual. It proved to be not only unsuccessful, but also a cheap commercial endeavor to bring out audience participation.

The basic idea of the play is interesting, and the direction and acting make up for the few weaknesses. Son of Man and the Family isn't perfect, but it is well worth seeing.

Constitution Ratification

The proposed new constitution for the Student Senate will be presented to the student body for final ratification next Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 8 and 9).

Dec. 1, 1970

The new constitution provides for the restructuring of the Legislative and Executive Councils. The former system of about 70 representatives from organizations will be replaced by a more workable 24-man Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of six senators elected from each class and any student is eligible to run. The Legislative Council will elect a Speaker of the Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of nine senators and five students appointed by the President to form the Executive Council.

The reform has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Sincerely yours,

STEVEN L. DIAMOND
President of Hillel

Letters:
Hillel Presents Richard J. Israel

The Bryant College Hillel Foundation cordially invites the students of Bryant College to join with the entire college community, to have an informal brunch with us on this Sunday, December 6, 1970. We are inviting you to hear Richard J. Israel, the newly-elected Attorney General of the state of Rhode Island, to present in concert at the Lincoln Park Ballroom in Ten Wheel Drive, Jonathan Edwards, the J. Geils Blues Band and the "Son of Man and the Family" cast.

The reformation has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Constitution Ratification

The proposed new constitution for the Student Senate will be presented to the student body for final ratification next Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 8 and 9).

Dec. 1, 1970

The new constitution provides for the restructuring of the Legislative and Executive Councils. The former system of about 70 representatives from organizations will be replaced by a more workable 24-man Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of six senators elected from each class and any student is eligible to run. The Legislative Council will elect a Speaker of the Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of nine senators and five students appointed by the President to form the Executive Council.

The reform has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Sincerely yours,

STEVEN L. DIAMOND
President of Hillel

Constitution Ratification

The proposed new constitution for the Student Senate will be presented to the student body for final ratification next Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 8 and 9).

Dec. 1, 1970

The new constitution provides for the restructuring of the Legislative and Executive Councils. The former system of about 70 representatives from organizations will be replaced by a more workable 24-man Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of six senators elected from each class and any student is eligible to run. The Legislative Council will elect a Speaker of the Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of nine senators and five students appointed by the President to form the Executive Council.

The reform has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Sincerely yours,

STEVEN L. DIAMOND
President of Hillel

Constitution Ratification

The proposed new constitution for the Student Senate will be presented to the student body for final ratification next Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 8 and 9).

Dec. 1, 1970

The new constitution provides for the restructuring of the Legislative and Executive Councils. The former system of about 70 representatives from organizations will be replaced by a more workable 24-man Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of six senators elected from each class and any student is eligible to run. The Legislative Council will elect a Speaker of the Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of nine senators and five students appointed by the President to form the Executive Council.

The reform has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Sincerely yours,

STEVEN L. DIAMOND
President of Hillel

Constitution Ratification

The proposed new constitution for the Student Senate will be presented to the student body for final ratification next Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 8 and 9).

Dec. 1, 1970

The new constitution provides for the restructuring of the Legislative and Executive Councils. The former system of about 70 representatives from organizations will be replaced by a more workable 24-man Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of six senators elected from each class and any student is eligible to run. The Legislative Council will elect a Speaker of the Legislative Council. This 24-man council will consist of nine senators and five students appointed by the President to form the Executive Council.

The reform has been designed to give each and every student maximum power and freedom. It was developed with much forethought, in betterment of the Student Body and efficiency. Every student will be given maximum power and freedom.

Sincerely yours,

STEVEN L. DIAMOND
President of Hillel
The Family

Book of Richard

T.E.

Theta Chi

BEX

phi Delta Theta

S.I.B.

Placement News

Insights by Alan Kluger

and so it came to pass that a son was born to them and they christened him Richard. As the days went by, he grew into a young man and all the people knew that Richard was good. And in the palace of the Grand Old Party it came to be that Richard was served by his kingdom. With the fervent thrust of a Cheetah he bade farewell to his home and set off at once to serve the people of the kingdom. And when the news of his presence followed, he befriended a dog and yelps of inequity be­

saw him with the fervent thrust of a Cheetah he bade farewell to his home and set off at once to serve the people of the kingdom. And when the news of his presence followed, he befriended a dog and yelps of inequity be­

saw him with the fervent thrust of a Cheetah he bade farewell to his home and set off at once to serve the people of the kingdom. And when the news of his presence followed, he befriended a dog and yelps of inequity be­

saw him with the fervent thrust of a Cheetah he bade farewell to his home and set off at once to serve the people of the kingdom. And when the news of his presence followed, he befriended a dog and yelps of inequity be­

saw him with the fervent thrust of a Cheetah he bade farewell to his home and set off at once to serve the people of the kingdom. And when the news of his presence followed, he befriended a dog and yelps of inequity be­
Final Exam Schedule

DECEMBER 1970

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1970—9:00 a.m.

