Dr. Lebovitz Honored By World Affairs Council

Dr. Lebovitz, a Professor of Political Science and Dean of the Graduate Programs at Bryant College in Providence, Rhode Island, received special recognition at the annual dinner of the Rhode Island World Affairs Council, Wednesday evening, March 31, at the University Club.

The gift of a world globe was presented to Dr. Lebovitz for his years of service to the many programs sponsored by the World Affairs Council. Featured speaker at the dinner was Dr. William J. Braceland, Rabbi of Temple Beth El. His topic was, “Soviet Jewry.”

Dr. and Mrs. Lebovitz reside at 15 Governor Bradford Drive in Barrington, Rhode Island 02806.

Facility Tables Senate Request

The third meeting of the Student Senate was called to order on March 29, at 3:15 p.m. by chairman, Cliff Waltech. A presentation was made by Dr. Manion and Dr. Sol Lebovitz concerning next year’s curriculum structure. Freshmen will be required to take the basic core program. Under this new system, however, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will be able to choose all their courses as long as they have any credits. Various committee reports were made to show the progress the new Student Senate is already making. The Concert Committee in particular, headed by Glenn Schenck, has set April 17th as the date for a concert featuring recording star Bert Sommer. Plans are also being made for a large outdoor concert at the Smithfield campus for May 15. Details will be announced in the near future.

The Student Senate will not have to take other courses outside the new system. However, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will be able to choose all their courses as long as they have any credits.

Alumni Fund Raising Begins

Mr. LeBeau, President and Treasurer of B & R Co., and member of the Board of Trustees of Bryant College, announces that this year—the year of Bryant’s move to its modern new campus in Smithfield, Rhode Island—the Annual Alumni Giving Fund is directing its efforts toward raising $50,000 to be used in renovating and restoring the Captain Joseph Mowry House in Smithfield as a Bryant Alumni Center.

The gift of land for Bryant’s new campus included this historic 1768 home. Joseph Mowry, son of one of Rhode Island’s first settlers, built the dwelling in 1768 and it served as a home for six generations of the Mowry family.

The creation of an Alumni Center on Bryant’s new campus is expected to provide a common bond of heritage between students and alumni.

Kenneth W. Coderger, Director of Alumni Affairs at the College, reports that the 1971 Annual Alumni Giving Fund officially opened on March 30 and will conclude June 30, 1971.
Uprisings In America's Prisons

by Polly Howell

NEW YORK, N. Y. (AP) — Prisoners have joined armed revolutionaries. And this past year one of the most vital of the social movement is growing within the country's prison walls.

The number of all prisoners is definitely "political." That is, the prisoner is defined by the power structure of society, and is described "outside the law," an "outlaw." As a result, the prison system is being maintained to maintain a very specific economic and social equilibrium.

But today this conception of all prisoners as "political" is becoming less and less metaphysical. More prisoners are beginning to see the societal forces that led them to become "outlaws," George Jackson declares.

"Most of today's convicts have come to understand that their imprisonment is the result of a conspiracy of the מהמעיתים and an unrighteous guilty union."

Prisoners are beginning to see jail as a microcosm of the society they are fighting, and actively identify themselves as enemies of the established order. Ken Berlin, indicted in last fall's prison uprisings in New York City, writes: "When someone has been refused his birthright to live a full life socially and economically, and is deprived of the life's personal and influence to achieve justice, he has indeed become a political prisoner of this society."

Last summer and fall there were a series of uprisings in New York City prisons which gained wide sympathy. The rebellions occurred in detention facilities where men and women were imprisoned up to year or more for lack of $500 or $1,000 bail, while awaiting trial.

Many more people are familiar with the facts of the New York prison rebellions — along with the demands of the further indentments of participants who demanded right of food and health care in the detention centers; Prisoners who were heard by the outside world were later punished, even though elected officials agreed their demands were just. The prisoners do not miss the injustice in this.

A letter signed by the "Queen Eight," the eight men indicted as "leaders" of the Long Island City rebellion, was sent to Victor Martinez shortly after he was too sick to write.