Course No. Course Division
A.16 Cost Accounting A1 M6
A.6 Cost Accounting A2 M6
A.6 Cost Accounting B1 M10
A.6 Cost Accounting B2 M10
A.6 Cost Accounting B3 M10
A.9 Advanced Accounting A1 M4
A.9 Advanced Accounting A2 M4
A.9 Advanced Accounting B1 M4
A.9 Advanced Accounting B2 M4
A.10 Industrial Mgt. Accounting A1 M11
E.7. Investments A1 M11
E.7. Investments A2 M11
E.7. Investments B1 M11
E.7. Investments B2 M11
M.1. Marketing A1 M5
M.1. Marketing A2 M5
M.1. Marketing B1 M5
M.1. Marketing B2 M5
M.1. Marketing C1 M10
M.1. Marketing C2 M10

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1970—1:00 p.m.

E.1 English Composition E1 M1
E.1. English Composition E2 M1
E.4 Modern Prose Forms E1 M2
E.4 Modern Prose Forms E2 M2
E.4 Modern Prose Forms E3 M2
E.4 Modern Prose Forms F2 M2

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1970—9:00 a.m.

A.14 Income Taxes I A1 M7
A.14 Income Taxes II A2 M7
A.14 Taxes & Business Decisions A1 M4
A.14 Taxes & Business Decisions A2 M4
A.14 Taxes & Business Decisions B1 M4
A.14 Taxes & Business Decisions B2 M4
E.3 Money and Banking C1 M7
E.3 Money and Banking C2 M7
E.3 Money and Banking D1 M7
E.3 Money and Banking D2 M7
E.11 Economic Analysis C2 M6
H.1 Philosophy A1 M7
H.1 Philosophy A2 M7
H.1 Philosophy B1 M7
H.1 Philosophy B2 M7
H.4 Labor Relations A1 M8
H.4 Labor Relations A2 M8

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1970—1:00 p.m.

Optional Examinations
MONDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1970—9:00 a.m.

A.15 Constitutional Law A1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization A1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization A2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization B1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization B2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization B3 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization B4 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization C2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization C3 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization E1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization E2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization G1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization G2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization H1 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization H2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization E2 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization E3 M7
SS.7 Western Civilization E4 M7
SS.7 History of East Asia A1 M8
SS.7 History of East Asia A2 M8
SS.7 History of East Asia A3 M8
SS.13 International Relations A1 M6
SS.13 International Relations A2 M6
SS.17 Practical Politics A1 M7
SS.17 Practical Politics A2 M7
SS.29 Sociology A1 M9
SS.29 Sociology A2 M9
SS.29 Sociology B1 M9
SS.29 Sociology B2 M9
SS.29 Sociology B3 M9
SS.29 Anthropology A1 M6
SS.29 Anthropology A2 M6

Condensed Examinations: Make special arrangements in the Dean's Office, South Hall, Room 1-D, anytime between December 7 thru December 11.

Brook Street Coin-Op Laundromat

"One of the Nice Laundromats"
Corner of Brook and Transit Streets

The College has institutionalized the above loan fund to assist students who have met with unexpected, extraordinary circumstances which cause financial crises. Money will be loaned under fair and reasonable interest rates in accordance with the following requirements:

1. Personal Interview with the Director of Financial Aid.
2. Documentation of circumstances whenever possible.
3. Completion of short-form application.
4. Maximum length of loan is 30 days.
5. Maximum amount of loan is $50.00.

Students must be aware that this loan will be available only for emergencies which cause an expenditure of funds unavailable from any other source.

Example: Home requiring immediate transportation expense. Under no conditions will this loan be available to pay students' college account or to meet ordinary living expenses.

The source of the fund is limited; therefore, all funds have been loaned out, none will be available until collections have been made.

In most cases loans will be made on the spot.

Persons desiring of using this facility should contact the Financial Aid Office.