It says: "You are guilty of opening the door so that people can see what goes on behind those walls. For this they ask that you be imprisoned for life. Neither you nor us sparked the flames of rebellion that spread throughout the entire city. For we know that injustice and the disregard for human lives are the true cause of the blaze. But someone must pay, someone must be made example of. We, Victory, have been elected. Elected to be made warriors of fear to still our brothers when they need to cry out from being brutalized, maimed, and murdered."

A major prison uprising this fall occurred at Folsom Prison in California. Inmates there declared a strike, refusing to leave their cells and work in the prison factories for the wages they receive, (six cents an hour mak­ ing such items as automobile license plates). They demanded that prison regulators be abolished, and to meet with officials to settle such demands. The negotiations were to be held in New York, attended by Carle Person and John Salden, of the Chiaro Brown Berets. Unlike the rebellions in New York, the negotiators were not inmates. Presumably this choice was made to imitate "leaders" who could not be picked off later by beatings and indignities as happened in New York.

The strike was broken after three weeks, when guards with clubs entered each man's cell and physically forced him to go to work. The strike was broken by direct, brutal repression, without the hypocritical promises of reform and "no reprisals" that the New York response.

White men and women experience in prison the degradation that non-white people experience every day in the streets outside the prison. White people as well as black people in these institutions are PRISONERS.

- Flexible

Servitium Club

Travel Board Available

Bryant College Students:
Are you traveling? Do you need a ride? Are you looking for riders to help reduce your travel costs?

If you are looking for a ride or riders, why not fill out a card which is in the bottom of the Servitium's Travel Information Bulletin Board just outside of the Bryant College Student Union.

Cards are in envelopes on the bottom of the glass-covered bulletin board for you to pick up, fill-out, and return to the proper eyer envelopes at the bottom of the bulletin board. Servitium Club members will see that your card is tucked up on the board and removed after the destination date.

The purpose of this service is to help Bryant College students find drivers and riders with less difficulty than has been had in past characterized the hope that the student body appreciates and takes advantage of this service.

Servitium Club (Institutional Management Club)

Micher

(Continued from Cambodia. It is believed that the attacks on the Bechtel camp were in retaliation for the use of troops by the Bechtel Company to keep the peace in the area.

The Bechtel Company, a large construction firm, has been involved in a dispute with the Cambodian government over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.

The Cambodian government has also been involved in a dispute with the Bechtel Company over the use of its facilities in the area. The Cambodian government has demanded that the Bechtel Company leave the area, and the Bechtel Company has refused.
Florida Is For The Dogs

by Richard Kaplan

If you are going to Florida during Easter vacation, and you are going to be there before, between — the crops are out to get you.

Last year, Eddie Mettall, my friend, and I, driving home after having been to Florida. Everything went fine going down, but we ran into trouble on the way home. My friend, Howie, was driving in South Carolina doing about 50 miles an hour. He had a small sign on the side of the road (which could hardly be seen) which had a $5 mile per hour speed limit marked on it. The next thing we knew, we were pulled over and answering the question of an enormous Southern cop. The cop, not liking Howie’s reasons for speeding—'Just trying to make the矫 half hour' —had us pulled over to the police station. After Howie paid $30 for ball, pending his appearance at court on Monday, we decided to leave his study. We were a rover of unfair law enforcement in the South. If you are from the North, watch out for the cops.

Last week my brother Alan, and his friend Brian and Tony, decided to go to Biscayne Dog Track. On Tuesday night, they decided to go to Biscayne Dog Track. None of them had proof, they figured they would try to get in anyway. In Florida, you must be 21 to get in. But they figured, why not, they were the token of admission, without any questions asked, and proceeded inside. As soon as they were in, they were rushed by a colonel. “You are under arrest,” he said, and took them to the police station where the criminals were frisked and fingerprinted. But we were never given their rights. The charge for entering the dog track, was “disobstruct conduct.”

The boys had the option of paying $25 each for ball or spending the night in jail and appear in court in a week. They paid the money, but it was a long time before they were released. They were booked out over two hours to type out the forms with one finger. Meanwhile, Howie and our friends were making a joke out of the incident. Brian asked the cop if his arrest would have any effect on his reelection for President in 38 years. The cop, very proud of his capture, finally released the boys.

The story is not only funny, but it is immoral. We are old enough to defend our country, and stupid enough to let the police officer, the son of a law officer, of unfair law enforcement in the South. If you are from the North, watch out for the cops.