Beware The Unseen Hazard

With the winter months approaching it is appropriate to appeal to each individual in our community to do everything to prevent any tragedy involving carbon monoxide poisoning.

Carbon monoxide is extremely dangerous and has serious cumulative effects on the body. Exposure to carbon monoxide gas can cause unconsciousness or death. Symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning are headaches, dizziness, blurred vision, nausea and drowsiness. Large concentrations will result in unconsciousness and death.

No one can completely escape from the hazards of carbon monoxide in the home. The only way to guard against carbon monoxide is to have a domestic fire or fuel burning equipment. With the winter months correct diagnosis of carbon monoxide poisoning will not be dangerous.

One of the most dangerous areas of your home is an unvented space heater. It will give off carbon monoxide at all times. Even if a heater or furnace is vented, it is not necessarily safe. Many deaths have resulted because vents were blocked or not opened, resulting in carbon monoxide poisoning.

Contact Lens Inserter

For Precious Little contact lenses you'll want this brand new lens inserter. It's safe, sanitary, simple to use. Holds lens securely in the tiny cup, pops it in place in seconds. Unbreakable inserter comes with instructions & plastic case for pocket or purse.

Contact Lens Insertor Co.
Box 45, Dept. A-70
Oceanide, N. Y. 11572

only $5.00

WHAT TO DO WHEN POLICE CALL

- Ask if not, ask if not, ask if not.
- Tell the quantity is 56, not 74. It's 56.
- If you get the quantity right.
- If you get it right.
- If you get it right.
- Ask the sickness, if not, ask if not.
- Don't you ask the sickness, if not, ask if not.
- Ask for the proper
Do You Know Your Rights?

YOUR RIGHTS AT THE POLICE STATION

You have a constitutional right to remain silent. You don't have to sign any answers except your name. You do not have to sign any statements. Neither a policeman nor anybody else has the right to force you to answer questions or sign statements. If any force or threats are used against you, report them as soon as possible to the judge and to your lawyer.

The police may photograph and fingerprint you; but, if you ask for a lawyer, the police cannot question you or place you in a line-up until your lawyer arrives. Even if you start to answer questions you may stop at any time and ask for a lawyer. If you do, the police must stop questioning you.

If you can't afford a lawyer, you have the right to have a free lawyer.

- Ask the police to let you use a telephone and a telephone directory, and to give you change if you need it.
- When to call
  A lawyer (if you know one)
  Lawyer Referral Service 421-5740
  Your wife, husband, parents or guardian
  Your minister or priest
  A relative or friend
- What to say
  Tell them where you are
  Tell them what has happened
  Ask them to get you a lawyer

Don't talk about your arrest and alleged crime to anybody but your lawyer—conversations in interview rooms and jail cells could be bugged.

The promise of a policeman to help you or to make a deal with the court in exchange for a confession is not binding.

ANYONE, EVEN AN INNOCENT PERSON CAN BE ARRESTED. It is a crime to resist a policeman even if you are innocent. It is better to spend time at the police department than to be charged with resisting arrest. It is even more serious to be charged with assault of a policeman. Hitting a policeman in any way is assault. You can frequently avoid trouble if you don't insult the policeman. If he insults you, you can make a complaint at a later time. The policeman can frisk you if he has reason to believe you are carrying a weapon. Make it clear that you do not agree to any search of yourself, your car, or your surroundings, but do not physically resist the policeman. Any illegally obtained evidence cannot be used against you.

IF YOU ARE TAKEN TO THE POLICE STATION

If you are arrested you will be taken to the police station and booked. This means that your arrest is recorded by the police. You may or may not be charged with a crime at this time.

The police must either release you or charge you with a crime and bring you before a judge (for arraignment) within 24 hours after your arrest (This time can be extended by the judge to 48 hours in special cases.)

WHAT TO DO AT THE POLICE STATION

- Ask if you are charged with a crime. If you are not, ask when you can leave.
- Tell the police you want a lawyer and don't answer questions until the lawyer arrives.
- If you cannot afford a lawyer, ask the police to get you one.
- If you are charged with a crime, ask to be brought before a judge as soon as possible.
- Ask the police to take you to a hospital if you are sick or hurt.
- Don't make any deals. Don't confess to anything you didn't do.
- Ask for an itemized receipt for all money and property taken from you.