Michener

(Continued from Page 1)

Cambridge, the school’s victory bell. The bell, mounted on a low brick column, was ringed constantly clamming for the next 15 minutes. Michener declares it played “a major role, first in assembling the students and then in keeping them agitated.” He says that no one knows who started ringing the bell. But he quotes, Prof. Murvin Perry of the Kent Journalism School, who says that careful study was made of photographs taken of speakers who led the rally at the bell. “No one could identify them as students who had ever been seen here before,” Perry declares.

At 11:59 a.m., Michener says, Guard Brigadier General Robert H. Casterbury gave his speech to the crowd on the front lawn, first ordering a barrage of tear gas. Michener says that “cannon shots,” were fired to prevent any advance of the speeches. It was at least 13 Guard officers and men were at time ar

April 1, 1971

THE ARCHWAY

SCHEDULE OF LIBRARY HOURS

South Division

Monday—Thursday, April 5, 6, 7, and 8, 8:00 a.m. — 4:30 p.m., in the Auditorium of the Bryant Student Activities Center.

Regular Hours Will Resume on Monday, April 12.

Round the Campus

BRYANT COLLEGE WILL SPONSOR THE THIRD ANNUAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SEMINAR, Monday through Thursday, April 5, 6, 7, and 8, 1971, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., in the Auditorium of the Bryant Student Activities Center.

TRIVIAL TRIVIALITIES

Jim Gallagher was the winner of last week’s Trivial Trivialities. Jim may pick up his $5 gift certificate in the ARC Office. The correct questions and answers for last week are:

1) Who played Sky King? Kirby Grant.
2) What was the bighorse of the last Howdy Doody Show? Clarabelle (He said “Good-bye Kids!”)
3) What was the cat’s name on Andy’s Gang? Midnight.
4) What was the name of ABC’s early 1960’s five-minute children’s series? Billy Bang Bang.
5) Who narrated the Fractured Fairy Tales on Rocky and His Friends? Edward Everett Horton.
6) What was the dog’s name on Cisco Kids? Nick.
8) What was Perry Mason’s private detective’s name? Paul Drake.
9) How many numbers are on the Concentration game board? 30.

For this week’s questions turn to page 4.

Jim Gallagher was the winner of last week’s Trivial Trivialities. Jim may pick up his $5 gift certificate in the ARCHWAY office. The correct questions and answers for last week are:

1) Who played Sky King? Kirby Grant.
2) What was the bighorse of the last Howdy Doody Show? Clarabelle (He said “Good-bye Kids!”)
3) What was the cat’s name on Andy’s Gang? Midnight.
4) What was the name of ABC’s early 1960’s five-minute children’s series? Billy Bang Bang.
5) Who narrated the Fractured Fairy Tales on Rocky and His Friends? Edward Everett Horton.
6) What was the dog’s name on Cisco Kids? Nick.
8) What was Perry Mason’s private detective’s name? Paul Drake.
9) How many numbers are on the Concentration game board? 30.

For this week’s questions turn to page 4.

TRIVIAL TRIVIALITIES

Jim Gallagher was the winner of last week’s Trivial Trivialities. Jim may pick up his $5 gift certificate in the ARCHWAY office. The correct questions and answers for last week are:

1) Who played Sky King? Kirby Grant.
2) What was the bighorse of the last Howdy Doody Show? Clarabelle (He said “Good-bye Kids!”)
3) What was the cat’s name on Andy’s Gang? Midnight.
4) What was the name of ABC’s early 1960’s five-minute children’s series? Billy Bang Bang.
5) Who narrated the Fractured Fairy Tales on Rocky and His Friends? Edward Everett Horton.
6) What was the dog’s name on Cisco Kids? Nick.
8) What was Perry Mason’s private detective’s name? Paul Drake.
9) How many numbers are on the Concentration game board? 30.

For this week’s questions turn to page 4.
Horses...Dogs...Taking Your Pick
Try Ours
by Steve Diamond

Last night a few thousand people were foolish and dedicated to opening day at Raynham Dog Track. Previously these people were asleep the night before during a watch of about 48 dogs a night. In fact they are now about 300 dogs in a group. The time that they all saw the race is a certain time. It's the right time and it is the only time to take it or leave it.

LINCOLN DOWNS
BOWLEMITTE
CRIMSON PAL
RAYNHAM DOG TRACK
MOST WELCOME
KHAKY
DOT'S DOLL
BETTER BET
SECRET PROCESS
BISHOP'S PARK
SOME YOLO
NITE CLUB
GYRANO

Wednesday to try and win on open­ line, George Jackson speaks of John Cluchette, of the Sole­

and Legal AuthorlU.,

Ken Cender describes what

Prisons
(Continued from Page 2)
recognizing how racism is used to divide and weaken all men and women, black and white.

George Jackson speaks of this in his book: “Prisoners of the and Legal Authorities.

The cycle continues to indicate no development when the frozen ice age came. The fish died quickly; however, the frog made it to the surface and evolved to have wings because the ice was too cold to sit on all the time.

“...prison is only an

Accordingly, the person who becomes a “professional thief” in prison will soon be outnumbered by the person who becomes a revolutionary in prison.

The revolutionary has no better chance of getting out of jail than the “professional thief,” but he or she will realise the “psychological murder.”

Cender speaks of.

Bryant College Bookstore

Dares You to Wear the Latest in T-Shirts.
The Shirt That Carries a Message.

"Vietnam — the Edsel of Foreign Policy"

"Fly the Friendly Skies of Cambodia"

"Tomorrow will be Cancelled Due to Lack ..."

Also Raggedy Ann — Superman
Little Orphan Annie — Mickey Mouse
American Flag — Love and Peace Shirts

ONLY $1.95

Bryant College Bookstore

Knishman’s Critique
By Harry Knishman

Scope’s Trial — Not a Mouthwash Experiment

Dr. Henry J. Williams, prominent sociologist at Harvard University, recently shocked the social world with his startling discover that "It all started back with the Beatles, he declared with sincerity, "in one of their songs they sing "You’re Gonna Have an Evolution," and in fact saw it up with that." One of the more interesting points was his discussion of the revolutionary cycle of man. The following is an excerpt from that story.

At a recent interview with LIb­

recently shocked the social world with his startling discover that "It all started back with the Beatles, he declared with sincerity, "in one of their songs they sing "You’re Gonna Have an Evolution," and in fact saw it up with that." One of the more interesting points was his discussion of the revolutionary cycle of man. The following is an excerpt from that story.

At a recent interview with LIb­

recently shocked the social world with his startling discover that "It all started back with the Beatles, he declared with sincerity, "in one of their songs they sing "You’re Gonna Have an Evolution," and in fact saw it up with that." One of the more interesting points was his discussion of the revolutionary cycle of man. The following is an excerpt from that story.

At a recent interview with LIb­
Bryant Bowlers Win Olympics

On March 25, 1971, the Bryant College Bowlers flew to Bern, Switzerland, for the 1971 spring Olympics. The six bowlers were selected to represent the United States because they had the six highest averages in the Olympic playoffs. High moments for the Bryant bowlers were Steve Monaco's 300 game, a 291 game by Steve Diamond, and the conversion of the 7-10 split by Fred Windrum and Don Dunn. Then the tragedy occurred. John Duha, using Steve Monaco's finger tip ball, threw a slow curve which turned completely around and hit star Lee Wheeler in the leg. Lee will be laid up for a couple of years, and this could hurt the team's future. In the 291 game by Steve Diamond, after the 11th strike his back went out and he threw a one on his last ball.

The Bryant bowlers brought home a gold medal for the United States. Unfortunately they pocketed it for 100 dollars on the way back and stopped off at the BIG A. Needless to say, Royal Harbinger ran out. In the final match against the Soviet Union, which placed second, Bryant faced the five toughest bowlers in all of Russia: Tony Kruchev, Pedro Stanitsky, Mike Borev, Rodney Leren, and Nika Schwartz. The Bryant bowlers made these guys turn red. The boys then flew back home for a ticker-tape parade held in Danbury, Conn. You can see these same fearless bowlers on April 18 in Cranston Bowl.

The Wrong Comment

Here are this week's questions for Trivial Trivialities:

1) Who played "Nickley" on Sky King?
2) Who played Bullwinkle?
3) What was the bookie's name on Ozzie and Harriet?
4) What is the secret identity of S. R. Hill?
5) True or false: Alan Kluger?
6) Who hosted the NET quiz show ABCDEFGHIJKL?
7) Name three of the "girls on the street" from the Lawrence Welk Show?
8) What was Superman's cow's name?
9) Who was the talking dog on The Honeymooners?
10) How do you pronounce the alphabet?