IF YOU ARE BROUGHT BEFORE A JUDGE

At the hearing before the judge (an arraignment), the judge will tell you what you are charged with and ask if you plead "guilty" or "not guilty". He will then set a date for your trial.

If you do not have a lawyer yet, ask for one as soon as you are brought before the judge. A lawyer must be provided if you cannot afford one.

Tell the judge and your lawyer any complaints you have about the manner of arrest or other conduct on the part of the police.

Ask the judge to release you on your promise to return to court on the date set for your trial.

If the judge decides not to release you on your promise to return to court, he will release you on bail (except for the most serious crimes). Your lawyer will help you to obtain bail.

ABOUT YOUR ARREST RECORD

If you are not convicted of a crime, you have the right to have all records of your arrest destroyed. You may request that this be done by writing a letter to the Chief of Police.

This information was prepared by the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Rhode Island.
Basketball Highlights

A packed Marvel Gymnasium was the scene of the season basketball opener (above) in which Bryant beat Gordon College 85-83. The alumni took on the freshmen in the night's opener and lost. It appears that the alumni were just a little too rusty to score during part of the game (below).

Members of the Bryant College Cheerleaders helped to keep things alive in the opener and will be seen at all the games this year in their new uniforms (below).

INTRAMURAL OUTLOOK
By Steven Diamond

The conclusion of another season of intramural football was made earlier this week with the Bryant College Super Bowl. Representing the fraternities was Phi Kappa Tau, PKT played Beta to a 13-7 triumph earlier that week so set into championship games with another undefeated season. Both teams played a hard hitting game. Representing the independents were the powerful Raiders. They handled their opponents impressive defeats throughout the season. The two teams gave 100% for the Bryant College Intramural Football Championship. Joe Buck started it off with a field goal for the Raiders first score. PKT retaliated with a touchdown pass from Quarterback Don Servidone to Luke Helfman. Phi Kappa Taus widened their lead to 13-3 on another touchdown pass, this going to Will Thrany. A safety by the RT defense rounded out the score to 13-3.

The Intramural Volleyball season will be getting underway shortly and I would appreciate it if the captains would contact me after every game they play. I can be reached in Gardner Hall Room 302 or in the Activities Office in the Activities Building.

RAIDS
(Continued from Page 4) formation control. In this instance, the delay was made even more appealing by offering its reward a real-life hero in the form of a stone-faced Col. Arthur D. Simons, whose helicopter raiders successfully executed an important dress rehearsal in the abandoned Son Tay prison compound.

HAZARD
(Continued from Page 6) of a car can lead to an accumulation of carbon monoxide in the interior. And, speaking of exhaust systems of a car, it is very easy to check the system for leaks. Simply plug the end of the exhaust pipe with a wet cloth. In a good exhaust system that has no leaks, the motor will die as a result of the plugging. By eliminating these few environmental situations, we will greatly minimize injuries and deaths caused by this insidious killer, carbon monoxide, the unseen hazard.

Pro Football Forecast
By Steven Diamond

This past week due to the early deadline I was unable to get my fearless forecasts written up, so this week I will make up for that and pick them with the score.

MIAMI OVER BOSTON
MINNESOTA OVER CHICAGO
N. Y. GIANTS OVER BUFFALO
DETROIT OVER ST. LOUIS
PITTSBURGH OVER GREEN BAY
OAKLAND OVER N. Y. JETS
PHILADELPHIA OVER BALTIMORE
KANSAS CITY OVER DENVER
SAN FRAN. OVER ATLANTA
CINCINNATI-TIE—SAN DIEGO
WASHINGTON OVER DALLAS
LOS ANGELES OVER NEW ORLEANS
HOUSTON OVER CLEVELAND

Students of Bryant College:
On December 5th at 3:00 p.m. in the Activities Auditorium there will be a report season of all Student Senate Touchdowns. All are invited. Questions may be asked. The committees are:
Lecture, Admissions, Curriculum, Calendar, Building, Athletic, Library, and Financial Aid.

LOOKING FOR WORK???

PEACE CORPS BRYANT COLLEGE
Specific program information and applications for January, February, and June 1971 available in the Placement Office on December 10 and 11. Tremendous opportunities for Seniors and Grad students in a wide range of business, computer, accounting, and math programs all over the world.

Peace Corps Representatives will be in the Placement Office on December 10 and 11 for informal discussion on specific programs. Free movie The Foreigners to be shown Thursday and Friday morning at 9:00.

ALL INVITED
NO APPOINTMENTS NECESSARY