The winner of this week's Trivial Trivialities will get a prize of 3 free swimming lessons in the Providence River or one lesson in the finer art of crepitation.
The Presidential Office on the new campus has been designed, at the direction of the building committee, exactly as Dr. Evarts wanted it... "simple, easy, meditative, and capable of holding small person-to-person discussions with students wishing to discuss campus problems."
FACULTY STRIKE PROPOSED

The following article is printed as a service to the Economic and Marketing Departments, and written by them.

"Following the issuance of our last statement explaining our stand on the faculty negotiations, there occurred a few grave misunderstandings. At this time, we would like to clarify our position."

"The negotiations being conducted by Bryant, while not indicative of a highly efficient or transparent condition, are only a move to enter the casual and in no way indifferent sides-intellectual corps of highly impersonal and qualified socio-economic status exemplified by the recent moves in East Pakistan. The chief negotiator, a man of highly moral standards, ethicistic and qualifications, has, as exemplified by his recent research and the great earthquake of 1956 in Lower Australia, caused a somewhat hesitant and ambivalent status among the non-financial community. Therefore we must take this stand, firmly, and in a bright atmosphere of non-transparent participation. We will stick to this... our final statement on the negotiations... hopefully this statement here, has helped to clarify the entire situation.

There is no truth to the rumor that the Student Senate is stockpiling munitions in preparation for the spring offensive against the Administration."

Reprinted from the Archway, June 1946

To Mr. Handy
One day while laying on the green
A little book I seen,
An English grammar was the edition
So I left it lay in the same position.

What's a Grecian Urn... oh, about $15 a week.

ASK THE ARCHWAY

There is no truth to the rumor that Mr. Boulet stepped on Mr. Long's IBM card with his golf shoe... thereby causing the computer to "MAKE A MISTAKE."

There is no truth to the rumor that Mr. Fontaine has resigned as provost of accounting to become a "ball of wax" manufacturer.

There is no truth to the rumor that Mr. McCabe is everybody's "pal"... and that's no option.

There is no truth to the rumor that Mr. Knox has signed with the Metropolitan Opera Company as a soprano.

There is no truth to the rumor that the new campus will be called "UPPER TUPPER."

There is no truth to the rumor that Richard M. Nixon has applied for a teaching position at Bryant pending the 1972 election.

There is no truth to the rumor that Hubert Humphrey is "proud as lemonade."

There is no truth to the rumor that Vice-President Hagan's office is wallpapered with red tape.

There is no truth to the rumor that the College leaves an Edel for Dr. Evarts.

There is no truth to the rumor that the Administration is anchored to the ground by 40 struggling bull elephants to keep the hot air from lifting it off the ground.

Whoop, whoop, whoop.
Dr. Evarts Installed

Dr. Harry Evarts, the 8th president of Bryant College, will be installed on June 12th, in a simple ceremony in his office. Present at the installation will be the Vice Presidents, invited guests, members of the press, and four members of the Plumbers and Pipelayers Local #87, who will do the actual installing.

WILL THE REAL FACULTY EVALUATION... PLEASE STAND UP!

Mr. William C. Syme, Vice President for Arranging Student Affairs, is being detained by the President's Committee on Student Affairs. Mr. Syme was found checking the files of the administration building.

The entire incident occurred at 1 p.m., when the administration building, which houses the office of Mr. Syme, was found to be in disarray. The president was notified, and the investigation is currently ongoing.

Mr. Syme was found in his office, stating that he was conducting a routine check of the files. He claimed that he was simply organizing the papers and making sure everything was in order. However, it was later discovered that he had been making alterations to the files, including adding and removing documents.

Mr. Syme was taken into custody and is currently being questioned by the administration. It is unknown what charges, if any, he will face.

At least one administrator has commented, "I'm sure he will get back into the swing of things. Then, of course, there is a teacher that loves Simon & Garfunkel's songs. In fact, he just loves Mr. Robinson. He told us that the astronauts that go to the moon are called "Hummel." Remember -- there might be a change in the weather, but there is always change at McDonald's."